BEGIN THIRD U. S. PROCEEDINGS TO DEPORT BRIDGES

Ties with Communist Party Reviewed.

San Francisco, Cal., March 31 [Special].—The United States government today charged Harry Bridges, 41 year old alien boss of Pacific coast maritime unions and California director of the CIO, with affiliation with subversive organizations. Government prosecutors put Ben Gitlow, former communist party leader, on the stand to tell that the party takes orders from Moscow and advocates overthrow of the federal government.

Ben Gitlow. [A. P. Wirephoto.]

It was the third time the government has started deportation proceedings against Bridges, a native of Australia and a resident of the United States since 1920.

Goodwin Outlines Case.

Clarence Goodwin of Chicago, special assistant to Attorney General Robert H. Jackson, told Judge Charles Sears, a retired New York jurist who is conducting the hearing, that the government will show Bridges joined the Industrial Workers of the World when he first came to the United States, that he later became a member of the communist party and still later affiliated with the Maritime Workers' Industrial union.

Goodwin said all of these organizations advocate overthrow of the government by violence. The government will support its charges with the testimony of 25 witnesses and a 2,500 page report of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

After Bridges was sworn, identified for the record, and had admitted grudgingly that he is a subject of Great Britain, Gitlow was called.

Former Clothing Worker.

Gitlow, a former clothing worker, helped organize the communist party in the United States, was its first secretary and twice the party's candidate for Vice President of the United States. He was thrown out of the party in 1929 for not giving wholehearted support to the Moscow party line, but he learned enough in the eight years he was a member to qualify as an expert on the party's aims in the United States.

Gitlow said the communist party in the United States is bound to carry out the principles of the communist internationale and that a fundamental principle of all communist parties is to prepare for the violent overthrow of all capitalistic governments.

Tells of Trips to Russia.

The witness told about trips he made to Russia to attend meetings of the internationale, about instructions and money he brought back to America and particularly about a cardinal policy of the communist party to conceal names of members.

"One of the aims of the communist party," he concluded, "was disorganizing the military forces of the government. The party is far from antimilitarist; Russia has the largest standing army in the world. Their antimilitarism is confined to weakening their opponents."

At the outset of the trial, Judge Sears told Bridges that he still had the right to make application to leave the country voluntarily.

Alien Waves the Right.

"The alien waives the right," snapped Carol King, a New York woman attorney who is directing Bridges' defense. When the government attorneys sought to question Bridges, Miss King interrupted to say he had told his story in 1939 in a hearing before James Landis, who later ruled the government had not proved Bridges was a member of the communist party.

Miss King then asked for dismissal of the hearing on the ground that this hearing places Bridges in double jeopardy in violation of the bill of rights.

Judge Sears said the motion was irrelevant to his duty. At the conclusion of the hearing, Judge Sears will prepare a report and recommend a verdict. Attorney General Jackson will make the final decision.

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE

PRESIDENT ASKS BOTH SIDES TO CONTINUE TALKS

450,000 Workers in U. S. Affected.

All production work in the nation's major bituminous coal fields was tied up at 11 p. m. [Chicago time] last night as 450,000 soft coal miners, including 39,000 in Illinois, began a work stoppage which federal conciliators said may be the most serious in history.

At the same time, however, a Presidential warning that continuation of bituminous coal production was "extremely important" and an announcement that union and mine operators' representatives will resume deadlocked negotiations for a new contract at 10 a. m. today in New York City, held out some hope that the stoppage may prove short lived.

Today a Holiday in Mines.

Today, the 43d anniversary of the eight hour day, is a national miners' holiday regardless of the situation. Dr. John R. Steelman, United States department of labor conciliator, said the conferees' agreement to resume negotiations today kept alive the possibility that the deadlock could be broken. John L. Lewis, president of the CIO United Mine Workers of America, previously had said, however, that the stoppage would be "actual not technical" despite the holiday.

An hour after the New York conference broke up at 7 p. m., President Roosevelt, en route to Washington, D. C., by train, sent the following telegram to Ezra Van Horn of Cleveland, chairman of the joint Appalachian [eight states] conference:

"Uninterrupted operation of bituminous coal industries extremely important. Suggest if necessary you continue negotiations during Tuesday looking to satisfactory arrangement. Shall expect report thru Steelman before midnight."

Message to Be Taken Up.

Dr. Steelman interpreted "midnight" to mean 12 p. m. [eastern standard time] today, and Van Horn said the message will be considered at today's conference.

The stoppage began at midnight [eastern standard time], when the old contract expired. When the conference ended in a deadlock yesterday after 14 days of negotiations Lewis instructed the miners not to work without a contract or without assurance that any benefits under a new contract would be retroactive to today, April 1.

The miners are demanding $7 daily pay. At present miners in the north are paid a basic wage of $6 and those in the south $5.60. Additional demands are for 200 guaranteed working days a year and two weeks' annual paid vacations.

Charles O'Neill, representing the operators in New York, asserted that the pay boost asked would add $200,000,000 a year to production costs. Lewis disputed this, esimating that it would work out at 17 cents a ton additional—$61,000,000 on a present estimated output of 362,134,000 tons.

AFL Unions Also Affected.

Lewis submitted the demands on behalf of the 309,000 workers in eight states in the Appalachian field, and bituminous miners in Illinois, and two other states made similar demands to state operators' associations. The Appalachian contract sets the standard for 141,000 additional miners outside that area, including many American Federation of Labor members.

Van Horn said the operators had been unable to agree to any of the miners' demands.

In Illinois, where the production of 47,600,000 tons of soft coal is a $150,000,000 a year industry, the 15,000 members of the AFL Progressive Mine Workers' union joined in the action with 24,000 UMWA workers. Illinois scale contracts, like those in other major fields, are based on the Appalachian agreement.

The last major strike in the soft coal industry lasted six weeks in April and May of 1939. It at first affected only miners in the Appalachian field, but spread until all in the nation were idle.

A long tieup would hamper defense production by shutting down beehive ovens furnishing 15 to 20 per cent of the coke used in making steel. Few steel companies have coke supplies for 40 days ahead, and many have not a 20 or 25 day supply.

AMERICA FIRST RALLY TODAY TO HEAR TALK BY MISS LILLIAN GISH

Miss Lillian Gish, stage and screen star, and Gen. Thomas S. Hammond, former head of the Illinois National Guard, will address an antiwar luncheon rally today at 1 p. m. in the Grand ballroom of the Hotel Sherman. The rally is sponsored by the Chicago chapter of the America First committee.

Both Miss Gish and Gen. Hammond advocated the entry of the United States into war in 1917, but are now convinced that participation in the present European conflict would bring dictatorship and financial collapse.

Miss Gish, who starred in British propaganda films which helped to draw the United States into the first world war, will describe propaganda technique again being used by the British and American governments. Gen. Hammond, chairman of the Illinois America First committee, will discuss the economic peril to America if the nation goes to war.

Mrs. Janet Ayer Fairbank, national vice chairman of the America First committee, will preside. All the 55 state chapters are expected to send representatives to the luncheon.

HEAR U. S. MAY TAKE CANADA'S DOLLAR AT PAR

OTTAWA, Ont., March 31.—A foreign exchange agreement between the United States and Canada may be reached soon, with the American government possibly agreeing to accept the Canadian dollar at par, it was reported here today without official confirmation.

[The Canadian dollar was quoted in New York yesterday at 85.18¾ cents. Details on page 27, column 8.]

Conclusion of such an agreement, it was said, would mean that Canada would eliminate import restrictions on American manufactured goods and raw materials imposed last November to curtail domestic purchases of alien luxury goods and preserve the value of the Canadian dollar.

Since then Canada has agreed to finance all but 350 million dollars worth of Great Britain's war purchasing here, estimated at $1,500,000,000 and the United States has adopted the lend-lease principle. It is argued that these and other changes in the situation make it desirable that channels of trade be made as free as possible.

'Bubble Bomb' Nazi U-Boats' New Weapon

BY ALEX SMALL.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, March 31.—Germany's spring crop of new, specially equipped submarines, now being unleashed for the long heralded undersea mass attacks upon Great Britain's shipping, will be fitted with "bubble bombs," a weapon hitherto kept secret.

The new weapon, according to reports just released, was designed to be directed from submerged submarines at enemy vessels above them. U-boat experts at the Krupp works in Essen, it was said, developed the weapon in an effort to give German submarines a chance to defend themselves when forced underwater by the enemy.

Uses Vertical Tube.

The "ascending bomb" is described as a "streamlined hollow body" half filled with ekrasite—a German high explosive. The bomb has a percussion cap in its upper surface. The latest types of U-boats will have a vertical torpedo tube from which the new bombs will be released to speed upward and explode upon contact with a solid body—theoretically the unprotected bottom of an enemy vessel.

German naval experts state that the bomb will explode wholly under water and the pressure of the water will direct the entire force of the explosion to the point of least resistance—in the case of a warship, its least armored part, the hull.

Boast Power of Blast.

The new bomb can be made small enough to allow the U-boats to carry a "considerable supply." It is claimed that a "few kilograms" of high explosive are sufficient to have "annihilating effect." [A kilogram is 2.2 pounds].

A new type of periscope has been devised to enable U-boat commanders to aim their "bubble bombs." This "submarine eye" is an underwater periscope supposed to function to a maximum depth of 130 feet. The periscope, it is said, will permit the U-boat commander to observe the shadow of vessels directly above, and enable him to make a counterattack, thus defending his craft against the dreaded depth bombs. A series of "ascending bombs," it was stated, may be sent to the surface in quick succession.

The German press also announced a new member of the German air fleet—the Focke-Wulf 189, claimed to be the "most modern reconnaissance plane in the world." Newspapers boasted its two motors give it "inconceivably high speed for a reconnaissance plane." They claim it is more maneuverable than a pursuit craft.

FRENCH TO RECEIVE NEW CUT IN SCANTY BREAD RATION TODAY

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, France, March 31.—Scanty bread rations of the French will be reduced 3½ ounces a day beginning tomorrow. Adults will be allowed about seven ounces, with slightly less for old people and an extra four ounces for manual laborers. The new bread tickets are limited to one month, instead of three as in the case of meat, indicating that a further cut will come in May. Milk, which has been scarce all winter, is now much more difficult to obtain. Butter rations probably will be decreased in May. Because 65 per cent of the hog stocks were lost as a result of the war, price increases of 37 to 85 per cent have just been authorized to keep consumption down. The price of lard will increase 89 per cent.

TRIO OF 'BABES' CLAIM PLUMBER'S ESTATE OF $12,521

TORONTO, Ont., March 31 (AP).—It began in 1918 when William J. Wright, a Toronto plumber, dropped in to watch a burlesque show at Fort Wayne, Ind., and became enamored of a showgirl he came to know as "Miss Babe."

It developed in the courts today that three women in the United States claim to be this same "Miss Babe," to whom he bequeathed his estate of $12,521; that a cousin seeks to void his will, and that a church was Wright's second choice for his beneficence if "Miss Babe" could not be found.

The three claimants to the title of "Miss Babe" are Mrs. Edith Collins Stewart of Ithaca, N. Y.; Mrs. Dorothy Marguerite Willett of Los Angeles, and Dorothy Newman of New York. The alternative legatee named in Wright's will is the Sherbourne Street United church of Toronto.

Wright's cousin and heir-at-law, Charles Barkworth, seeking to break these prior claims on the estate, contended Wright was "peculiar" and legally incapable of handling his affairs when it was made in 1925. The Canada Trust company seeks to have the will validated.

Axis Protests U. S. Seizure of Its Vessels

Washington, D. C., March 31 (AP).—Germany and Italy protested to the United States today over the government's action in taking axis ships into "protective custody" on grounds of sabotage.

The embassies of the two axis powers acted quickly after the seizure of a total of 69 German, Italian, and Danish vessels in sweeping raids during the week-end.

The contents of the notes were not disclosed.

No Danish Protest.

The Danish legation here announced tonight that "we haven't protested and are not going to protest" the simultaneous seizure of 35 Danish vessels along with those flying the axis flags. Informally, Danish spokesmen explained that they felt that Denmark was in an entirely different category than the other nations in the matter of the ships, adding that Danish crews had no idea of sabotaging their ships.

The Italian note was delivered personally by the ambassador, Prince Colonna, to Breckinridge Long, assistant secretary of state.

Germany's was dispatched later by Hans Thomsen, head of her embassy in Washington, who sent it by messenger to the state department. It arrived after most officials had departed for the day and it was left in the custody of a guard.

Cabinet Members Meet.

A long conference of the secretaries of state, war, and navy was held at the state department late in the day, but whether it had any connection with the seizure of the ships was not made known.

Following up its dramatic seizure of the vessels, the United States today issued warrants accusing the German and Italian crews of violating the immigration laws. Later the justice department announced it had instructed the Federal Bureau of Investigation to investigate sabotage. The 1917 sabotage law defines as a crime the willful damaging of any ship in United States waters and sets a maximum penalty of $10,000 fine and two years in prison.

The 100 Germans and 775 Italians were alleged to have overstayed the statutory limit of 60 days permitted alien seamen and were ordered held pending deportation proceedings, officials of the immigration service of the justice department said. No warrants were issued for the sailors of the Danish vessels.

It's "Protective Custody."

Meanwhile, responsible sources said that new legislation might be necessary before the United States could operate or otherwise benefit from the ships, which were taken into "protective custody" on grounds of actual or prospective sabotage.

The legal position of the government was not clear beyond its power to take possession of the vessels under a 1917 espionage act.

At an informal press conference at

NORWEGIAN FLEET OF 1,000 SHIPS SPEEDS WAR GOODS TO BRITAIN

New York, March 31 [Special].—More than 1,000 vessels of Norway's prewar merchant marine fleet are now operating between England and the United States and other points under the direction and control of the Norwegian government in exile in London, it was disclosed today by Arne Sunde, Norwegian minister of supply and shipping, as he departed for Europe aboard the Yankee Clipper.

Sunde asserted that his task in this country has been to expedite shipments of materials to England.

William Barnacle, general manager of Sorel Industries, Ltd., of Quebec, manufacturers of heavy caliber field and naval guns, another passenger bound for Lisbon, said his company sent its entire output to Great Britain and added that it had been "very fortunate" in its shipping. He indicated the loss of war materials en route to England was not so great as is generally believed.

GERMANS MOVE UP NEW ARMY TO JUGO-SLAVIA

75,000 Troops Mass at Croat Border.

BELGRADE, Jugo-Slavia, April 1, Tuesday (AP).—Five German divisions were reported concentrated on the Hungarian-Jugo-Slav frontier early today soon after Viktor von Heeren, the German minister, led the last of German nationals out of this country on a special train. The train departed eight minutes before the midnight deadline he had set for the exodus.

Premier Dusan Simovitch.

"I am going to report to my government," Von Heeren said. "I will see Foreign Minister [Joachim] von Ribbentrop immediately upon my arrival in Berlin."

[The Hungarian telegraph agency said in a dispatch from Berlin that the foreign office had received a note from Belgrade explaining the Jugo-Slav foreign policy, but that the note did not mention the three power pact into which the since deposed regency government signed that kingdom.]

Find National Unity.

The reported concentration of some 75,000 German troops on the northern Croatia frontier coincided with word that Jugo-Slavia had found national unity in an agreement between Vladimir Macek, veteran Croat leader, and Premier Dusan Simovitch.

Macek's paper in Zagreb, capital of the highly vulnerable northern province declared: "In historic times which may be near, Croat ranks stand united."

In addition to the threat from Hungary, German troops quartered in Bulgaria since that nation fell into the axis sphere early in March, have been shifted from the Turkish and Greek frontiers westward to face Jugo-Slavia on the east. Other German troops are in Rumania.

Tells People, 'Stay Home.'

At the back of this nation are Italian forces in Albania, for the present thoroly occupied by the Greeks.

Macek's acceptance of the vice premiership in the new anti-Nazi government was reported as Simovitch ordered Jugo-Slavs to remain on the threshold of their homes and, "if destiny orders," give their lives to the fatherland.

Loudspeakers blared this proclamation as Von Heeren and more than 1,000 Germans left on a special train which was an hour late because of the procession of trains which steamed out of the station bearing men, women, and children of various nationalities. Three American couriers also left on the special train.

[It was learned in Berlin that Dr. Ivo Andritch, Jugo-Slav minister to Germany, went to Belgrade after a meeting in the Berlin foreign office and with the full knowledge of German officialdom, which was said to be awaiting the results of his trip.]

Italians here joined the axis partners in the exodus, which went on as police lines kept crowds of Jugo-Slavs back from Belgrade's depots.

Jugo-Slav Army Ready.

The government readied its 1,250,000 soldiers as midnight passed without any apparent change in what German circles had described as "desperate and hopeless" German-Jugo-Slav relations.

[Earlier there had been unconfirmed reports that Germany would serve an ultimatum at midnight demanding that Jugo-Slavia demobilize her armies or the guns of German legions would speak.]

German circles said negotiations with Belgrade had been broken off Sunday night and had not resumed since.

It was estimated that 3,000 Italians and Germans alone left in loaded trains for Germany, while other nationalities fled into Turkey, Greece, and other Balkan neighbors of this kingdom.

Peasants Jam Trains.

Thousands of peasants, violating the premier's proclamation banning all but official evacuations, jammed trains for the provinces.

The Swedish, Hungarian, and Italian ministers bade good-by to their families, and Arthur Bliss Lane, the American minister, saw his diplomatic friends off.

Early today, thousands of persons still stood massed in the train sheds patiently waiting any kind of transport out of the capital.

Many carried baby carriages, bicycles, bedding, furniture and other luggage. Animals mingled with Serb soldiers headed for the frontiers.

Outside in the streets, other hundreds of disappointed would-be travelers slept on carts loaded with their luggage.

Broadcasts Proclamation.

Premier Simovitch broadcast a confident proclamation of his nation's military preparedness to meet any eventuality.

The Belgrade radio broadcast this exhortation hourly: "Remain calm. The king and government are watching and taking all necessary measures."

To all state and local authorities and the clergy Simovitch ordered: "Remain at your posts—no matter what happens."

"In connection with alarmist news spread about our country by foreign agents to bring unrest among our people and officials, I order all people to ignore the false news being circulated," the premier said.

"There is no reason to worry. The royal government is trying to remain on friendly relations with all neighbors, and in the future follow this course. . . .

Reports Troops Ready.

"The army, air force, and navy are ready to do their duty."

As each hour passed Jugo-Slavia was bolstering her defenses. Serb soldiers in steel helmets and full campaign equipment paraded thru Belgrade's streets.

Following the infantrymen were taxi loads of Komitajis, hardy guerrilla fighters whose fur caps bear a skull and crossbones, symbol for "Unity alone saves Serbia."

These tough veterans paused in the streets to make brief speeches exhorting the people to support King Peter and his new government and to denounce Jugo-Slavia's "enemies."

It was recalled that Adolf Hitler's reported impending demand for demobilization of the Jugo-Slav army was the same that was said to have precipitated last week's upset of Jugo-Slavia's "axis" government and the catapulting of Peter to the throne.

More German Troops Move Up

Additional German troops moved to the border of Jugo-Slavia in Bulgaria and Rumania as tension increased between the two nations. Captions indicate important developments in the Balkans. Diagonally ruled area in Albania shows territory taken from Italians by Greeks.

U. S. FLYER BACKS LINDBERGH VIEW ON NAZIS' PLANES

Pasadena, Cal., March 31 [Special].—Describing Nazi planes as "equal to anything thrown against them," Byron Kennerly, convalescing American pilot with the British royal air force, confirms Col. Charles A. Lindbergh's estimate of Hitler's air might.

"Lindbergh wasn't kidding when he described Germany's air power, altho few people in Britain or this country would believe him," said Kennerly, a flight commander with the American-staffed eagle squadron, who is at his Pasadena home on a four month furlough to recover from eardrum injuries suffered in a power dive.

Kennerly said British pilots have great respect for German flyers and planes. He said the German Heinkel 113 can fly at extreme altitudes of 40,000 feet, and described the Messerschmitt 110 as "about the fastest fighting plane in the world."

"The Messerschmitt 109 will coax an enemy into diving into the sea," the pilot said. "The stabilizers of that ship quickly bring it out of a dive. If a British Spitfire dives for him the Spitfire can't get too low. It has to come out of the dive more gradually."

American fighter planes are not as good as the British Hurricanes built five years ago, Kennerly said, but the Lockheed Hudson bomber is highly regarded.

BRITISH ADVANCE; CUT ADDIS ABABA PATH TO THE SEA

CAIRO, Egypt, March 31 (AP).—British African forces smashed on inside Italian Eritrea and Ethiopia tonight in general advances which were declared to be adding to the number of captive Italian troops and war materials.

From newly occupied Diredawa, where the British have severed the Addis Ababa-Djibouti railway, a westward advance coincided with a "general forward movement in other Ethiopian sectors," the middle east command reported.

The capture of Diredawa has cut the only rail connection Addis Ababa, Ethiopian capital, has with the coast. Diredawa is 200 miles east of Addis Ababa by railway.

In Eritrea, the British reported they were advancing on Asmara, the capital, 45 miles east of captured Keren. The British were halfway to Asmara, latest advices from Keren to Cairo headquarters said.

MUFFLED NAZI BOMBERS RAID ATLANTIC SHIPS

Hoboken, N. J., March 31 [Special].—Huge German bombers, their four motors almost silenced by a new muffler device, are pressing the battle of the North Atlantic 1,000 miles from the English coast, returning travelers said today.

They were passengers aboard the Holland-America Line freighter Blommersdjik which docked here after a 12 day crossing from Liverpool. For the first five days of the voyage 12 British destroyers convoyed the Blommersdjik, and 39 other vessels. Almost every day German planes attacked.

On March 19 the bomber-pilots, their planes unheard until they were within 100 feet of their targets, had a stroke of luck when the westbound convoy passed another headed for England. Bombs rained down and diving Nazi planes raked the vessels with machine gun fire. One ship in the eastbound convoy was squarely hit and its munitions cargo exploded—sending it to the bottom in five minutes with the loss of all hands. The Blommersdjik was armed with a 4 inch gun on its after deck and machine guns in the wings of its armored bridge.

GERMANY CLAIMS IT IS GUARDIAN OF PEACE IN BALKANS

BERLIN, March 31 (AP).—Germany considers herself responsible for peace in southeast Europe, including Jugo-Slavia, but the time to enforce peace has not yet arrived, in the view of semiofficial quarters here tonight.

"One could not go wrong," declared the commentary Dienst aus Deutschland, which has close foreign office connections, "in assuming that Germany in every respect holds fast to the basic conceptions of southeastern politics in the light of the ideology of the three power pact and holds herself responsible for peace, law, and order in southeast Europe."

The foreign office spokesman himself explained that "the time for Germany to take a stand has not arrived."

However, the fact that the German press is reporting asserted abuses to German citizens in Jugo-Slavia, together with the German practice of timing other moves with almost mathematical precision in respect to diplomatic maneuvers, led observers to believe the situation in Jugo-Slavia would be of the briefest duration.

JAPS' FOREIGN CHIEF REACHES ROME FOR PARLEY WITH DUCE

ROME, March 31 (AP).—Japan's foreign minister, Yosuke Matsuoka, arrived tonight for conferences with Premier Benito Mussolini. Count Galeazzo Ciano, foreign minister, and other high political and military figures greeted him. The Japanese was guest of honor at a private dinner given tonight by Hans-Georg Viktor von Mackensen, German ambassador to Italy. Matsuoka's first talks with Mussolini and Ciano are scheduled for tomorrow.

[The Rome radio reported that Vatican circles said Matsuoka would be unofficially received tomorrow morning by Pope Pius XII.]

EDEN IN ATHENS 'TO TRY TO AVOID SPREAD OF WAR'

ATHENS, Greece, March 31 (AP).—Fast moving developments in the Balkans brought Anthony Eden, British foreign secretary, and Gen. Sir John G. Dill, chief of the imperial general staff, to Athens today.

An official communique said they had "resumed conversations with the Greek government with the view of preventing the spread of war on the Balkan peninsula."

Since Feb. 20, when Eden and Dill arrived in the near east, their visits to Egypt, Turkey, and Greece have been marked by important developments in British plans to counter the axis in the Mediterranean.

On Feb. 27 the Turkish-British alliance was reaffirmed, followed soon after by a soviet declaration which in effect gave a "free hand" to oppose Germany. Large British forces were landed in Greece soon after Eden's previous visit to Greece. Since Eden last was in Athens Jugo-Slavia has overthrown her "axis" government and put in a pro-British government.

Canadian Firm to Build U. S. Long Range Bombers

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

MONTREAL, Quebec, March 31.—Canadian Vickers Ltd., today was reported to have secured a large order for the construction of PBY long range bombers. These are the American planes which Wendell Willkie said Prime Minister Winston Churchill told him were one of Britain's most urgent needs in the fight against German submarines in the Atlantic.

NAZI PLANE LOSS 155 SINCE JAN. 1, BRITISH DECLARE

Set Own at 41; 2 German Battleships Raided.

LONDON, March 31 (AP).—The air ministry announced today that 155 German planes were destroyed in the first three months of the year by British fighter planes, antiaircraft guns, balloon barrages, and unexplained "other causes." British losses in the same period were placed at 41 fighters. Ninety-four German planes were claimed by the fighter command, 51 by antiaircraft, and the remaining 10 by balloon barrages and the "other causes."

The three months' score showed increased effectiveness of antiaircraft gunners, their best month being March when they were credited with destroying 23 raiders.

Raid Two Nazi Battleships.

British flyers Sunday night made a blasting air raid on two German battleships just returned from a foray on shipping in the Atlantic, it was announced today.

Explosives crashed on all sides of the 26,000 ton Scharnhorst and Gneisenau anchored at Brest, the air ministry reported, when a "powerful force" of bombers raided that French port. However, no direct hits were observed.

These were the battleships the British declared were loose in the Atlantic a few days ago, sinking ships as far west as the 42d meridian, which runs only a few hundred miles east of Newfoundland. [The Germans claimed 22 ships totaling 126,000 tons were sunk.]

The British kept up a relay of planes across the channel in attacks on German shipping and "invasion" ports from Calais to Boulogne. Five direct hits on two tankers at Le Havre were reported.

The government acknowledged Nazi raiders had caused "considerable damage" tonight in a sharp raid with incendiary and heavy bombs on a northeast coast town. [Hull has been one of the chief German objectives in northeast England.]

Shoot Down Two British Planes.

BERLIN, March 31 (AP).—German patrol boats shot down two low flying British bombing planes this afternoon when the British attempted an attack over the southern part of the North sea, authorized sources reported.

"Despite unfavorable weather" German bombers caused serious damage to "to large merchant ships, one in the Atlantic, the other north of the Thames' mouth," the high command said.

Bomb Goes Off in Front of Cuban Minister's Home

HAVANA, Cuba, March 31 (AP).—A small bomb exploded tonight in front of the residence of the Cuban minister of state, José Manuel Cortina, causing great alarm but slight damage. Cortina was in his home.

SCIENTIST TELLS HOW SYNTHETIC FUEL RUNS AUTOS

Operates Car 300 Miles Without Refilling.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, March 31.—The discovery of a high grade, low cost synthetic motor fuel which will put France's thousands of idle automobiles back on the roads and may even take the place of gasoline was announced today before the Academy of Sciences by Prof. Georges Claude, French scientist, who gave the world liquid air and neon lights.

Claude's new fuel is called "acetylated ammonia" and consists of a mixture of 40 per cent acetylene and 60 per cent ammonia. The availability of raw materials and the simplicity of manufacture make its output virtually unlimited. Any automobile can be converted to burn acetylated ammonia at a cost of less than $200. The only changes required are the addition of two large tanks on the rear and the adaption to the motor of a hand compressor and a special carburetor.

Provides Quick Pickup.

The fuel provides a quick pickup and is compact enough to run a car for more than 300 miles without refilling the tank.

After driving to the academy in a factory model of a French car fitted with his invention the 70 year old scientist told his audience:

"Experiments have revealed that liquid ammonia is by far the best dissolvent of acetylene. For every atmosphere of pressure it absorbs 50 times the volume of the acetylene. Consequently a large quantity of acetylene can be dissolved by only slightly increasing the pressure of the ammonia and thus all danger of explosion is averted. Thus acetylated under the pressure of a dozen atmospheres ammonia makes a very good combustible. The liquid obtained in this way runs an automobile motor excellently and presents no difficulty in starting."

Could Operate More Cars.

The inventor said that since acetylene only made up 40 per cent of the mixture, a given quantity of this gas would enable two and a half times as many cars to be operated as in the case of acetylene alone being used. French production of acetylene is 350 tons a day, whereas 250 tons of the gas would permit 600 taxicabs, using acetylated ammonia, to remain in operation an entire month.

A decade ago Claude attempted to extract thermal energy from the Gulf stream off Cuba. This experiment ended in failure after the crashing of a mile long million dollar steel tube as it was being lowered into the ocean opposite Mantanzas. This tube was to have piped energy to land.

2 GERMAN SHIPS STEAL OUT OF A PERUVIAN PORT

CALLAO, Peru, March 31 (AP).—The German motorships Muenchen and Hermonthis left unexpectedly tonight from the harbor here where they had refuged since the outbreak of war in September, 1939.

Port authorities said the two merchantmen took advantage of nightfall and sped away with their lights doused. Neither had sailing papers.

FRENCH VIOLATE BLOCKADE TO AID GERMANY: BRITAIN

Tell of War Supplies Carried to Nazis.

BY LARRY RUE.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, March 31.—One of four French ships involved in an incident on Sunday in which the British navy attempted to intercept a convoy off the coast of Algeria was carrying goods destined for Germany, the ministry of economic warfare said today.

This was followed by a charge by the London Daily Telegraph that Admiral Jean Darlan, the French vice premier, is attempting, in sending a protest against the incident thru Washington, D. C., to drive a wedge between Britain and the United States.

The paper predicted he will fail because, as foreign minister, he is protesting against "the inevitable result of a scheme which, as vice premier, he devised with the Germans. . . . This scheme of collaboration goes so far as to provide war materials for Germany."

At the foreign office it was said the French protest had not yet arrived. It is understood that, regardless of its contents, Britain will maintain all her "rights under international law, including the rights of search and seizure."

Lists Supplies Nazis Got.

The political correspondent of the Evening News said he understood that "admission of foodstuffs to unoccupied France is being reviewed by Britain in consultation with America" in view of the incident off Algeria.

A spokesman for the ministry of economic warfare declared Britain has obtained increasing evidence that Vichy is using its shipping to evade the blockade against Germany.

To show how the Vichy government is "playing the axis game," he said that from Jan. 16 to March 1 the following war materials, among others, were sent from unoccupied France into Germany: 30,000 tons of bauxite, 10,000 tons of aluminum, 8,000 tons of magnesium, 10,000 tons of ram wool from Algeria, 2,200 tons of Chilean nitrates, and 60,000 tons of fruit.

Goods sent to Italy were said to have included 5,800 head of slaughter cattle and 4,000 hectolitres of gasoline [about 105,000 gallons].

Britain's seizure of French vessels is justified not only by Britain's rights under international law, the spokesman said, but by the fact that 250,000 tons of British chartered shipping were permanently detained in French ports when France fell. The reason for detaining the vessels, he added, was in the conditions of the Franco-German armistice.

France Protests "Attack."

VICHY, France, March 31 (AP).—The French government announced today it was protesting to London against what was described here as a British attack yesterday on a French convoy in the Mediterranean.

[The British said their ships were fired on by French shore batteries when they attempted to stop the merchant men in the normal process of search under belligerent rights of blockade.]

The navy ministry declared the convoy's cargo included "neither rubber nor material, nor any food supplies destined for enemies of England."

CLAIM ITALY LOST 4,000 SAILORS IN BIG NAVAL BATTLE

British Believe 35,000 Ton Warship Probable Victim.

BY LARRY ALLEN.

ABOARD THE BRITISH FLAGSHIP WARSPITE AT ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, March 31 (AP).—Italy lost five and possibly eight warships including the crack 35,000 ton battleship Vittorio Veneto, when the Fascist fleet fell into a baited British trap on Friday west of Crete, British officers said tonight upon their return from the epic night battle.

Almost 4,000 Italian officers and men also were knocked out of the war, they said. More than 900 of these were rescued by the British.

Altogeher 3,000 officers and men were believed to have lost their lives. Hundreds were known to have drowned after jumping into the sea because German dive bombers precluded British rescues, the British said.

In high good humor Britain's commander in chief, Admiral Sir Andrew Cunningham, declared:

"Not a single British ship was hit by the enemy, and this was one of the most extraordinary actions in naval history. We are going to do our best to finish off the Italian navy before the end of the year."

Scored 3 Direct Hits.

The Italian captain, Manlio Despisi, rescued by the British destroyer Jervis from his 10,000 ton cruiser Pola before it sank, was quoted by British officers as saying that the "Vittorio Veneto probably sank before getting back to Taranto."

Capt. Despisi related that British naval pilots scored at least three direct torpedo hits on the powerful Italian battleship and that the vessel listed heavily at the stern. Its speed was reduced to 15 knots out of a possible 32.

Three Italian cruisers, the Pola, Zara, and Fiume, each of 10,000 tons, and two destroyers, the Vincenzo Gioberti, 1,729 tons, and the Maestrale, 1,449 tons, definitely were sunk.

And in addition to the Vittorio Veneto the British believed the 5,069 ton cruiser Giovanni delle Bande Nere and a destroyer were lost.

Out to Smash Convoys.

Capt. Despisi said the Italian units were en route to smash British convoys operating around the Greek island of Crete when surprised by the British, who used the 7,215 ton cruiser Orion as a decoy to trap the Italians.

Italian crews aboard the Zara and Pola, which were struck by terrific broadsides from 15-inch British guns, hung huge white sheets over the sides of the ships to indicate surrender, the British said.

British officers estimated that from one-fourth to one-half of Premier Mussolini's naval striking power now was at the bottom of the sea or out of commission.

Goaded On by Germans?

Smiling broadly and his blue eyes twinkling, Admiral Cunningham said:

"I don't know whether the Italian ships actually were officered by Germans in this engagement, but there was no doubt the Germans exerted pressure on Premier Mussolini to send the fleet to sea.

"The enemy fleet had not been sighted anywhere in the central Mediterranean since Nov. 11, when British torpedo bombers crippled three of Il Duce's six battleships."

[A British Broadcasting corporation announcement, heard in New York, said that a message from Athens reported that "German officers, petty officers, and seamen gunners were among those picked up" from Italian warships sunk by the British and landed at Athens.]

The British sole admitted loss during the long action, much of it in the darkness, was two planes—and they claimed three German war planes were shot down.

[Rome admitted the loss of the cruisers Pola, Zara, Fiume, and destroyers Giovanni Gioberti and Maestrale, but specifically denied that the cruiser Giavonni delle Bande Nere was a victim. Rome disputed the British claim that they had no damage or casualties, asserting that at least one British cruiser was sunk, two British warships damaged, and possibly others.]

Discovered off Sicily.

The first intimation that the British fleet was going to have its chance against the Italians on March 27 with the news that Italian warships were off Cape Passero, Sicily, and steaming eastward.

This Fascist fleet by the next day—March 28—was in two sections: the Vittorio Veneto, accompanied by a force of cruisers, was off the western end of the Island of Crete; the second force included two battleships, along with cruisers and destroyers, and was by then farther to the north.

Altogether, nine Italian cruisers, 14 destroyers, and three battleships were in action, but what happened to the second section—that in the northern zone of operations—still is not clear.

The attack on the southern section, that headed up by the Vittorio Veneto was the first great night struggle of capital ships since the world war battle of Jutland.

Sequence of Violence.

This was the sequence of violence as told by the British:

The Orion, a sister ship of the Achilles and Ajax which fought the Admiral Graf Spee off Montevideo, contacted the southern section of the Italian fleet and cunningly lured it on for four hours.

Then planes of the fleet air arm—torpedo bombers—swept in with their deadly attacks, scoring several hits on the Vittorio Veneto.

A direct hit also was scored on the engine room of the Pola.

The Italians then turned about toward home. But the Vittorio Veneto's speed had been cut by its injuries, and the getaway was too slow.

British light forces attempted to cut off the damaged battleship, then 30 miles away from the main British fleet and reported listing badly and down at the stern.

They made a circling movement at full speed, but failed to contact the big battleship. They then found that the Fiume and Zara, previously accompanying it, had returned to aid the Pola. This was about 10 p. m. Friday night.

Draw Up for the Assault.

Then all British forces drew up for the assault on the cruisers and destroyers. Fifteen inch shells burst into the Fiume and Zara, and while the destroyers cut in to loose their torpedoes, the two cruisers were finished off in bursts of fire and steam.

The Pola, disabled by a torpedo bomber, surrendered to the destroyer Jervis, which sent it down with a torpedo after its 257 men had been taken off.

The British battleships Warspite [30,600 tons], Valiant [30,600 tons], and Barham [31,100 tons] shot the Italian destroyers Vincenzo Gioberti, and Maestrale into hulks of rubbish.

During all this, a cruiser of the Bande Nere class was believed sunk and also a third Italian destroyer which launched its torpedoes and immediately hid behind the heavy smokescreens. Damage was thought to have been wrought to other Italian ships.

Heavy firing was heard aboard the British battleships after the fighting was over and this suggested that the stricken Vittorio Veneto had in the darkness mistakenly turned its guns on some of its own ships.

Sends Message to Italians.

Sir Andrew Cunningham sent a message, in English and in commercial code, to the chief of the Italian naval staff suggesting he send a hospital ship to the scene of battle to try to rescue the Italians still floating about on life rafts.

He sent another message, too, this one to the entire British fleet:

"The operations just concluded have given us a notable success over the enemy. . . . The devastating results of the battleships' gunfire are an ample reward for months of patient training. This work was completed by our destroyers in the admirable way we have come to expect from them.

"The contribution of the engine room departments to this success cannot be overemphasized. . . . I am very grateful to all in the fleet for their support on this and all other occasions.

"Well done."

The cruiser Pola, Fiume and Zara were named for Adriatic ports which Italy acquired from Austria-Hungary as part of her world war spoils. The Giovanni delle Bande Nere was a sister ship of the Bartolomeo Colleoni which was sunk in a battle, also near Crete, last July. It was reputed to be one of the fastest cruisers afloat.

Italian Cruisers Sunk in Battle

These figures on the strength of the Italian navy and its losses during the war were made public by Great Britain. The totals represent the strength in each classification before the start of the war.

THE RESULTS CLAIMED BY BRITISH IN BATTLE WITH ITALIAN FLEET

The British yesterday claimed these results in the week-end battle in the Mediterranean:

SUNK: The Italian 10,000 ton sisterships Pola, Zara and Fiume; the 1,729 ton destroyer Vincenzo Gioberti, and the 1,449 ton destroyer Maestrale.

POSSIBLE ITALIAN LOSSES: The 35,000 ton battleship Vittorio Veneto, the 5,069 ton cruiser Giovanni delle Bande Nere, and a third destroyer, perhaps the 1,729 ton Vittorio Alfieri.

According to British statistics, this is the summary of Italy's naval situation at the present stage of the war:

Class.	Had.	Lost.
Battleships	8	[x] 5
Cruisers	19	6
Destroyers	127	12
Submarines	125	20

[x] The battleships are listed by the British as damaged; the other vessels as sunk.

GREEKS WILL GET U. S. ARTILLERY, ROOSEVELT SAYS

Reveals 75s at Bragg Are Ready for Shipment.

Aboard Roosevelt train en route to Washington, March 31 (AP).—President Roosevelt viewed today two army demonstrations but he commented particularly on a group of 75 millimeter guns which he said were going to Greece.

The President said it was all right for reporters to say that the world war vintage artillery pieces were not all the war equipment which would be dispatched to Greece, but he would not discuss numbers or quantities.

First Details of Aid.

Mr. Roosevelt's statement that some 75s soon would be on the way to Greece was the first disclosure of any specific kind of weapons which have been released to Britain or Greece.

After congress enacted the war aid bill Mr. Roosevelt approved the first transfer of war supplies, and it was learned that he since had released additional consignments and that more probably would follow soon.

Sees 75,000 Men in Camp.

Surpassing anything he had seen before of the actual methods of training were the swiftly paced shows put on by 75,000 men in khaki, first this morning at Fort Jackson, S. C., and again late in the afternoon at Fort Bragg, N. C. It was at Fort Bragg that the 75s were waiting under a shed beside the train tracks ready for shipment to Greece.

Mr. Roosevelt stopped off at the two posts on the way to Washington, D. C., from a fishing cruise off the Florida coast. Back in the capital tomorrow, he will face important decisions in translating a 7 billion dollar appropriation into action to assist nations standing in the path of the axis powers.

Defer Hearing on Freedom Bid for Princess Hohenlohe

San Francisco, Cal., March 31 (AP).—The habeas corpus hearing of Princess Stephanie Hohenlohe was continued today until April 30 so the government could try to obtain visas from Japan and Russia in its efforts to deport her to Hungary. The princess sought to obtain her liberty on bond while fighting deportation charges of the immigration service that she was an undesirable alien.

GLASGOW DOCK LABOR TO VOTE ON STATE RULE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, March 31.—Following strong opposition in the Glasgow area to Minister of Labor Ernest Bevins' scheme to nationalize docks and turn the dockers into state employés, officials of the Scottish transport general workers' union decided tonight to allow the dockers to record their views in a ballot vote.

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Many of those gnawing, nagging, painful backaches people blame on colds or strains are often caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

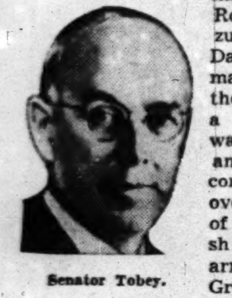
CONGRESS HAS HEATED DEBATE OVER CONVOYS

Ship Seizures Called New Step Toward War.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]



Senator Tobey.

Washington, D. C., March 31.—With numerous legislators asserting that President Roosevelt's seizure of 69 Italian, Danish, and German ships brings the United States a step closer to war, there was an upheaval in congress today over the question of American warships convoying arms cargoes to Great Britain.

A heated colloquy in the senate was touched off when Senator Charles W. Tobey [R., N. H.] introduced a resolution forbidding the use of any American merchant ship to transport or of any American warship to convoy arms shipments to belligerents.

Administration Is Split.

At the same time it became known that the administration is divided on the convoy question. Administration leaders in congress have advised the President that sentiment in that body is strongly opposed to convoying arms cargoes on the ground that such action would bring American warships into collision with German warships and thereby directly involve the United States in the war.

Mr. Roosevelt is represented as impressed by that view but considering a scheme to attain the convoy objective without actually doing the convoying. This plan is to turn over to Great Britain a sufficient number of cruisers, destroyers, and mosquito boats which would be manned by British crews for convoy duty. This plan is favored by many members of the cabinet.

Opposed by Knox.

Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox, however, heads a faction opposed to this scheme and favoring outright convoying of arms cargoes by American warships manned by their regular American crews. Secretary Knox has steadily opposed transfer of any more destroyers to Britain in addition to the 50 already traded for the lease of British territory for naval bases. One reason he has given is that our navy is more proficient than Britain's in convoy work.

Aroused by the administration's plans to convoy arms cargoes in some manner, six senators who fought the dictator legislation invited all other opponents of the measure in congress to a meeting tomorrow night to plan a program to keep the country out of a "shooting war." The invitation was signed by Senators Burton K. Wheeler [D., Mont.], Clyde M. Reed [R., Kas.], William J. Bulow [D., S. D.], D. Worth Clark [D., Idaho], Henrik Shipstead [R., Minn.], and Robert M. La Follette [P., Wis.].

A "Peace Measure."

Senator Tobey, in introducing his anticonvoy resolution, said that when the dictator bill was passed it was proclaimed a peace measure, only one senator advocating that the nation go to war forthwith. Now, he said, there appears the danger that convoying will get us into the war. He cited the testimony of Secretary Knox before the foreign relations committee in which Knox said that he opposed convoying as an act of war. He quoted the President as saying that "convoying means shooting and shooting means war."

"It seems to me," said Senator Alben W. Barkley [D., Ky.], "that the mere act of convoying would not result in shooting unless the other side did the shooting."

Senator Tobey's Retort.

"It seems to me," said Senator Tobey, "that what the President had in mind was that if we convoy a group of ships with supplies for a belligerent the enemy of that belligerent is going to take steps to put those convoys out of business and when the shooting begins and our ships are sunk there will be a wave of righteous indignation that will go over this country and will arouse the people passionately and earnestly to cry out that 'we will go to war and lick those fellows over there.'"

"When we send our vessels into the belligerent zone it is going to make us declare war," said Senator Ellison D. Smith [D., S. C.].

The seizure of the Italian, German, and Danish ships did not figure in the debate, but in off-the-floor expressions senators divided as they did on the dictator bill. Senator Warren R. Austin [R., Vt.] said he is "heartily in favor of the administration's action." Senator Frederick Van Nuys [D., Ind.] said it "is as important to impound ships as to impound gold." Senator Wayland Brooks [R., Ill.] pronounced it "another step toward war," and added that the administration "apparently is determined not to let us escape this war."

U. S. FOOD SHIPMENTS TO BRITAIN MAY COST 300 TO 500 MILLIONS

Washington, D. C., March 31 (AP).—Secretary of Agriculture Claud R. Wickard indicated tonight that shipments of food to Britain under the lease-lend bill may total 300 to 500 million dollars within the next 15 months.

Warning against exaggeration, Wickard said that total British purchases my amount to a very small percentage of America's total food bill, estimated at about 15 billion dollars annually.

He also reported that the agriculture department had purchased approximately 10 million dollars worth of surplus commodities within the last two weeks. It was explained that these purchases were available for distribution to needy families in this country and for Red Cross relief abroad, as well as for "sale to Britain under provisions of the lease-lend act," The British are reported to want concentrated foodstuffs which are more easily shipped than bulky commodities.

MEXICO IS READY TO SEIZE DOZEN SHIPS OF AXIS

Report Action Planned to Support U. S.

MEXICO CITY, March 31 (AP).—Responsible sources in the ministries of foreign relations and the navy reported tonight Mexico planned to take custody of 12 German and Italian vessels in Mexican ports, possibly by morning.

Armed naval detachments, these sources said, will take over the ships as an act of continental defense and of solidarity with the United States.

Navy and foreign office officials asserted an earlier statement from the navy ministry that the craft had been placed under the protection of the Tampico and Vera Cruz port captains would not bar such action.

Ten of the vessels are Italian freighters and tankers, total tonnage 58,151; one is a 9,660 ton German passenger ship, and the other a German freighter of 6,735 tons. The tonage of all is 74,546.

Latin Countries Watch.

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, March 31 (AP).—The governments of four South American countries in whose ports there are about 60 merchant ships flying the flags of Germany, Italy, France, and Denmark, studied closely tonight reports on the seizures of axis vessels in the United States. There was no indication that Argentina, Brazil, Chile, or Uruguay planned to seize the vessels.

Not a Friendly Act, Says Nazis.

BERLIN, March 31 (AP).—Germany will "certainly not regard American action in respect to Italian and German ships as an act of friendship," an authorized spokesman told the foreign press today in advance of an official release on the subject.

The whole idea of what is and is not private property is shaken by the United States action in seizing the vessel, the commentator said, declaring that the ships belonged not to governments but to private firms.

Authorized quarters added:

"We can at present indicate neither the tendency, nor the time, nor the subject matter of the coming press release.

"Naturally, America's action is one which demands the closest scrutiny and investigation. The matter is probably of prime historical significance."

SMOKE ROUTS 25 FROM PLANT.

Two thousand workers fled from the smoke yesterday when 25 gallons of oil caught fire in the Mills Novelty company plant at 4110 Fullerton avenue. Firemen extinguished the flames. Damage was estimated at $100.

AXIS PROTESTS SHIP SEIZURES; TOTAL NOW 69

U. S. Orders Arrests of 875 Seamen.

Fort Bragg, N. C., President Roosevelt told reporters that he was too far from salt water to say whether the ships would be held by this country or transferred to Britain. The President indicated that he personally had ordered their seizure yesterday. At that time he was aboard the yacht Potomac in Port Everglades, Fla., where the German freighter Arauca lay near by flying a big swastika.

Hull Defends Action.

Secretary of State Cordell Hull defended the seizures, but declined to discuss the question of using the ships or transferring them to Britain. A high treasury official said the government could take clear title to any of the ships which it could prove were "willfully damaged" by the crews, and added that it might gain title to others if it could be shown that all Italian shipmasters had instructions to sabotage their vessels.

Meanwhile, the Costa Rican government moved to "protect" two axis ships in Punta Arenas harbor, only to be greeted by fires aboard said to have been set by the crews. The two ships are the German freighter Eisenbach and the Italian liner Fella. Their officers and men, totaling 120, were arrested on arson charges and held incommunicado in a penitentiary at San José after being escorted thru an antiaxis demonstration at the Punta Arenas railroad station.

In the Philippines, too, the United States navy took over four Danish vessels in accordance with the sweeping action instituted in the United States during the week-end.

It was considered likely that other Latin American countries would follow the lead of the United States, as did Costa Rica. In fact, Chile acted ahead of the United States by seizing three Danish vessels a few weeks ago.

Action at Havana.

At Havana the Cuban government instructed its navy tonight to take custody of the Italian merchant ship Recca, which has been refuged in Havana harbor since Italy entered the war.

The decision announced by Premier Carlos Saladrigas at the presidential palace was understood to be a manifestation of solidarity with the United States government.

A navy force boarded the Recca to carry out secret orders hours before the move was announced. The crew offered no resistance and remained aboard under custody of Cuban marines. The 35 seamen and officers probably will be taken tomorrow to the immigration camp at Tiscornia. The legation made no comment.

Danes Left Aboard.

In Washington the treasury department said all officers and crew members were taken off German and Italian ships seized by the United States and turned over to the immigration authorities. On the Danish ships the masters were left aboard and a few crew members, not more than six on any one ship, were also permitted to stay to take care of the vessels. The rest of the Danish crews were turned over to immigration authorities.

At New York, officials explained that the Danes had been "100 per cent coöperative." Thirty four of them were lodged at the coast guard station at Ellis Island, N. Y., but were free to come and go as they please."

Federal officials said that altho no order had yet been issued in Washington it was "quite possible" that the government would take over the $60,000,000 liner Normandie and five French freighters tied up in New York harbor.

The 1,029 foot Normandie took refuge here at the outbreak of war. She is docked in the Hudson river with a skeleton crew aboard. Her owners, the French Line, have been spending more than $1,000 a day to keep the 83,423 ton vessel seaworthy.

French freighters laid up in New York are the Leopold L. D., 5,267 tons; Ile de Noirmoutier, 5,703 tons; Ile de Ouessant, 6,187 tons; Ile de Re, 5,104 tons, and Mont Everest, 5,120 tons.

As to possible action against other foreign ships in American ports, authorities were silent. There are about a dozen Baltic ships tied up in American ports since the three small Baltic nations were absorbed by soviet Russia last summer.

Russia is reported to have been trying to get possession of them.

REVEALS CANADA AND U. S. CAPTURE 'ENEMY AGENTS'

TORONTO, Ont., March 31 (AP).—The capture and internment of "hundreds of enemy agents bent on destruction" in the United States and Canada thru "complete coöperation" of the United States Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Royal Canadian mounted police was reported tonight by Arthur G. Slaght, liberal member of parliament for Parry Sound.

He told the board of trade in a speech that the records of the two agencies "have been entirely open to each other for some time."

Fire Destroys King's Select Bath Club During a Raid

LONDON, March 31 (AP).—The select Bath club where King George VI. of Great Britain and Princesses Elizabeth and Margaret Rose learned to swim was destroyed by fire during a recent air raid alarm. Officials said the fire was not started by a bomb, however, tho they did not give the cause. An air officer and a fire watcher died in the blaze, which destroyed the interior of the club.

I promise you that once you hear your favorite records on a Scott...remarkably enriched, vibrant and alive...you will never be satisfied with any other instrument!

E. H. SCOTT

Bring to our studio for an amazing half hour a few of your favorite records ... those whose every passage you know by heart. Then hear them on a Scott—and hear them literally blossom with new beauty, shadings and depths and delicate traceries of sound that escape an ordinary radio.

Listening to a Scott is a glorious experience, because a Scott brings you, as in a living performance, all that the composer wrote, and all that the musicians played. For difficult instruments like the piano or the violin—it is the choice of Horowitz, Heifetz, Menuhin. For the great orchestras, it is the choice of Toscanini, Barbirolli, Stock, Ormandy, Rodzinski, Reiner, Lange, Goossens, Walter.

Your own ears will tell you what words cannot convey—that a Scott is a thrilling possession for those who are sensitive to music's charms. Do hear a Scott soon—with your own records, so the comparison will be unmistakable to you.

Scott cabinets match in finish and craftsmanship the superb quality of Scott Receivers. They are fine as finest furniture.

All that you ever hoped for in a radio is in a Scott:

The tone of the Scott is unparalleled in radio—it is the pride of Toscanini, Barbirolli, Ormandy, Rodzinski, and most other conductors. The automatic record changer is incredibly deft and silent, a marvel of mechanical ingenuity. For foreign news broadcasts, the Scott has received international recognition, is the choice of consuls and scientists. And Frequency Modulation, optional with a Scott, is brought to a high point of perfection.

- Ask to hear (and see) the Scott Phantom. Even if you know nothing of engineering, please see how it is constructed. Nothing else in radio is quite like Scott engineering. Then HEAR the difference for yourself!

ILLINOIS CAVALRY TO SEE 'ACTION' IN DIXIE FOREST

106th to 'Fight' Brigade in Louisiana.

BY CLAY GOWRAN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Camp Livingston, La., March 31.—A five day mock battle against an "enemy" force at least three times their strength will begin on April 15 for the men and officers of Illinois 106th cavalry, many of whom are from Chicago. The regiment is in federal training here at Camp Livingston, 12 miles north of Alexandria in the rolling pine country of the Kisatchie National forest.

In the coming maneuver the regiment will "fight" a brigade combat team made up of one field artillery and two infantry regiments of the 32d division, also stationed at Camp Livingston. Troops of this division are from Wisconsin and Michigan. Staff officers have not decided which of the Wisconsin and Michigan regiments will be chosen to form the team.

Ability to be Tested.

The purpose of the maneuver will be to test the ability of the cavalrymen, who have been in active service since January, to scout out an enemy force in open country, ascertain its strength and direction of movement, and if possible take prisoners for questioning. Umpires appointed from the officer force of Camp Livingston will decide how well the 106th cavalry executes its mission.

Sometime before dawn on April 15 bugles will shrill in the camp area of the cavalry regiment. In a complete blackout the 500 men of the regiment's 2d, or mechanized squadron, will dress and hurry to their armored scout cars and motorcycles. Guided only by tiny blue air raid lights on the front and rear of each vehicle, they will dash out of Camp Livingston to begin the maneuver.

Outfit Awaits Trucks.

Lieut. Col. Charles R. Johnson, commander of the regiment, said today that the 1st or mounted squadron will not take part in the battle unless the trucks which are to pull its horse trailers arrive before April 15. At present the squadron has 77 large 8 horse trailers, designed to move horses and men long distances at high speed, but has no trucks to pull the trailers.

For three days the mechanized squadron will travel in a great 150 mile circle. On the afternoon of the third day it will be approaching Camp Livingston, and probably 50 miles away.

On this third day the infantry and artillery regiments of the 32d division will take the field, moving in one general direction from Camp Livingston. This direction will be made known to Col. Johnson, traveling in a radio equipped scout car, by the battle umpires. The report will be devoid of all details except:

"Enemy moving in—direction."

Some time during the night of April 17 the motorcycle scouts of the 106th, racing along dangerous country roads in the night, will establish contact with the enemy. Back the word will go to the heavy scout cars, armed with .50 and .30 caliber machine guns. They will steal up to the line, their crews ready for a possible dawn raid.

As the brigade team advances, motorcycle scouts lying in concealment will watch its movement.

AMERICA NEAR ENTRANCE INTO WAR, NYE SAYS

Predicts Roosevelt Will Order Ships Convoyed.

Palo Alto, Cal., March 31 [Special].—Senator Gerald P. Nye [R., N. D.] in addressing a meeting here tonight under the auspices of the Palo Alto America First committee warned that America is closer to war than 15 days before congress declared war on Germany in 1917.

This is the second of a series of speeches Senator Nye will make in his campaign in the west to keep the nation out of war.

Sees War Weaken Nation.

"The steps of this and last year closely follow those taken during 1916 and 1917," the senator declared. "We are much nearer war now than we were 15 days before the congress declared war in 1917. If we enter war America will be weaker, no matter what the result, without gaining those purposes for which we entered the war in 1917."

Discussing convoying war goods across the Atlantic and calling on his audience to fight this action, Senator Nye said, "I feel it in my heart that he [Roosevelt] will take this step."

Vote Against Entering War.

After Senator Nye's address Dr. Richard Jones, Stanford history instructor, offered a resolution that the body go on record opposing America's entrance into any European or Asiatic war. There were five dissenting votes.

Senator Nye will depart early tomorrow for Los Angeles, where he will speak at the University of California at Los Angeles, University of Southern California, and before America First meetings in Los Angeles and Pasadena.

WAR AIM SHOWN BY NEW DEALERS, ASSERTS O'BRIEN

Utterances of New Deal administration spokesmen are "ominous evidences of the real intent of the administration to pull America, tools, men, and resources, into a war 3,000 or 5,000 miles away," the Rev. Dr. John A. O'Brien, professor in the graduate school of the University of Notre Dame, said last night. He spoke under auspices of the American First committee in the Wadsworth school, 64th street and University avenue, before 1,200 persons.

"On the eve of the passage of the lend-lease bill," Dr. O'Brien said, "we were told by its proponents: 'This is a peace bill. This is a bill to keep war away from America.' Since the bill's passage, we are told: 'We're in the war now. The tools of war which the bill provides must be gotten across the Atlantic, if we have to insure their passage ourselves.'

"The American people have a right to demand that the promises to keep America out of war, made by the President and many senators, be kept. The people have a right to expect that simple honesty from the administration which we expect in the least citizen."

Antiques Stolen

GLORIA STUART.

Hollywood, Cal., March 31 (AP). — Theft of $50,000 worth of antiques from the home of Screen Actress Gloria Stuart was reported to sheriff's officers today by her mother, Mrs. Fred Finch. Miss Stuart and her writer-husband, Grant Sheekman, are in New York. Mrs. Finch reported that paintings, Wedgwood plaques, cups, vases, porcelain curios and framed oriental prints had been taken by burglars.

GOV. SAM JONES SAYS WATERWAY WILL HARM SOUTH

Baton Rouge, La., March 31 (AP).—Gov. Sam H. Jones today made public a letter to President Roosevelt in which he said development of the St. Lawrence waterway would cause "irreparable harm to ports and shipping of the south."

Jones argued the project would jeopardize hundreds of millions of dollars of merchant marine investments in port facilities, largely to the benefit of tramp shipping.

Reminding the President of his own designation of the south as "the nation's No. 1 economic problem," Jones contended the power producing feature of the project further would handicap an industrially retarded section.

"I protest," said Jones, "the subsidization by American taxpayers of Russian and Japanese 'tramps' thru the development of a waterway lying almost wholly in alien soil from which our own ships would be effectively barred."

WRIGLEY OFFERS ALUMINUM FOR ARMAMENT USE

Philip K. Wrigley, president of the William Wrigley Jr. company, informed government officials yesterday that the company's 500,000 pound supply of aluminum was available for use in armament production.

In a telegram to E. R. Stettinius, priorities director of the Office of Production Management, Wrigley said: "In the interest of preparedness we will be more than glad to change our wrapping and make available to you our entire stock of aluminum ingots."

SLAY JURY FIX WITNESS AS HE SITS IN HIS CAR

Assassins Ride with Him to Murder Scene.

Marvin E. Olson.

An ex-convict who figured as a witness in a jury fix investigation 14 months ago was shot to death by assassins in his car on the near northwest side last night. The scene of the murder was an alley at the rear of 1221 Burling street, near Clybourn avenue and Divsion street, under the shadow of Ogden avenue viaduct over Goose Island.

The victim was Marvin E. Olson, 40 years old, 8221 South Laflin street. He was shot four or five times at close range as he sat at the wheel of his car. His face was blasted away. A shotgun and a .45 caliber automatic pistol were used.

Not Threatened, Sisters Say.

Two sisters of the victim, Mrs. Florence Witt and Mrs. Grace Gard, who live at the Laflin street address, told Capt. John Horan of the Hudson avenue station and Lieut. Thomas Kelly of the state's attorney's police that Olson had received no threats. He left his home "to go out a while," an hour and a half before the murder, they said.

A few minutes before the slaying several witnesses saw Olson's car turn into the alley. According to Sergts. Frank Slattery and Al Casey of the Hudson avenue police, two or three men were in the machine. Four or five shots were heard.

Frank Paulsen, in his home at 1216 Orchard street, heard the firing and with friends went to investigate. They found Olson slumped over his driving wheel.

Strange Assortment Found.

Sergts. Francis Donohue and Ollie Karwoski of the coroner's office, examining the victim's car, found a strange assortment in the dashboard compartment—a prayer book, a half dozen women's dainty handkerchiefs, and a half filled bottle of wine. Two names, an address, and a phone number also were found, and are to be traced.

Hudson avenue police said they had no clews to Olson's killers. Records show that Olson was sentenced to Pontiac reformatory on a confidence charge in 1917 and to Joliet prison for robbery in 1921 and again in 1928.

The viciousness of the crime led police to theorize that Olson might have been slain by gangsters for acting as an informer.

Told of Paying Bribes.

Olson was a principal in the jury fix inquiry of January, 1940, in which the state's attorney's office investigated the acquittal on Dec. 20, 1939, of Sam Orlando, captain of the 52d precinct of the 11th ward, and Joseph Vinci, a worker, in a vote fraud trial. Olson asserted he paid bribes to two women jurors for the verdict.

As a result of the probe, Attorney George M. Crane, Orlando; John Howe, former state highway policeman, and James Creed, former bailiff, were tried on charges of jury fixing. Olson was the main witness against them. All were freed.

Lieut. Kelly said he will question Mrs. Mabel Aumond, another witness in the jury fix case, tomorrow, and added that he "wanted to talk to Crane, too."

SENATE ADOPTS BAN ON FOREIGN MEAT FOR ARMY

Blow at Roosevelt Good Neighbor Policy.

BY CHESLY MANLY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., March 31.—The senate struck another blow at the Roosevelt administration's Santa Claus foreign policy this afternoon by adopting an amendment to the 4 billion 389 million dollar fifth supplemental armaments bill to prevent use of the funds for the purchase of South American beef or Australian wool for the army.

The restrictive amendment, voted into the bill by the house of representatives, was approved by the senate by a vote of 33 to 30. Later Senator James F. Byrnes [D., S. C.], an administration leader, changed his vote in order to be able to move for reconsideration of the senate's action and the result was announced as 34 to 29. Administration leaders will endeavor overnight to round up enough absent senators to eliminate the amendment and thus put the matter in conference with the house of representatives.

Also Issue in Navy Bill.

Conferees on the 3½ billion dollar naval appropriation bill for the 1942 fiscal year already are considering a house restriction, which the senate eliminated, against the purchase of South American canned beef for the navy.

Vice President Henry A. Wallace, one of the foremost champions of the administration's "good neighbor" policy, was absent from the chamber and hence unable to vote for Argentine beef when the senate at first divided equally on the question of removing the restriction from the naval appropriation bill. The senate later "corrected" its vote, however, when Senator Richard B. Russell [D., Ga.] said he had been incorrectly recorded, and Wallace was absolved of truancy.

Senators from the cattle producing states were not sufficiently alert this afternoon to clinch adoption of the no-foreign-beef-or-wool amendment to the 4 billion dollar army bill. The ordinary procedure in such a case is for a senator on the victorious side to move to reconsider the vote by which the amendment was adopted and for another senator on the same side to move to table the motion for reconsideration. If the motion to table, which is not debatable, is adopted, there can be no other motion to reconsider.

Plan Move to Reconsider.

Today, however, no motion to reconsider was made. When Senator Byrnes changed his vote in order to be able to move for reconsideration tomorrow, Majority Leader Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky moved to recess in order to forestall any immediate opposition motion for reconsideration. Opposition leaders sought to save the day by opposing Barkley's motion to recess, but it carried, 37 to 27.

Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles appeared before the senate appropriations committee to testify against the prohibition against purchases of foreign beef and wool for the army. The restriction, he said, would seriously injure this country's relations with South America, particularly Argentina, and give encouragement to the economic blandishments of Nazi Germany.

Only Controversial Item.

The proposed restriction on foreign purchases of food and clothing is the only controversial item in the 4 billion, 389 million dollar appropriation bill, which will be passed by the senate tomorrow when the canned beef issue is settled. With the exception of 295 million dollars for the navy and 6 million dollars in miscellaneous items, the entire appropriation is for the military activities of the war department.

It includes 1 billion dollars for 1,200 heavy and 2,400 medium bombers for the army and 343 million dollars to complete the current 18,000 airplane program of the army.

The bill also includes funds to complete the procurement of critical items of equipment for an army of 2 million men and to provide productive facilities sufficient to supply a second force of 2 millions, or 4 millions altogether, in case of war.

FBI PROBES PLOT TO SHUT 2 STEEL MILLS; BOY HELD

Caught with Wire Trying to Cut Power Lines.

Youngstown, O., March 31 [Special].—The shortcircuiting of power lines supplying the huge plants of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company and the Republic Steel corporation was investigated today by the Mahoning county prosecutor's office and the federal bureau of investigation.

The prosecutor is holding William J. Ambrose, 17 years old, incommunicado in the county jail. The prosecutor refuses to say whether he believes an attempt was made to sabotage the huge steel mills, which are working day and night on government armament orders.

Police in suburban Struthers, where the boy lives and was arrested, said the case is in the hands of the FBI.

Firemen Uncover Plot.

The scant information that has leaked out came from firemen in Struthers and from the Ohio Edison company, owners of the transmission line.

When Struthers firemen went into a field on the outskirts of the town yesterday afternoon to put out a grass fire they found a strand of copper wire dangling from a power line which carries 66,000 volts of electric current to the steel mills from the company's power plant in Toronto, O., 50 miles south.

Tracing the wire, firemen found young Ambrose at the end, seated on a box and with his feet resting on a rubber mat. He was turned over to police who searched his home and found a shortwave radio set and a quantity of electrical equipment.

Father Arrested, Released.

In their search of the boy's home police also found information concerning the sheet and tube company and cards bearing the names of sheet and tube company employés. The boy's father was arrested, but released a short time later.

Firemen said the wire had been carried across the power line by a kite, and when the short circuit was effected, one end of the wire touched the ground and fired the grass. Ohio Edison officials said the short circuit knocked out one side of the duplex line and automatically cut in the other and that users of electricity were unaware of any interference.

TAKE BODY FROM LAGOON.

The body of a man tentatively identified as Harry C. Bishop, 81 years old, of 746 Englewood avenue, was taken from the Jackson park lagoon at 65th street yesterday.

15,000 BACK AT WORK AT JOHNSTOWN PLANT OF BETHLEHEM STEEL

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Johnstown, Pa., March 31.—Smoke poured from the chimneys of the gigantic Bethlehem Steel corporation plant here this morning as 15,000 men returned to their work without mishap. Thus ended the strike called by the Steel Workers' Organizing committee [CIO], which had tied up work for two days on millions of dollars worth of armaments orders held by the steel company.

Threatened trouble was averted today when the SWOC officials retired from their reported stand of last night. Then they planned "dues picketing" at the gates.

Both the strike here and that at the home plant in Bethlehem, Pa., were settled thru the conferences of Conciliator Thomas Lambert with union officials and company representatives.

An attempt to hold elections at both plants by the Employés' Representation Plan [ERP] was the direct cause of the strikes. The union charges the ERP is a company dominated organization, and the company contends it is an independent union.

TWO HARVESTER PLANTS NORMAL AS STRIKE ENDS

Two of the four International Harvester company plants, which had been shut down as a result of CIO strikes, were operating at virtually normal capacity yesterday, and two others were being geared for normal production by the end of the week.

The strikes were called off Sunday at a meeting of 1,500 members of the Farm Equipment Workers' Organizing committee.

Production was almost normal at the main Harvester works, Blue Island and Western avenues, where 5,600 reported back yesterday.

At the Richmond, Ind., plant, where work also was resumed last week, 1,100 out of a possible 1,200 were back, and production was nearly normal.

The big tractor works on Western avenue and the Rock Falls plant are expected to be operating at full speed by Thursday or Friday.

Meanwhile, in Washington, D. C., company and CIO and AFL officials met yesterday with the new National Defense Mediation board to discuss the situation.

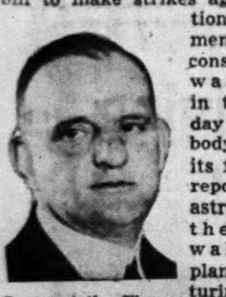
U. S. LAW URGED TO MAKE ARMS STRIKE TREASON

1½ Million Man-Days Lost, House Is Told.

BY WILLARD EDWARDS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
(Map on back page.)



Representative Vinson.

Washington, D. C., March 31.—A bill to make strikes against the nation's rearmament program constitute treason was introduced in the house today after that body had received its first complete report on the disastrous effects of the nation-wide walkouts at plants manufacturing weapons of war.

The report, prepared by the Office of Production Management at the request of Chairman Carl Vinson [D., Ga.] of the naval affairs committee, showed that 73 strikes, involving 146,291 employés, have been called since Sept. 8, 1939. Only strikes which "affected procurement for the army or navy" were listed.

Statistics Show Losses.

Forty-one of these strikes cost the rearmament program 1,209,577 man-days of labor, the report showed. While data was unavailable for the remaining 32 strikes, it was unofficially estimated that an additional 300,000 man-days of labor were lost, a total of more than 1½ million man-days by which the nation's rearmament program would have been advanced if no strikes had been called.

The CIO was responsible for 46 of the 73 strikes and the AFL for 21. Both CIO and AFL were involved in the remaining six disputes.

Of the disputes attributable to one cause, 22 were due to quarrels between unions. Demands for better wages and working conditions accounted for 21 strikes. A combination of causes was involved in the remainder.

Heavy Penalties Provided.

Representative Leland M. Ford [R., Cal.] introduced the measure putting the label of treason upon strikes against armaments production. His bill provides a 25 year prison penalty without parole or reduction of sentence for good behaviour for persons inciting, advocating, calling, participating in, or assisting any strikes at a place where articles for use of the armed forces are being produced "during the present emergency."

If such a strike results, directly or indirectly, in the death of any person, the Ford bill provides for the death penalty.

"There is no question but that this country faces a grave emergency," Ford told the house. "Further, there appears to be no difference of opinion among military and naval men that time is one of the worst needed things in this connection today.

Decries Waste of Time.

"Therefore it appears to me that the wasting of this precious time, if we have been told the truth by our President and the heads of our governmental departments, does constitute treason and may eventually result in the loss of our nation.

"Patriotic labor need not fear this bill as this group has already said that in their group of unions there will be no strikes where national defense is concerned. In connection with the second group, there is no reason why the provisions of this bill should not apply if they continue in their unpatriotic, un-American, treasonable attitude of destruction of the defense program of the United States.

"This country is fed up with that un-American, European, communistically inclined group attempting to destroy the national defense program."

Deplore Absence of Leaders.

The absence of high government officials from the capital drew comment in the house. Representative Robert F. Rich [R., Cal.], reading from a Los Angeles newspaper quoting Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins as saying that strikes in armaments industries were not serious, declared:

"It seems to me that if Frances Perkins would stay here and work she would find out what's going on and learn what the people of the United States think of strikes in defense industries."

Sidney Hillman, co-director of the Office of Production Management, who was entrusted by the President with the management of the labor phase of the rearmament program, also is absent from his post. He is vacationing in Florida. Many high government officials, including eight of the ten members of the cabinet, left the capital shortly after Mr. Roosevelt went on a fishing cruise a week ago.

Representative Vinson said his naval affairs committee probably would start hearings this week on a bill to give President Roosevelt's new labor mediation board statutory powers and require a 30 day cooling off period before strikes are called.

The house rules committee indicated it would send to the floor a resolution by Representative Howard W. Smith [D., Va.] to reconstitute his National Labor Relations board investigating committee with additional powers to investigate the labor situation in armaments industries.

New Labor Developments.

Labor developments thruout the country today were as follows:

SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.—Officials of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers [AFL] announced that the 21 day old strike of workers at the Condenser Corporation of America would continue. Union spokesmen said no agreement to settle the walkout, which involves 2,200 workers, had been reached, as previously announced by the mediation board in Washington. The strikers demand wage increases. The company holds $1,500,000 in armaments subcontracts.

BRIDGEVILLE, Pa.—Settlement of the CIO strike at the Bridgeville plant of the Vanadium Corporation of America, which employs 225 men, was announced today as a result of the labor mediation board's intercession. The plant makes ferro-vanadium, a steel alloy ingredient used in armaments.

Shipbuilders Take Holiday.

WILMINGTON, Del.—CIO shipbuilders left work today at the Pusey & Jones shipyard, but T. R. Conley, president of local 3, Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America, said: "We are merely demonstrating strength of our membership." He said the workers would return tomorrow. He claimed 1,200 walked out. The company said 500.

CLEVELAND, O.—Two persons were injured today as AFL unionists penetrated a CIO picket line at the E. F. Hauserman company, making prefabricated steel houses to be erected near a naval powder station at Indian Head, Md. A company representative said operations had been resumed. The plant, closed last Thursday when the CIO Furniture Workers' union charged six of its members had been discharged, has been under an AFL contract.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—The San Francisco metal trades council met tonight to decide whether to sanction a strike by the AFL Machinists' union to enforce demands for higher wages in the San Francisco bay area's shipyards and industrial plants. A union leader said a strike involving 3,600 machinists would be called Thursday—with or without council sanction—unless wage increases are granted.

AFL UNIT BANS JURISDICTIONAL ARMS STRIKES

Washington, D. C., March 31 (AP).—A policy banning jurisdictional strike stoppages in armaments industries and the collection of initiation fees from nonunion workers before they have been accepted into union membership was announced today by the AFL's building trades department.

The action was taken at a week-end meeting of AFL building trades officials, and the policy was sent out immediately to 512 local building trades councils with an accompanying letter urging "immediate and complete compliance."

The building trades chiefs placed no ceiling on the size of the initiation fee to be collected, but said in a resolution that the fee "shall be the minimum possible in view of the benefits received" from union membership.

TEAR GAS USED TO END CIO RIOT IN ALLIS STRIKE

Officers Disperse Mob at Gates of Plant.

BY SEYMOUR KORMAN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Milwaukee, Wis., March 31.—Prompt action by police and deputy sheriffs this evening halted rioting at the vast Allis Chalmers Manufacturing company plant in West Allis. The officers fired four bursts of tear gas into a mob of 1,000 CIO strikers and sympathizers who were charging angrily toward workers leaving and entering the plant.

This violence—the first in the 69 day CIO strike which has tied up 45 million dollars' worth of armaments contracts—came as 3,169 employés, some of them women, were leaving the plant at 4:30 p. m. and 962 others were entering. The strikers and their adherents, massed across the road from the 70th street entrance, were angered at the success of the back to work movement by the more than 4,000 who have heeded the plea of government officials to their patriotism.

300 Officers Guard Workers.

More than 300 deputy sheriffs and police from Milwaukee, West Allis, and other suburbs guarded the workers leaving and entering the plant. The CIO crowd moved forward, shouting and waving their arms. Several policemen tried to stop them midway in the road. The strikers jostled the policemen and began shoving them from the position in the road.

Then Sheriff Joseph Shinners called on the Milwaukee police department's "mobile fortress." This six ton armored car moved to the scene from down the street and officers inside tossed tear gas grenades at the strikers. When the mob still moved forward, tear gas guns were discharged from the fortress. The strikers then fell back, coughing and wiping their eyes.

The peace was only temporary. A few minutes later a gang of CIO men surrounded and halted a street car bringing workers to the plant.

News Camera Smashed.

Some of the shouting unionists hurled themselves in front of the car and others tore down the trolley. A newspaper photographer was manhandled and his camera was smashed when he tried to take a picture of the scene.

Then the moving fortress raced up again and discharged another tear gas barrage. The street car was able to continue after a few minutes.

A few minutes later the strikers tried twice to rush the plant gates. The tear gas barrages again drove them back. In the mêlée Harold Plumb, 42 years old, of Milwaukee, who had been a deputy sheriff for more than 10 years, turned in his badge and joined the strikers. They bore him off in triumph.

Eggs Thrown at Police.

The strikers continued to shout threats, but they did not cross the road again. Several aged eggs were thrown at the police, however. Later police found that tires on many of their squad cars and motorcycles had been slashed.

The only injuries reported were minor. Authorities were apprehensive, however, that there may be another outbreak of violence tomorrow morning and plans were made to continue heavy guards at each gate.

Harold Christoffel, president of the striking union, which is local 248 of the United Automobile Workers, declared tonight that the use of the tear gas by police was unprovoked. Christoffel said he has always exhorted the union members against violence in the strike.

Including 491 employés who reported on the midnight shift, 4,622 workers, or 59 per cent of the normal plant force, have reported for work. There was no violence as the last shift entered the plant.

Gov. Julius P. Heil had said he believed a settlement was close and planned to confer with union and company officials.

'UNNECESSARY' STRIKES OPPOSED BY ILLINOIS FEDERATION OF LABOR

The executive board of the Illinois Federation of Labor announced yesterday that it is opposed to what it termed unnecessary strikes. Victor A. Olander, secretary-treasurer, said a survey reveals that there is not a single instance in which an American Federation of Labor union in Illinois is engaged in a strike which is retarding national preparedness production.

Olander said the state organization is reminding the men that "the great test of freedom is the ability to respond voluntarily in the performance of essential duties without compulsion of law."

The board notified the membership that the new National Defense Mediation board provides a means for adjusting controversies—"when other methods fail," the board added. The board said cases might arise in which a brief strike might be necessary.

DIES THREATENS DRASTIC LAW TO CLEAN UP UNIONS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., March 31.—American labor must rid itself of un-American elements or face drastic legislation depriving it of the benefits of the Wagner labor act, Representative Martin Dies [D., Tex.], chairman of the committee on un-American activities, declared today.

Dies said that if labor does not clean its house of radicalism he will sponsor a law to prohibit the certification of unions with communist and Nazi elements as collective bargaining agents. He will also support a bill to ban members of disloyal organizations from defense jobs.

"I sincerely hope that public pressure will be sufficient to rid unions and industries of communists and Nazis," he said. "The only loser in the present wave of defense strikes is the great portion of labor that is loyal."

Dies inserted in the record names of 60 more CIO leaders who he said had communist affiliations. The CIO could weed out these leaders, he said, if it was willing to "concede its error."

EXPORT MANAGER DIES.

Belvidere, Ill., March 31 [Special].—Wilson G. Incledon, export manager for the National Sewing Machine company for 48 years, died yesterday from a heart attack. He was 72 years old.

Keep False Teeth Purified Says Dr. Sherwin

Don't brush your false teeth or dental plates—you can't purify them that way—you can't even clean them properly that way.

Keep up with the times—get today a generous 30 cent bottle of Stera-Kleen—give your plate a bath as directed, and after the first bath your false teeth will start to sparkle with purity and cleanliness—will so glisten with beauty that you'll be proud of them. Your mouth will feel much better—rejuvenated.

Just a little Stera-Kleen in a half glass of water and all slimy mucin stains and murkiness begin to go—it's amazing—lasts for weeks—20 cents—all drug stores.

COUNTRY RELIEF DIRECTORS FIGHT STATE CONTROL

Oppose Brandon's Plan to Centralize.

BY PERCY WOOD.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Bloomington, Ill., March 31.—Men who administer relief in the country communities of central Illinois served notice on the legislature today that they do not favor the centralization of relief direction in the state department of public welfare, as is being proposed.

Township supervisors sent this message to Springfield thru members of the legislative relief investigating committee, which opened hearings in Bloomington and invited supervisors from 15 counties to state their views.

In general the witnesses appeared to feel that the relief situation is pretty well in hand—now that they, rather than the emergency relief commission, oversee it in their home territory. They want the responsibility left at home, not switched to the state capitol.

Oppose Brandon Plan.

Only one of the score of supervisors who took the stand in the circuit courtroom here thought it would be all right for absentee administrators in Springfield to control the relief purse.

This news may not be pleasant for Rodney H. Brandon, director of public welfare, who heads a committee named by Gov. Dwight H. Green to combine all forms of public assistance—relief, old age pensions, mothers' and blind pensions and aid to dependent children—in a departmental setup. Brandon is understood to be the moving force behind this plan, and what effect the attitude expressed today by the supervisors might have upon him could not be foretold here.

Little or no objections were raised by the witnesses to blanketing everything but relief in the proposed new department, but they want relief to continue to be a matter for local control.

Calls Relief a Habit.

Senator T. Mac Downing [R., Macomb], committee chairman, seemed to express the attitude of those he questioned with this query: "If relief is placed in the welfare department, isn't that likely to make it a permanent program?" He asked it first of Henry W. Talley, Bloomington township supervisor, who replied in the affirmative, and added, "relief is not an emergency now; it's a habit."

Rana Rollins of Funks Grove township, McLean county, said he believed state centralization, rather than promoting economy, "would cause a lot of money to be spent in the central office."

Many of the supervisors from this immediate locality brought out an interesting fact: about 25 per cent of their relief clients, they said, are Kentuckians who have flocked across the river at Cairo, or drifted up thru Indiana and into Illinois.

Among those who registered the belief that relief should be kept in the communities were Charles Fetzer, Springfield; Sidney Nirdlinger, Galesburg; Edward C. Giebelhauser, East Peoria, and I. E. Merritt, Hoopeston. Hartford Kinzer, Urbana, was the only one who favored state control.

Chairman Downing announced that the committee plans to hold hearings in Waukegan at 10 a. m. Friday and at Marion later.

Admits Forging Father's Name; Gets 5 Year Term

Lloyd Lodi, 23 years old, of Denemark, Wis., was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary yesterday by Federal Judge John P. Barnes when he admitted having forged his father's name to checks. Lodi was put on a two year probation by Judge Barnes in September, 1940, on a charge of stealing and cashing a money order.

Outdoor Queen

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

MARY LOU HOLMES.

Mary Lou Holmes, 5240 Sheridan road, 19 years old, was named Chicago's most typical outdoor girl last night at the All-Wisconsin Outdoor Life exposition in the Hotel Sherman. Fifty young women competed for the title and the first prize, which will be a week's vacation at Beaver lodge in Mercer, Wis. Miss Holmes, who is a sophomore at North Park college, plans to take her vacation in June. The judges were Dan F. Vicker of Park Falls, Wis., head of Wisconsin's Greater Recreational association; Doris Paige, fashion authority, and Alberto Varga, magazine artist.

Woman Plunges Into Lake; Saved by 4 Park Employes

Four park district employés yesterday rescued Mrs. Norma Eweya, 55 years old, 564 Oakwood boulevard, after she plunged into the lake at Oakwood boulevard. They are Stanley Tome, James Collins, Frank Enright, and John Bennett, who were nearby. Mrs. Eweya told police she fell accidentally while watching fishermen. Her husband, a janitor, said she was released two weeks ago from a mental institution.

CUT VOTE FRAUD TERMS, JARECKI TOLD; HE FIGHTS

Judge Jarecki.

A feud between County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki and the Appellate court burned brighter yesterday when Judge Jarecki and the election board petitioned the the Illinois Supreme court for a writ of mandamus. They seek to compel nine Appellate court judges to expunge their findings in 10 recent election fraud cases appealed from Judge Jarecki's court.

At the same time the Appellate court remanded the cases of four persons sentenced for election frauds by Judge Jarecki. The defendants are Henry Brown, colored, judge in the 58th precinct of the 4th ward, sentenced to three years in the county jail, and John Garbacz, Theodore Chudy, and Albert Feigenbaum, officials of the 38th precinct of the 25th ward, sentenced to two years each. The Appellate court held that the sentences are too severe.

Judge Jarecki's petition to the Supreme court challenged the Appellate court's power to review contempt cases. In the 10 cases, reversals were entered and retrials directed on the ground that Judge Jarecki was an "interested party." He was a candidate in the primary and general elections of 1938, when the alleged frauds occurred.

THIEVES GET ALL KINDS OF MONEY.

Burglars who broke into the home of Mrs. Helen Dzierz, 4056 Milwaukee avenue, stole 164 silver dollars, a large jar containing $90 in pennies, nickels, dimes, and quarters, jewelry worth $460, and $48 in currency, she reported to police yesterday.

EX-HUBBY PAYS FREEDOM'S PRICE IN SMALL CHANGE

Last Friday Judge Joseph Sabath directed Thomas Sinadinos, 40 years old, to bring $100 to court to pay an instalment on an $800 settlement made last Nov. 23 when his wife, Ruth, 25, of 509 South Central Park avenue, obtained a divorce on a charge of cruelty. Sinadinos explained he had delayed payment because he had just received an $87 bill for wedding photographs. He said the marriage lasted only a month.

Yesterday Sinadinos appeared with a canvas bag containing $72 in change and the rest of the $100 in bills. Norman Becker, counsel for Mrs. Sinadinos, asked that he be cited for contempt, but Attorney Samuel Rinella, representing Sinadinos, said the coins were legal tender and that his client had been compelled to empty the till and the vending machines in his tavern at 1607 East 67th street to scrape the money together.

Judge Sabath told Sinadinos to stay until his wife counted the money—$19 in pennies, $26 in dimes, $27 in quarters and half dollars, and the rest in bills. Two hours later she announced he was $1.70 short. The judge made him make good.

Empties Gun at Bandits as They Escape with $150

Three bandits escaped yesterday after two of them took $150 in the holdup of a liquor store at 3070 Lincoln avenue. Samuel Takiff, 3152 Pine Grove avenue, owner, emptied a .32 caliber revolver as the two ran to a car in which the third waited.

How many DAYS ago was 798 B. C.?

Just how much is a million?

In terms of days, a million goes all the way back to 798 B. C.—or 45 years before Romulus founded Rome. If you live a million hours, you will be 114 years old. If you address a million families, you reach more people than live in Seattle, San Francisco, Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Boston and Cincinnati combined.

SEVEN days a week, the Chicago Tribune now has more than 1,000,000 total net paid circulation. On weekdays this is from 580,000 to 625,000 more total daily circulation than other Chicago daily newspapers deliver. On Sundays it is from 300,000 to 810,000 more than delivered by other Chicago Sunday newspapers.

In a world made increasingly news-hungry, readers in constantly increasing numbers turn to the Tribune because it best satisfies their demands for timely, accurate accounts of today's happenings.

When you advertise in the Tribune, you reach Chicago's largest constant audience. This friendly, responsive audience is accustomed to base the major portion of its buying on what is advertised in the Tribune—a fact proved by Chicago retailers who place more of their advertising in the Tribune than they place in any other Chicago newspaper.

To get more sales in Chicago, build your advertising program around the Tribune. Rates per 100,000 circulation are among the lowest in America.

POLICE CAPTAIN'S REMOVAL POSES A QUESTION MARK

Is It Good News or Bad? Madison St. Wonders.

BY JAMES DOHERTY.

West Madison street buzzed last night over the news:

Police Captain William F. Collins of the Desplaines street station had been suspended by Police Commissioner Allman. Allman refused to tell why and Collins said he didn't know why.

Capt. Collins.

Operators of nickel whisky joints in the district didn't know whether the news was good or bad, or what it portended. They hoped unhappy days were not to come again.

Des Plaines street has the oldest and smelliest police station in the city, a relic of the Haymarket riot. Until yesterday its captain was one of the most polite and soft spoken of policemen, a scholar, and a veteran with 33 years of service behind him.

Like It? Well, No.

In that congested area where 10 saloons are to be found to a block Capt. Collins was regarded as a man who didn't like his assignment. He was sent there last May from the finer residential district of Morgan Park, and the flop house sages gave his administration the once over and then opined he was acting tough so he would be relieved of an onerous assignment and perhaps returned to Morgan Park.

Collins knew he had stepped into a hotbed of trouble in a police precinct that was used to trouble. Back in the days when certain streets in it were notorious for the houses that gave it an atmosphere never quite lived down, a number of vice mongers testified against a police captain who was sent to prison.

Collins took up his work in the district in 1939, while the bad lands of the neighborhood, of which the corner of Halsted and Madison streets is the center, were the battle ground of a primary fight in which Mayor Kelly was seeking the mayoral nomination against State's Attorney Courtney.

Two Make Their Choices.

Sanitary Trustee John Touhy, Democratic committeeman of the 27th ward, most of which is in the Des Plaines street police district, had to make his choice, and so did Ald. Harry L. Sain. Both chose to support Courtney. Kelly won.

Touhy and Ald. Sain lost most of their patronage and some of their insurance business. But last fall, when Touhy carried his ward for the Democrats by a margin of from 8,000 to 10,000, the tavern keepers and the bookmakers believed that better times were just around the corner. They were to get bad news three days later.

On Nov. 8, 1940, Capt. Collins entered an order in the station's special order book. All members of his command were told that no form of gambling would be tolerated.

Capt. Collins served notice that no hostesses would be permitted to solicit drinks in taverns or what pass for night clubs in that area. Nor would waitresses be permitted to ask customers to buy them drinks. And the captain devoted two paragraphs of his order to nudity and near nudity.

Unhappiness Sweeps District.

Unhappiness swept over the district once more. Without their lures the drink sellers were facing bankruptcy. Without 26 games [where the customer pays a quarter for the prospects of a dollar in trade if he can score 26 in 13 throws of 10 dice] the grog purveyors said they couldn't afford to pay wages to the porters. The antiadministration Democrats said they were being punished.

And now for the reasons behind the Collins suspension:

It was rumored last night that the strict enforcement of the law had been relaxed just a trifle lately—and that Commissioner Allman heard about it. It was rumored that he sent for Collins yesterday.

"Our talk was more or less agreeable," Capt Collins said last night. "I didn't know until I reached home that I had been suspended. I'm sure I can't say why."

Why? He'll Know Why.

"For the good of the service and because he didn't obey orders," explained Allman. "He'll know why."

"Will you prefer charges before the civil service trial board?" Allman was asked.

"I don't know," he answered.

"It's news to me," said Mayor Kelly. "Allman didn't consult me, and there is no reason why he should. He is running the department."

"I never go near the police station and I never met Capt. Collins," said Trustee Touhy. "I never asked the police to do anything for any one in the ward. I never fronted for handbooks or saloonkeepers and I never had any help from the police in getting votes for our candidates. I have no idea what happened to Capt. Collins, or why."

Cartan Detailed to Post.

Capt. John Cartan of the Pekin station was detailed temporarily to the Des Plaines street post.

Under civil service rules the commissioner may order brief suspensions for mild disciplinary purposes, but if he wishes to take drastic action the method is to file charges with the civil service commission within 30 days after the suspension order. If the charges are not sustained a suspended policeman would be reimbursed for pay lost while suspended.

Commissioner Allman has not preferred charges against any captain in the 10 years he has headed the Chicago police department. One captain was suspended for one day recently after complaints had been made about gambling in his district.

Cheered at Rodeo

Emily Jean Davis, age 12, trick rider at rodeo.

Some of the loudest cheers at last night's performance of the Flying X rodeo in the Coliseum went to pretty Emily Jean Davis, 12 year old cowgirl. Emily's from Sweetwater, Tex., where she first learned horsemanship. Last night she gave an exhibition of trick riding and fancy rope work that had a crowd of 4,500 in constant applause. She rode standing up, backward, and in one stirrup, and showed a disregard for the normal hazards that accompany western horsemanship.

Youth Admits Wounding Himself with 'Stray Bullet'

Edward Payne, 19 years old, told Fillmore street police that a wound in his left leg had been made by a stray bullet when he was found on the street yesterday near his home at 1226 South Sawyer avenue. Taken to Bridewell hospital for treatment he admitted he had shot himself while cleaning a .22 caliber rifle.

NOVOTNY HEADS ILLINOIS DIVISION FOR TAX INQUIRY

Joseph F. Novotny, a Chicago attorney and secretary of the Illinos Republican Service Men's league, yesterday was named as the head of a newly established division of criminal investigation of the state finance department. The division will seek to uncover fraudulent tax returns and willful evasion of the sales tax. Finance Director George B. McKibben, who announced the appointment, said the new department is intended for the protection of honest and loyal taxpayers against unfair competition from dishonest and disloyal taxpayers. Evidence of cheating when uncovered will be turned over to state's attorneys for prosecution of the offenders, he said.

U. S. ATTORNEY FOR NORTHERN INDIANA RESIGNS

James R. Fleming of Fort Wayne, United States attorney for the northern district of Indiana, announced his resignation yesterday at Hammond. He said he will join the legal staff of the Ford Motor company to try to settle labor difficulties which he said exist between the company and the National Labor Relations board.

In 1939 he prosecuted the company, along with the General Motors corporation and the Chrysler corporation, on antitrust charges. A consent decree was entered against the Ford and Chrysler companies after General Motors had been fined $5,000.

Judge Thomas W. Slick of the federal District court at Hammond appointed Alex Campbell of Fort Wayne as acting United States attorney.

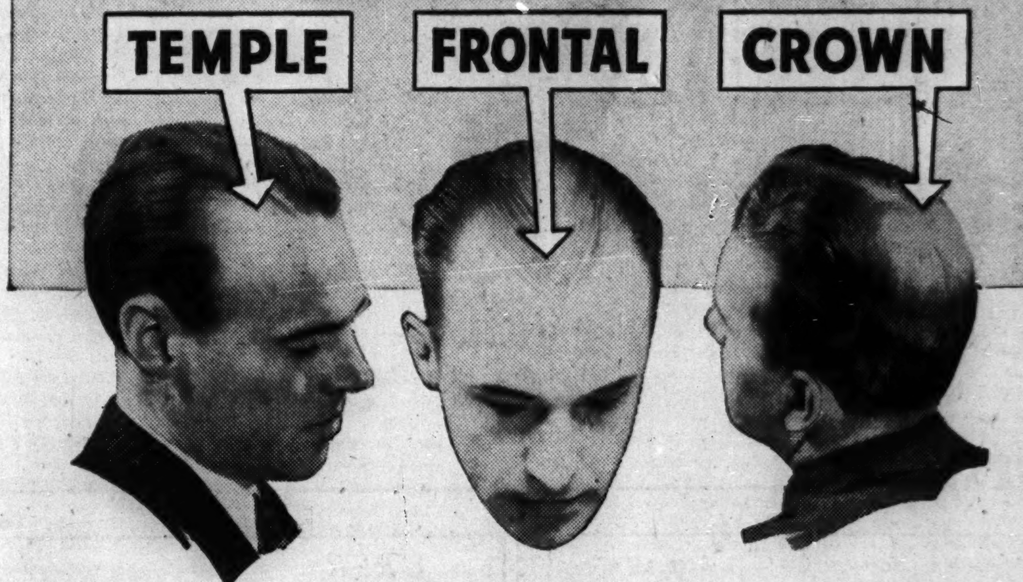
at these three "danger zones"



NATURE is calling for help when your hair begins to thin at the temples, frontal points or crown. Thinning hair at these points, or dandruff-infected, itchy scalp should warn you that your scalp needs immediate attention to prevent further hair loss. Heed these positive warnings and have The Thomas' correct the scalp disorder that is causing your abnormal hair loss.

Thomas' scalp treatment ends dandruff, stops falling hair, and promotes normal hair growth—not by old fashioned hit or miss means—but by an exclusive method which is exact in every detail. The treatment is basically sound in that it supplies the functioning stimuli of which the scalp has been deprived through modern living conditions. It thus results in healthy, growing hair.

The Thomas' will not accept you for treatment unless they feel reasonably sure that you will obtain satisfactory results. Call at the nearest Thomas' office today, where a skilled trichologist will gladly examine your hair and scalp without charge. He will frankly tell you what Thomas' treatment can do to help you retain or regain your hair. Remember—the examination is free.

CHANGE WORKING SCHEDULES TO AID CAPITAL TRAFFIC

Hours Are Staggered for 75,000 U. S. Pay Rollers.

BY HAL FOUST.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., March 31.—As a traffic relief measure, 75,000 of the government's 160,000 capitol payrollers took up new office hours today. The plan is to reduce the peak morning and evening congestion by spreading the rush hours.

Bad jams at several points marked the first day of the new system. Russell E. Singer, general manager of the American Automobile association, said the plan should not be condemned on one days' trial.

"The scheme is sound in principle," he said, "and the experience here is worthy of the attention of traffic authorities in all large American cities. All cities, including Chicago, have the same problem. Too much travel is concentrated in the morning rush to work and the evening rush home."

Some Earlier, Some Later.

Under the new schedule, 75,000 employés hereafter will report for duty as much as 90 minutes earlier than before, or as much as 75 minutes later.

Under this "staggered" arrangement, the opening hours of various departments and agencies range from 7:30 a. m. to 9:15 a. m., while closing times range from 3:30 p. m. to 5 p. m.

In operation, the plan evidently lacked coördination. At some locations, for example, federal payrollers traveled their regular routes and found them filled with factory bound laborers who formerly were in their plants before the white collared army was on the streets.

At other locations, at other hours, blockades were due to police having failed to adjust their regulations to the new rush hour tempo. Washington is a city of trick traffic rules, with one way movements and other restrictions changing several times in the clock's circuit. Bus and street car schedules also lacked adjustment to the innovation.

Within a week, authorities expect to iron out the wrinkles in the plan.

Autos Outmode Streets.

Washington's traffic problem has become acute with the growth of federal pay rolls. The number of government employés here has more than doubled during the Roosevelt administration.

The capital's characteristic street pattern, broad pavements radiating from neighborhood circles, furnishes admirable sites for monuments, but it's not the most convenient pattern for modern automobile traffic.

The move to spread the rush hours, thereby reducing the peak travel volumes, is seen as a scheme with possible benefits other than expediting trips to and from work. In cities like Chicago, which are planning superhighways, a leveling of the peak would reduce pavement requirements and construction costs. New pavements are designed to accommodate peak loads, much greater than requirements at other hours of the day.

ARRAIGN SLAYER, CONTINUE WIFE'S SUIT—BY LETTER

Walter Appelt.

Walter Appelt, 32 years old, indicted for the murder of Joseph Lorenz near the latter's home at 4521 Malden street on March 10, was arraigned yesterday before Chief Justice James F. Fardy in Criminal court. Attorney William Scott Stewart, representing Appelt, was not present, but in a letter to Emmett Moynihan, assistant state's attorney, asked that a not guilty plea be entered. Trial was set for April 28 before Judge Joseph A. Graber.

Meanwhile, Judge Rudolph Desort, in whose Superior court Appelt's wife, Wanda, seeks a divorce, requested her attorneys, Norman and Joseph Becker, to continue the case in order not to prejudice the criminal proceedings against Appelt. Judge Desort said the action was only indirectly the result of a letter from Appelt yesterday in which the latter asked a delay until he could appear, said he loved his wife "more than mere words can hope to convey" and predicted that he could effect a "happy" reconciliation.

Police say Lorenz was slain because of his friendship for Mrs. Appelt.

2 Ex-Convicts Held to Jury in Series of Tavern Raids

Two men were held to the grand jury yesterday by Judge Jay A. Schiller in Felony court on four charges of robbery each. They are Claude Dillon, alias Earl Rogers, 38 years old, 303 South Bell avenue, and Edward Barry, 30, of 1233 South Kedzie avenue. Both are ex-convicts. Police said they obtained several thousand dollars in a series of tavern robberies which started last November. Their total bonds were set at $80,000.

HOLD TREASURER OF CREDIT UNION PENDING AN AUDIT

Harry W. Burmeister, treasurer of the Association Credit union, whose members are mostly Commonwealth Edison company employés, was held for investigation by the state's attorney's office last night while auditors examined the credit union books. Burmeister, 46 years old, lives at 734 Vine street, Park Ridge.

Assistant State's Attorney Clement D. Cody questioned Burmeister when State Auditor Arthur C. Lueder's office reported that a preliminary examination of the association books indicated a shortage in the funds. Burmeister denied that there is a shortage.

The investigation was begun when state auditors visited the association offices and reported that they had found irregularities in the accounts. A complete audit will take several days.

UNCLE GETS LIE TEST IN SLAYING OF TWO ON FARM

His Finger Prints Found on Rifle Used in Killings.

Fingerprints of Robert Feister, 55 years old, were found yesterday on the rifle used in the slaying of his niece, Miss Royalene Hinkle, 26, the owner of a 120 acre farm near Watseka, Iroquois county. Her body was found Friday in her farm home bedroom beside the body of her sweetheart, Lowell Gray, 25. Each had been shot in the head with a .22 caliber rifle.

Sheriff Guy E. Redman of Iroquois county arrested Feister and brought him to Chicago yesterday for a lie detector test. Redman and Chief T. P. Sullivan of the state police also brought the rifle to the Chicago crime detection laboratory for ballistics tests.

Feister was returned to Watseka after the lie detector test. Sheriff Redman said he would be held without charge until results of the ballistics test are available.

Tells of Finding Bodies.

The lie test was given to Feister in the laboratory operated in connection with the Chicago detective bureau. Feister repeated his story of finding the bodies of his niece and Gray, a boarder in the farm home, when he went to awaken Gray in time for work. Gray was employed in a canning factory in Hoopeston.

He said Gray and his niece, who planned to be married soon, quarreled Thursday night over a friend of hers in Peoria, of whom Lowell appeared to be jealous. Feister said he spent Thursday evening in Milford and on returning to the farm went to the basement, where he usually slept. He said he went to call Gray at 6 a. m. Friday and found the bodies.

Bruise on Back of Head.

He explained the presence of his fingerprints on the rifle by saying he often had handled the gun and that it usually was kept in the living room of the farm home. Sheriff Redman and Chief Sullivan said Gray's fingerprints were not on the weapon. An early theory was that Gray killed the young woman and shot himself.

Chief Sullivan said suicide with a rifle would be an awkward undertaking and that there was evidence Gray had a bruise on the back of the head.

Feister said he originally owned a third interest in the farm and his niece had owned two-thirds, inheriting from her mother and an aunt. Feister said drinking and gambling losses caused him to dispose of his interest to his niece. He said she agreed to let him have a life home there. He said the agreement also provided for him to inherit the farm in the event of his niece's death.

Save Our Republic

THE FOUR FALSEHOODS.

This country is being led step by step into the war.

When the neutrality act was repealed the people were told that nothing more would be required. The authorized spokesmen for the administration said the same thing when the 50 destroyers were transferred. They said it again when conscription was instituted, when the 1776 bill was enacted, and again the other day when the 7 billion dollar appropriation for Britain and her allies was approved. Now the interventionists have a different story.

They are talking of employing the United States navy to convoy merchant ships carrying military and other supplies to Britain. If that happens—and it will happen unless the people of this country unite to prevent it—the United States navy will be in the war as actively as is the British fleet. That will end the talk of aiding Britain short of war, for we shall be in war. Sooner or later one of our cruisers or destroyers will be fired upon. Sooner or later some of our sailors will be blown up or drowned after a torpedo attack. After that the sending of our conscripts as an expeditionary force will not be long deferred. The American people will be told they must avenge this taking of American lives.

America is being swept along the road to war by falsehoods, and by four falsehoods in particular. The first of them is that America is in deadly peril of invasion from overseas. As the story is usually told, Hitler, after conquering Britain, will seize Dakar in Africa and, with that as a base, will then advance on Brazil. Having established himself there, at or near Natal, he will turn northward to invade the United States.

They get away with that pipe dream only because the people who hear the story haven't a map in front of them. The whole conception is preposterous, as a glance at the map published on this page today will readily reveal. To get to the United States by way of Dakar and Brazil would require Hitler's legions to traverse many thousands of miles of desert, mountain, and jungle, where only the most primitive methods of transportation are available or could be made available in 50 years of effort, and other thousands of miles of open sea. It is 10,000 miles from Germany to the United States by this route.

Those who profess to believe this is an avenue of conquest must persuade themselves that the British navy will be surrendered intact to Hitler, for without that naval force he could not venture across thousands of miles of open ocean against our fleet, which is the strongest in the world. At the moment the British navy is acquitting itself with the utmost brilliance in the Mediterranean and thru victories over the Italians can now afford to reinforce the home fleet, thereby strengthening the island fortress and minimizing the probability of surrender. Hitler is still stopped by a miserable 23 mile moat called the English channel. The assumption must be accepted that our navy, operating from nearby bases, can be defeated on our side of the ocean by a smaller fleet, contrary to every postulate of every naval staff in the world. Those who believe this yarn must believe also that from our many old and new bases in the Atlantic and the Caribbean, bases which are being constructed and equipped at leisure, we shall be unable to ward off an attack from one hastily constructed base. Nothing in this calculation is too difficult for the Germans to accomplish, and neither our navy, our air fleet, nor our army is worth more than tissue paper as a defense.

Let it be remembered that the route from Germany to Africa to South America to New York has been put forward as the most feasible of the available avenues of German conquest. If the American people believe that tale, they will believe anything.

The second of the falsehoods is that Britain is short of food and war materials. It is true that Britains are rationed, but they are not suffering. Long before they reach any such stage ships which are now engaged in carrying Britain's commerce around the globe will be called in to haul food. If the British were desperately lacking in war materials the British staff would not have sent vast stores of airplanes, tanks, guns, and a thousand other military items to Africa, nor could these weapons now be spared for fighting in Greece. They would be concentrated in the British Isles for defense against the expected invasion. The output of British armament factories is large and growing by all accounts. Without the use of American convoys, great quantities of materials are being received from this country, and, as was noted before, the British naval force in home waters can now be strengthened.

Then there is the falsehood that Britain can be overcome by attack from the air. We know that day bombing is no longer practiced by the Germans because it has proved too costly to them. Night bombing has been destructive but it has not proved decisive and there is little reason to believe that it will. The rôle of the airplane in war is an important one. The airplane forces the defenders of a position to keep under cover while the tanks move in; but there are no tanks to follow the German airmen across the channel and the North sea. The British themselves are confident of their ability to hold out against air attack, as was attested recently by Cyril Falls, writing in the London Illustrated News. He, among many others, has "ruled out of account the possibility of subjugating this country by means of the air arm alone—that is, by bombing, dropping of gas, parachute, and airborne troops. Some people think it can be done but their arguments leave me wholly unconvinced," as indeed, they do the great majority of students of military science.

Finally there is the falsehood that Britain is desperately lacking in merchant tonnage. The figures of the growth of British export trade during the war do not bear out this story. If there were as severe a shortage as is alleged by the propagandists, many more of the foreign trade lines would have been abandoned in the interest of national safety. It is true that because of the convoy system and roundabout routes the efficiency of the merchant fleet has been considerably lowered, but the situation is still far from critical and it will not become critical at the present rate of sinkings for a long time to come, if ever.

It is these four falsehoods which have been used by the propagandists to rush us into the conflict. America is being urged to sacrifice the lives of a million of its sons to avert nonexistent dangers.

THE STATE BUDGET.

Gov. Green gained a great many, perhaps a decisive number, of the votes that elected him governor by his promise to end the extravagance and attendant heavy taxation that made the preceding eight years of Democratic administration the most costly in the history of Illinois. Reports of his budget plans indicate that he is making a sincere effort to redeem his pledge.

The governor promised to remove the sales tax from food if that could be done constitutionally. This project seems to have run afoul of the constitutional reservation that he made, and in lieu of it he is understood to be considering a reduction of the tax on all sales from 3 to 2½ per cent.

That will be a small but welcome reduction. Every effort should be made to cut the tax to 2 per cent. It would still yield more revenue than was required to finance the state government eight years ago.

The present plan seems to be to pass the state budget first, and to take up the sales tax reduction later, perhaps at a special session. This is a mistake. If appropriations are considered first it can be assumed that all the money in sight will be obligated, and the governor will have to wait until his term is half over to attain his objective of tax reduction.

The easy way to achieve governmental economy, as has been pointed out before in these columns, is to cut the revenue first and then fit the appropriations within what is left. There is enough slack and fat in the state administration as Gov. Green inherited it to permit financing the budget on a 2½ per cent sales tax, and probably on a rate of 2 per cent.

Gov. Green expects to achieve considerable economies in the relief budget, in the belief that industrial expansion for rearmament will reduce materially the need for public assistance. This is a reasonable assumption, but the expectation will not be realized if the administration of relief is left wholly in the hands of the professional social workers. Such a cut would cost a considerable number of the social workers their jobs.

A tax on production in the new Illinois oil fields is being considered at Springfield. There seems to be no particular justification for a tax on oil except that the money is there and will be easy to get, but that, after all, is about as good an argument as there is for any tax. Tied up with the oil tax is a proposal for proration of oil production. Insofar as proration is designed to prevent wasteful extraction of oil and premature exhaustion of the producing fields, it has every argument in its favor. Unfortunately, most proration schemes work out, whether they are so intended or not, as price fixing schemes, a field of activity in which government has no business. Whether conservation can be divorced from price fixing is a technical problem that demands a good deal of study.

FABLE.

The Tribune farm diarist tells of a crow who heard the call of a peacock and immediately flew right over. He thought the summons was meant for him.

From faraway lands come muffled sounds, which the receptive ears of old fat men in Washington and elsewhere at once identify as the cries of stricken democracy. These gentlemen can't go themselves but they are eager to send our young men right over.

Creaking in the social or economic body evokes offers of assistance without delay from other gentlemen. It is hard to restrain them from rushing to the rescue, textbook in hand.

A workingman cannot whistle cheerily as he trudges along with his lunch pail without having legions of labor leaders rush up to tell him he must be sick. They crowd around him so closely that he can't get thru the gate to earn his daily bread.

Even the bark of the umpire calling a strike on Lou Novikoff will bring thousands of critics on the run to tell just what is wrong with the Cubs.

All these and others like them are offered the suggestion that, like the crow, they might with merit mind their own business for a change.

Editorial of the Day

THE ROUNDABOUT WAY, AS USUAL.

[St. Louis Post-Dispatch.]

Federal Judge Sullivan of Chicago has sentenced William Skidmore to 30 months in prison for evasion of $300,000 in federal income taxes.

Skidmore asked for a new trial, but Judge Sullivan refused to give it to him. The case will be appealed to higher courts.

To tell the truth, we would like to see Skidmore get a new trial—but not on the charges upon which this federal jury convicted him. We would like to see him tried on the allegations that he made a business of selling police "protection" to gamblers.

We would have liked to see Al Capone tried for his Chicago gangsterism instead of for federal income tax evasion. We would have liked to see Boss Pendergast tried for his misdeeds in Kansas City.

These men were not tried for the major crimes they were alleged to have committed. If they had been, they would very possibly have been acquitted. There is something vitally wrong with a judicial system under which thieves are punished, not for their thievery but for their failure to pay Uncle Sam his share of the booty.

It's nice to know there is an avenue of attack, however oblique, against the grafter and the murderer. But it would be nicer to know there was some possibility of making a law mean what it says, so that transgressors could be dealt with according to their transgressions.

Payments by government—federal, state, and local—to individuals last year reached a new all-time peak of 13,200 million dollars. So tie up with government somewhere, grabbing at the nearest point.—Kansas City Times.

Young Westinghouse Edison Smith, the inventor, is hard at work on a new one—a combination of flapjack griddle and the automatic record changer, for quick breakfast service.—Detroit News.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

Hew to the Line, let the quips fall where they may.

SAYING IT WITH INITIALS.

The English say "April fool"; the Scots say "April gowk"; the French say, "April fish"; and nearly every other race in the world has a name for it.

* * *

The trend toward the use of initial letters for titles has become so marked that possibly today's children are yelling "AF" at their victims, while the adult who has kicked the hat that concealed a brick is growling at himself, "DF."

* * *

Compacted initials without periods represent radio's influence upon journalism. Long before radio, however, there was an English school of thought which held that Mr. is a complete word, pronounced Mister, and that it therefore should not be printed with a period. This usage is fairly common in English book printing.

* * *

Mister is a queer word, anyway. Its abbreviation is a title of courtesy. But its use without a name is either vulgar or illiterate or contemptuous. We doubt if there is another language that contains a parallel.

* * *

In "Modern English Usage" H. W. Fowler favors omitting the period after Mr., and also after all abbreviations which give the first and last letters of a word. His argument, however, is crackpot. He admits that abbreviations are puzzling and that the period helps the reader. Then he maintains that it will be more helpful to the reader if the period is used in some cases and omitted in others.

* * *

Government bureaus labeled with initials have been so characteristic of the Roosevelt administrations that the New Deal era might be called the Periodless Period.

Spoiling a Good Story.

'Tis a pity to spoil a good story, but the lines, "Come one, come all, this rock shall fly," etc., attributed to Roderick Dhu in Wallace Munro's anecdote [March 26] concerning Clarence Darrow were not spoken by Roderick, but by Fitz-James, Knight of Snowdoun, otherwise James, king of Scotland, who could hardly be classed as "a rough Highlander." Bryant L. Beecher.

Contributors who send us clippings from rural newspapers, advertising "milking bulls" for sale, should be advised that we never crack a smile at them. There is a breed of Shorthorns whose progeny is highly rated both for beef and for milk; they are called "Milking Shorthorns," and the male is a "Milking Shorthorn bull." In pastoral circles such advertisments are read without a giggle.

His First Theatrical Performance.

The whole village was teeming with excitement. A company of strolling players was to give Schiller's "The Robbers" in the public room of the Gasthaus. The most extraordinary occasion in the village life, perhaps, since the troops of Gustav Adolph met the army of Wallenstein on the Weinerberg, just at the edge of the town, in the Thirty Years' war!

We of the younger generation received permission from the school principal to attend the play. Awe-stricken, we entered what seemed to our youthful eyes the largest hall in the world. Mine host had removed the everyday furniture of the tavern; only the beamed ceiling and the pictures of Franz Josef and his consort, Elizabeth, remained. The walls were covered with branches of fir.

A small stage had been erected, and after a long delay the Herr Direktor stepped before the curtain to bid the audience of peasant folk welcome. With rapt attention we followed the familiar story of the drama, portions of which were laid in that very section of the country. . . . To us Schoenwald was the center of the world of drama that night. Max of the Second Gallery.

DON'T ALLOW A COLD TO HANG ON.

SOME of us will need to take heed lest a winter cold prolong its visit. While we may be unable to keep these pests away, nevertheless—when one crosses the threshold—we can insist that his stay shall be brief. Figuratively, we can hand him his hat and hold his overcoat to accelerate his departure.

Occasionally, however, we allow what seems to be a mild infection to wander down the trachea and involve the bronchial pipes. Such a situation will usually account for frequent coughing episodes—a condition which may last well into spring. This chain of events takes its toll of vitality. Furthermore, the air tubes will be left in anything but a happy state—inflamed and sore.

The order of precedence is observed as carefully as at an official dinner. The head symptoms come first, with stuffiness, slight fever—possibly a sore throat and a profuse discharge from the nose. If resistance is not quite high enough to halt the invader, some morning the sufferer will awaken with a husky voice due to swelling of the vocal cords. Later, a raw sensation may be experienced "deep down" as we say, and pain may accompany the forceful expulsion of air.

If we could look inside the channels leading to the lungs we would find the mucous surfaces swollen, congested, and dry. At the same time the germs are spreading into the smaller ducts. Then it is that the cough, characterized as "hacking"—without much sputum—becomes more fluid until a hard "spell" may bring up as much as a teacupful.

There may be a fever—at least for a few days—with headache and enough prostration to justify bed rest. Painful, racking paroxysms of barking are associated with a sense of soreness along the lower margin of the ribs and the upper abdomen. Repeated seizures may interfere with breathing until the face grows beet-red, or purplish. This means that not enough oxygen is reaching the lungs. Between attacks the patient may be fairly comfortable. If he can avoid conversation or any other "starter"—so much the better.

It is highly important to gain a victory over the infection without delay. Unless this can be accomplished the victim is likely to be confronted with a cough which will appear in the autumn and persist until summer. After a season or two the disorder may become firmly fixed. Relief may require a journey to a warm, equable climate with plenty of sunshine.

But let's get ahead of the vagabond. Treatment consists in bed rest until the temperature has been normal for at least 48 hours. The atmosphere of the sickroom must be kept moist, and there is no more helpful device than a steam kettle. It is the job of the physician to provide enough sedatives to avoid forceful explosions, as they are likely to force infected material into the branches of the bronchial tree. But care must be taken not to dry up the secretions entirely.

The diet, for the most part, should be light—including hot lemonade, large quantities of weak tea, toast, soft eggs, and soups. Vitamins and—now and then—iron tonics may be called for. Vaccines made from the patient's own organisms are well worth trying.

We must not make the error of assuming that we have a chronic cold when tuberculosis, or some other malady, is present. If weakness persists a careful X-ray study of the chest is in order. If no changes appear on the film the program then is to build resistance with as much out-of-doors as possible, exposure to sunshine, exercise, and a carefully balanced food regimen.

PIGEON-TOED.

S. A. writes: My husband and our two children are pigeon-toed. What can I do about it?

REPLY.

For the sake of your arches, go thou and do likewise. There are many advantages. In fact, flatfoot will not occur with those who toe in. The American Indian—accustomed to long tramps—adopts this method of walking. The heel hits the ground squarely and the forward push from the ball of the foot is more powerful. Any other position would throw him off balance. To some of us the stride may prove unsightly. If so, it can be corrected with practice.

FOOT CALLUS.

A. D. writes: I have a large callus on the sole of my foot. How can this be removed?

REPLY.

It can be scraped periodically, preferably by a chiropodist. Unless the cause is removed, however, it will return. Your posture may need investigation, as pressure is the factor most frequently responsible. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for leaflet on corns, calluses, and bunions.

JOINT OWNERSHIP.

Fargo, N. D., March 25.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—Three people have a farm in joint tenancy. One of the partners died. The certificate of death is recorded with the county auditor in the county in which the farm is located.

1. Will the deed then have to be recorded again omitting the name of the deceased so that the tax statement will show only two owners?
2. What is the procedure to follow?

D. M.

1. No.
2. Assuming that the value is not large enough so that the share which passes by survivorship would be subject to inheritance tax, we see no need for any steps at present. When you come to sell it it will be necessary to satisfy your purchaser that the other joint tenant has died. Presumably you can do this by affidavit.

CASE OF INDIAN GUIDE'S BROTHER.

Chicago, Ill., March 27.—Some time ago there was considerable protest from the Chicago Bar association over the daily broadcasts of the Traffic court cases from the courtroom. I couldn't understand why such protests should arise and decided to make a practice of listening to these broadcasts and perhaps find the answer. I regret to say it did not take long.

We have, for instance, the recent trial of a drunken driver. This man is an Indian, college bred and a family man. After his guilt was proved the public defender announced that the man is the brother of an Indian guide who had saved the life of one of Illinois' valuable politicians.

"What!" said our astonished judge, etc., etc., etc.

Never mind the fact that he had a record of drunken driving before, never mind that he could have killed and probably will kill some one some day. This man's brother had saved a politician's life, and, anyway, who sold liquor to this man? It's against the law to sell liquor to an Indian. Let's find this villain!

But how about the drunken driver? This case was continued and will probably slip thru the fingers of the law as have the cases our tender-hearted Judge Green took care of after the farce of his courtroom proceedings was off of the air.

The Chicago Bar association knew whereof it spoke. E. W.

THE RIGHT TO WALK DOWN A STREET.

Chicago, Ill., March 26.—Every man, women, and child, as I understand it, has a right to proceed down any public thorofare any place in the United States, at any time, without being molested.

Congratulations to Mayor Kelly, Commissioner Allman, Captains Pendergast and Stege for upholding this right in Chicago. Their action is quite different from that reported in some other places, Gary for example, where the city fathers, for some reason best known to themselves, apparently have abdicated law and order in favor of anarchy.

When strike leaders demand that a city government use its police powers to maintain law and order and keep inviolate the rights of all of its citizens, do not the strike leaders admit that they are asking for the right to act illegally? Do they admit that they can't accomplish their objective by legal means? Apparently so. P. P.

NEW PLAN FOR UNION NOW.

Chicago, March 23.—Why doesn't England give up its flag to save its homes and families, become American and raise the American flag? Germany certainly has no grievance against America, and we, the American people, would gladly accept England with open arms. Then who would declare war on whom?

If not, why should we send our precious materials and men to aid a country that would not accept the honor and glory of being an American?

WILLIAM P. MCGUIRE.

DENIES HE IS A WAR MONGER.

Baltimore, Md., March 26.—I have just received a copy of the March 14 issue of your paper and have noted the statement on the front page in reference to contributors to the Committee to Defend America by Aiding the Allies, and also a list, on page two, of the contributors, in which my name appears under the "$100 to $250" class of supporters of this cause.

These data evidently represent my contribution for 1940 and do not do me justice, because I have agreed to contribute $400 during the year 1941 and plan to renew this support in an equal or larger measure in the coming years, if and when it is needed.

Since your paper has seen fit to publicize and adversely criticize my action in this particular, I would like your public to know that the information which you have made available represents but a small part of the support which I and my associates have made available to Great Britain and its allies and, so far as we are able to judge ourselves, we have no unworthy motive. Altho I have been to war for the United States, I am, in no sense, a war monger, but hope that our country may escape direct involvement thru aid to Great Britain and its allies, which, in turn, will provide the opportunity to accomplish preparedness for defense here in the United States. I believe, with Mr. Willkie, we must be strong.

I am just as much opposed to war as any of the so-called isolationists, but my experience in life has convinced me that you cannot escape a bully or tyrant thru appeasement or compromise. We must be prepared and it is only thru England that we can have the time to accomplish this purpose. H. A. B. DUNNING.

BABIES AND SPARROWS.

Chicago, March 27.—I also feed the birds. It came upon me in my old age when there was no one else whom I had to feed. But in referring to Mrs. Peck—I mean her letter in your column dated March 15, I am amazed that she should feed the birds anywhere 100 pounds of bread—$5.00 a week, let's say—when there are so many babies somewhere that are as hungry as the sparrows.

Why could not Mrs. Peck be the sponsor of a small child and carry it on thru life—$22.50 a month is a large part of what it takes to keep a human being going. JACK STEVENS.

WRITE YOUR LEGISLATORS.

Chicago, March 24.—As a constant reader of your paper I was more than pleased when I read your editorial for a reapportionment of the state.

I immediately wrote to the members of the legislature from this district, in effect, that I would use my influence to see that they were retired from office if they refused to support the act. I am of the opinion it would be well for others to do likewise just to let them know that we are not all asleep. JOHN R. MCSHANE.

CLARK AIMS NEW BLAST AT COURT CHANGE IN LEVIES

Blames Delinquencies on Illegal Actions.

Assessor John S. Clark last night renewed his criticism of "arbitrary and illegal changes" made by judges in Cook county personal property tax assessments.

Clark said the illegal activities of the judges is the chief reason for the 240 million dollar personal property tax delinquency in the county and that the 1940 tax rate, $9.52 for each $100 of assessed valuation—which equals the all time high—is necessary because of the delinquency.

"Judges have assumed the rôle of assessor," Clark said, "and they have no such authority. I've found their reductions are 90 per cent faulty."

Judges' Courses Described.

He said judicial action has bred contempt among many taxpayers for personal property tax assessments. Each year approximately 25 million dollars of the taxes become delinquent.

Under the law, Clark said, a judge has two courses to follow in tax cases: he may decide in favor of the defendant and refer the case to the assessor for a reassessment, or he may rule in favor of the state and issue a judgment for the full amount, plus a 50 per cent penalty.

Except in rare instances neither course has been followed by the judges. Judge John Gutknecht has been sitting for two weeks in the Municipal court branch devoted to personal property tax cases and has followed the precedent established by previous judges.

An average of 150 cases is heard each day, five days a week. Most of these cases are continued many times, but about 20 per cent are settled. A score or more of cases recently settled was examined at random from the files. All were for 1938 taxes.

Judge Criticizes Editorial.

Judge Gutknecht yesterday criticized an editorial in THE TRIBUNE which had outlined the judges' stand on the personal property tax law and commented on the illegal adjustments in assessments.

"The editorial confuses the two issues—one the discussion of the social desirability of the present personal property law itself; second, the difficulty of applying such a law equitably in practice," Judge Gutknecht said.

"The editorial comes from a newspaper that has been complaining about the large amount of administrative law in the land today, and yet the editorial writer would evidently refuse judicial review of arbitrary assessments because the defendant failed to file a schedule.

Comments on Stand.

"The wobbly nature of the editorial is shown when it admits the courts have a legal responsibility to determine a fair tax. Yet it says the remedy is a new assessor.

"In other words, no judicial review but a new election. That is editorial nonsense.

"The personal property case defendant who has law and equity with him need not be afraid that editorial pressure will cause me to change my decisions from what the facts, the law, and my sense of judicial integrity dictate."

MRS. LILLIAN RADEK.

Mrs. Lillian Radek, 26 years old, of 4516 South Sacramento avenue, admitted yesterday that she had gone thru the pockets of her husband, Frank, 34. But, she said, she was looking for money, not for the telephone numbers of other women, which were all she found. She said her husband struck her for making the search. Judge Joseph Sabath granted Mrs. Radek a divorce on the ground of cruelty. Her lawyer, Harry X. Cole, said she would waive alimony because she has a job as a bookkeeper.

ALDERMEN FIGHT IGOE PLAN TO END TRANSIT PARLEYS

Seek to Go Ahead with City Hall Sessions.

BY LAURENCE BURD.

The city council transportation committee yesterday took issue with Federal Judge Michael L. Igoe's action ending further conferences between city representatives and the surface lines' new management board for a unified traction ordinance.

The committee instructed William H. Sexton, city special traction counsel, to inform Judge Igoe at a court hearing tomorrow that the city is ready to continue negotiations with the transit lines for a traction ordinance and that any negotiations must be conducted at the city hall.

This stand was in answer to Judge Igoe's statement Friday that further transit parleys would be useless and his indication court hearings would be held to settle basic legal questions in dispute between the city and the lines.

Board States Objections.

Judge Igoe's statement was made after a report to the court by the new surface lines board, stating six fundamental legal objections by the board to the city's proposed ordinance. Judge Igoe said a previous transit board had negotiated futilely with the city for a year and a half and that more such conferences would be useless.

The aldermen yesterday, however, refused to authorize Sexton to defend in court the city's stand on the disputed legal points. Several members of the committee said the federal court apparently is trying to control the city's traction ordinance.

"The place to negotiate a franchise ordinance for the use of city streets is in the city hall and not in the federal court," said Ald. Arthur G. Lindell [9th]. "The city has the final authority to decide what belongs in its traction ordinance."

Outside Capital Suggested.

Ald. James B. Bowler [25th] said that in view of the stand taken by the surface lines' board he favored an attempt by the city to interest outside capital to take over the surface and elevated lines and the Chicago Motor Coach company.

"The board representing the surface lines obviously is not sincere and does not want a franchise," Bowler said. "Why should the city try to deal with it?"

The committee then voted to have a subcommittee investigate the possibility of attracting new capital to carry out Bowler's suggestion. The aldermen also voted to summon officials of the street car, elevated, and bus lines to the next meeting of the transportation committee and demand that definite standards of service be set up and followed.

Buses Crowded, Says Orlikoski.

This action was proposed by Ald. Walter J. Orlikoski [35th] who said cars and buses are overcrowded and that too many cars are taken off many routes in the off-rush-hour periods.

Court hearings are expected on the surface lines' board's objections to the city's franchise proposal, even tho the city does not participate. The board suggested that the securities holders' group of both the surface and elevated lines, which are not represented on the board submit their views to the court.

These groups include the first-mortgage bondholders of the lines, who eventually will have to approve any franchise plan before it can become effective.

Judge Igoe yesterday named Bernard J. Fallon a co-trustee of the elevated lines. The other trustee is Col. A. A. Sprague. Fallon has been executive officer of the elevated road since 1932. He also was named co-trustee of the Chicago North Shore and Milwaukee railroad and the Chicago Aurora and Elgin railroad. Col. Sprague also is trustee for the two railroads.

CANVASS STORES FOR 2D TABLETS IN DRUG MIXUP

Police were ordered last night to canvass drug stores in Chicago and the suburbs for the second lot of bottles of sulfathiazole tablets, bearing the number MP 118, reported to have been contaminated inadvertently with phenobarbital, a sedative. A similar canvass was made Sunday in search of sulfathiazole tablets bearing the lot number MP 029. It was reported all of this lot distributed in the Chicago area was recovered.

Meanwhile in Washington, D. C., Walter G. Campbell, food and drug commissioner, said commission inspectors also were endeavoring to recover a shipment numbered MP 169. No requests to search for this number in Chicago had been received yesterday, however.

The sulfathiazole, which is used in treatment of pneumonia and other infections, was contaminated during manufacture. The drugs, made by the Winthrop Chemical company of New York City, were distributed thruout the United States. Campbell said incomplete reports showed five deaths have occurred.

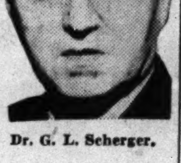
DR. SCHERGER, CLERGYMAN AND EDUCATOR, DIES

A German-American Leader in City.

Dr. George Lawrence Scherger, prominent clergyman, member of the Chicago Public Library board, and a German-American leader in Chicago, died yesterday in the Grant hospital after an illness of several months. Plans were being completed last night for an elaborate funeral, to be attended by civic, clerical, and political figures.



Dr. G. L. Scherger.

Dr. Scherger was 66 years old and lived at 614 Fullerton parkway. He was pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, Fullerton parkway and Orchard street, oldest German Lutheran church in Chicago.

Born in Indiana.

Born in Lawrenceburg, Ind., Dr. Scherger was educated at Indiana university, the University of Leipzig, the University of Berlin, and Cornell university. In 1899 he joined the history department at Armour institute, and taught history there until 1933. He had been assistant pastor and then pastor of St. Paul's since 1929.

Dr. Scherger wrote voluminously on history and political science. Among his best known works is "Evolution of Modern Liberty." After the last war, he lifted his voice to ask that defeated Germany be given an even chance. Back in October, 1939, he warned that the United States was being led into the second world war. In 1936 he was awarded the distinguished service cross of the medal of honor of the German Red Cross.

Reorganized Germania Club.

The clergyman was a reorganizer of the Germania club, and recognized as a leader of German-Americanism in Chicago. He leaves his widow, Bertha, and three sons, Raymond, Milton, and George. His body will lie in state in St. Paul's church from 5 p. m. tomorrow to 1 p. m. Thursday. Dr. Louis A. Goebel, president of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of America, will officiate.

The honorary pallbearer list includes Gov. Green, Mayor Kelly, United States Senator Wayland Brooks, Clayton F. Smith, president of the county board; Karl Eitel, Carter H. Harrison, collector of internal revenue; W. A. Wieboldt, Oscar F. Mayer, and Dr. Herman N. Bundesen. Among the active pallbearers will be State Auditor Arhtur Lueder. Burial will be in Mount Greenwood.

BARE CLAIMS OF 3 WOMEN AGAINST SCHWAB ESTATE

New York, March 31 [Special].—The claims of three women against the estate of Charles M. Schwab, chairman of the board of Bethelem Steel corporation, who died insolvent on Sept. 18, 1939, were revealed today in an intermediate accounting filed by the executors in Surrogates' court. At the time of his death the famous steelmaster left assets of $370,000 [not including collateral set aside for one of these three women] and liabilities of $2,262,000.

Against the comparative pittance left by Schwab was filed a sheaf of claims by brokerage houses, banks [which included a $231,500 balance on a mortgage] and the three women—Miss Emily Myrtle Dunn, Miss Elizabeth Scott, and the Countess Beatrice de Tavara, none of them a relative of the steel man, the papers indicate.

The only one of the litigants whose claim was protected was Miss Dunn. In 1935 Schwab had put away for Miss Dunn stocks which later sold for $20,000. The money is being held in escrow for Miss Dunn. Miss Scott, who lives in Merrill, N. Y., told the executors that her friend owed her $218,000 on two promissory notes. She has been paid $164,000 out of the estate, the accounting showed. The Countess de Tavana entered a claim which was rejected, but she was given permission to file another.

PRISONER DIES IN BRIDEWELL.

Howard Miller, 34 years old, colored, who was serving a year's sentence for larceny, died yesterday in the Bridewell, presumably of radiator fluid which he drank.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Sophia Eggert.

Funeral services for Mrs. Sophia Eggert, widow of John Eggert, a civil war veteran, will be held at 2 p. m. tomorrow in St. John's Evangelical church, Evanston. Burial will be in Emmanuel Lutheran cemetery. Mrs. Eggert died Sunday at the age of 81 years in her home at 2111 Wesley avenue, Evanston. She leaves four daughters, Mrs. Anna Raschke, Mrs. Mary Burger, Mrs. H. C. Scherer, and Mrs. Laura Foster, and four sons, Henry, Fred, Alfred and Harry Eggert.

Mrs. Emily M. Lucas.

Mrs. Emily M. Lucas, a resident of Rogers Park for 25 years and a former member of the South Evanston Woman's club, died yesterday in St. Francis hospital, Evanston. She was 55 years old and lived at 7021 Greenview avenue. She leaves her husband, John C. Lucas, a sales executive. Services will be at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow in the chapel at 6959 Clark street. Burial will be in Rosehill cemetery.

Dr. Herbert M. Freundlich.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 31 (AP).—Dr. Herbert M. Freundlich, 60, distinguished professor of colloid chemistry at the University of Minnesota and author of a number of books on chemistry, died here yesterday.

WIFE SLAIN; HOLD HUSBAND, RECENT ASYLUM PATIENT

Mrs. Tillie Schwartz, 52 years old, was stabbed to death with a hunting knife yesterday in her home at 4947 North Ridgeway avenue. Albany Park police held her husband, Sam, 53, a tailor, as her alleged slayer.

Sam Schwartz.

Police said that Schwartz was held at the Manteno State hospital from March 14 until last Friday when he was discharged as "not dangerous." He stayed with friends over the week-end, and returned home yesterday. On the way he bought the hunting knife for $1.95.

Mrs. Mollie Jones, a daughter, told police she heard her mother scream after a quarrel with Schwartz. Mrs. Jones said she ran into the kitchen and found her mother dead. Schwartz had disappeared. An hour later he jumped into the lake off Foster avenue, but was rescued and arrested. Police said he admitted the stabbing, but insisted he didn't know why he did it.

DEAN DAVENPORT DIES; FATHER OF U. OF I. AG. SCHOOL

Woodland, Mich., March 31 [Special].—Eugene Davenport, 84 years old, outstanding contributor to the agricultural development of Illinois and dean emeritus of the University of Illinois college of agriculture, died here early today.

Eugene Davenport.

Dean Davenport, who was born on his father's Michigan farm June 20, 1856, retired from the University of Illinois in 1922, after 27 years' service. Among his most important contributions to agriculture in Illinois were organization of farm associations and development of crop rotation. During his régime farmers were encouraged to take their problems to the university for solution.

Mrs. Davenport died in 1935. Two daughters preceded their mother in death. Funeral services will be held Wednesday in the Davenport home in Woodland.

Three Autoists Get Jail Terms for Faulty Driving

Three motorists were sentenced to the county jail yesterday by Judge Charles S. Dougherty in Safety court. They are Edward Demaret, 22 years old, 806 West 27th street, 10 days and loss of driving privileges for 90 days for reckless driving; Raymond Zmudzinski, 30, of 2742 North Mozart street, and Elmer Olson, 31, of 10015 Avenue C, 30 days and driving privilege revoked for 30 days for driving while intoxicated.

BOY, 10, KILLED BY CAR AS HE RUNS IN STREET

Frank Darcy, 10 years old, 2953 Fulton street, died in Garfield Park hospital yesterday of injuries suffered earlier in the day when he ran into Sacramento boulevard near Washington boulevard and was struck by an automobile. The driver, Robert J. Patchell, 3724 East avenue, Berwyn, was not held.

George Smith, 6, of 104 North Kildare avenue, died in Garfield Park hospital of injuries received Sunday near his home when he was hit by a car driven by Dr. Pierre Jassonide, 5130 Fulton street, a chiropractor.

Dr. Lester E. Hackbarth, 42, Toledo, O., was killed, and his wife, Anna, and two sons were injured seriously 12 miles east of Elgin on U. S. route 20, when Dr. Hackbarth's car overturned as he attempted to pass a truck driven by Edward Dougherty, 25, of 6624 South Whipple street, Chicago.

Warren H. Clarke, 18 years old, 2247 North Springfield avenue, a fourth year student at Schurz High school, died in Swedish-Covenant hospital early today of injuries received Saturday night when a motorcycle on which he was riding with another student struck a fence at Winona street and Long avenue. The motorcyclist, Hugo Tornquist, 17, 5136 Winona street, is still in the hospital.

Coroner A. C. Brodie announced yesterday that 63 persons were killed in automobile accidents in Cook county during March. Sixty-five were killed during March of 1940. The number killed during the first three months of 1941 totals 198, as compared to 225 for the corresponding period last year.

Up to 4 p. m. yesterday 108 persons had been killed in Cook county traffic since Jan. 1. Of these 149 died in Chicago, where 5,173 were injured during the same period.

SET APRIL DRAFT QUOTA FOR STATE AT RECORD 15,000

A sharp increase in the Illinois draft quota for April was announced yesterday from state selective service headquarters in Springfield. The quota has been set at approximately 15,000 men, compared with 11,500 in March and 5,123 in February. The upturn, it was said, is necessary to fill the state's tentative allotment of 62,000 draftees in training by July 1.

A total of 542 men from 20 downstate and two Cook county draft boards reported yesterday at the new quarters of the Chicago draft induction station in the 132d Regiment armory, 2653 Madison street.

BANKER LEAVES MILLIONS TO AID FOR YOUNG MEN

New York, March 31 (AP).—The bulk of the $52,410,065 estate of the late Charles Hayden, banker, goes to the Charles Hayden Foundation to assist needy boys and young men.

An estate tax appraisal filed today showed the foundation would receive an estimated $49,371,921 to carry on the work in which Hayden had a consuming interest during his life. He died Jan. 8, 1937.

ESTATE OF BANTING, FAMED FOR INSULIN, VALUED AT $72,300

TORONTO, Ont., March 31 [Canadian Press].—Sir Frederick Grant Banting, co-discoverer of insulin, who was killed in an airplane crash in Newfoundland on Feb. 21, left an estate valued at $72,300 it was disclosed today. After providing for Lady Banting for life and for his 11 year old son, William Robertson, his will decrees that the residue of the estate pass in later years to the department of medical research of Toronto university. Sir Frederick's medals were bequeathed to the University of Toronto.

ARMS PROGRAM BLAMED FOR RISE IN AUTO DEATHS

A large percentage of the increase in traffic deaths this year can be traced to national preparedness activities, according to a report yesterday by the National Safety council.

A state by state survey made by the council showed that at least 320 of the 740 additional traffic deaths in January and February resulted either from the movement of military vehicles, involved military personnel, or traffic caused by armaments expansion.

The totals rose 11 per cent in January and 22 per cent in February over the 1940 toll. The council reported there were 15 or 20 deaths in which military vehicles were involved, 100 deaths of military personnel involving nonmilitary vehicles, and at least 200 deaths of preparedness workers.

The Ravenna ordnance area, which comprises four Ohio counties, had 9 rural traffic deaths in January and February, 1940, and 25 in the corresponding months of 1941. The rest of Ohio showed only a rural traffic death increase of 10 per cent.

CHARLES ADKINS, EX-FARM LEADER IN CONGRESS, DIES

Decatur, Ill., March 31 [Special].—Charles Adkins, 78, Republican congressman from the 19th congressional district from 1924 to 1932 and a former speaker of the Illinois house of representatives, died today.

A stanch believer in the principle that an adequate tariff would solve agriculture's problems, Mr. Adkins was a practical farmer and for many years farmed more than 500 acres in Piatt county.

He served three terms in the state legislature from the 24th senatorial district and was elected speaker of the 47th general assembly in 1911. He served as Illinois secretary of agriculture from 1916 to 1920.

In 1932 he led a fight against direct relief, contending that "the government is starting something it can never quit."

He leaves his wife, Dora, five daughters, and four sons. Funeral services will be held Wednesday.

GOOD REASONS WHY

QUINTUPLETS use MUSTEROLE for CHEST COLDS

Mother—Give YOUR Child This Same Expert Care!

At the first sign of a chest cold the Quintuplets' throats and chests are rubbed with Children's Mild Musterole—a product made to promptly relieve the DISTRESS of children's colds and resulting bronchial and croupy coughs.

Relief usually comes quickly because Musterole is MORE than an ordinary "salve." It helps break up local congestion. As Musterole is used on the Quints you may be sure you are using just about the BEST product made. Also in Regular and Extra Strength for those preferring a stronger product.

SOME ONE'S DEAD, BUT IT'S SOME ONE ELSE, NOT RUBIN

Police were trying yesterday to identify the body of a man who fell dead Saturday in a restaurant at 751 South State street. They were sure it was not the body of Abraham Rubin, a tailor, of 809 South State street. He told them so himself.

People in the restaurant had identified the body as that of Rubin. Police went to his hotel room and took his belongings to turn over to the public administrator. Later they received a phone call from a man who said his name was Rubin, gave the South State street address, and said he had been robbed.

The desk sergeant suggested that Rubin was dead, but the caller denied it so vehemently that the police brought his things back again to the hotel.

ENDS LIFE BY HANGING.

HEWITT SELLS HIS GARBAGE SERVICE HOUSE TO HOUSE

Talks Personally to Wives Who Complain.

BY EDWARD WILSON.

The desk of Oscar E. Hewitt, commissioner of public works, is piled high with departmental statistics and files of city business, but he reaches for the phone whenever his secretary announces a householder is calling about garbage collections.

"Commissioner Hewitt talking," he snaps.

"You say city ash men disturbed your sleep last night? They made too much noise collecting ashes and garbage at 2 o'clock in the morning? Thanks for the information and please give me your name and address, and we will investigate."

The Second Part.

That is the first part of Commissioner Hewitt's speech. The second part goes something like this:

"Let me see now——. You live in the 47th ward. Well, Mrs. Jones, last fall your garbage was picked up once every 16 days, wasn't it? Now you are getting service once every seven days.

"And what's more, the men were collecting last night because all wards are using the city's new trucks 24 hours a day. The new closed equipment is not only cleaner than those old trailers and trucks you used to see, but is more economical to operate."

The commissioner tells the householder that last year it cost the city $1.14 a cubic yard to haul garbage to the dumps, and this year, with the aid of the new equipment and working it on a three shift system, it is costing only 64.84 cents a cubic yard. Hewitt tells hows he hopes to release 350 men who used to load trailers, and have them sweep streets this spring.

And that talk usually satisfies the householder.

Other Complaints Heard.

All complaints, of course, do not come from householders. With the advent of the new trucks, the city has laid off more than 350 private teams and trucks. This has been regarded as fine business by ward committeemen and the committeemen naturally resent the new plan.

A complaint was received yesterday from the city truck drivers union which has the men on the garbage trucks. It asked time and a half for overtime for all men on the night shifts. They now receive $190 a month.

After a consultation with Mayor Kelly, Hewitt refused the demands.

COURT PUTS BAN ON NEW INDIANA REVAMPING ACTS

Indianapolis, Ind., March 31 [Special].—Circuit Judge Earl R. Cox tonight enjoined enforcement of three laws recently passed by the Republican legislature which would have shorn Gov. Henry F. Schricker, only Democratic state officer elected last November, of power and patronage.

Under one of the reorganization laws the attorney general would be an appointee of the lieutenant governor and the secretary of state. By issuing a temporary injunction without time limit, Judge Cox left George Beamer, Schricker's Democratic appointee, in the attorney general's office.

The second law affects the state board of education and the third, not effective until May 1, would place the appointments of thousands of state employés under the various department heads.

Lieut. Gov. Carl Dawson and the state Republican organization will file a bill of exceptions tomorrow and either ask for a change of venue or appeal directly to the state Supreme court.

ELEVENTH HOUR AURORA BALLOT CHANGE ORDERED

A rush week-end job of printing new ballots for today's city and township election in Aurora was justified yesterday. Four candidates of the Citizens' Progressive party, whose nominations previously were ruled out on technical grounds, had their nominations approved by the city election commission, sitting as the election board of Aurora township. The four are Hurley C. Reed, running for township assessor; Fred E. Pfeiffer and Carl M. Deisher, supervisors, and James C. Zickers, running for constable. Ballots without these four names were delivered Saturday, after the first nominations were found invalid, but new ones were ordered in case the board found the new nominations legal. It did. The four were nominated after four other candidates withdrew early in March.

Today also is election day in seven municipalities, 30 townships, and 35 park districts in Cook county. Leading the municipal contests in interest are the mayoral race in Evanston and a write-in campaign in Oak Park. Elections also will be held in Cicero, Berwyn, River Forest, Winnetka, and Glencoe.

Voters will cast ballots in the following townships for supervisor, clerk, assessor, collector, highway commissioner, constables, and justices of the peace: Barrington, Berwyn, Bloom, Bremen, New Trier, Calumet, Cicero, Elk Grove, Evanston, Hanover, Lemont, Leyden, Lyons, Maine, Niles, Northfield, Norwood Park, Oak Park, Orland, Palatine, Palos, Proviso, Rich, River Forest, Riverside, Schaumberg, Stickney, Thornton, Wheeling, and Worth.

J. L. O'CONNOR DIES AT IRWIN.

Kankakee, Ill., March 31 [Special].—John L. O'Connor, 70, farmer for 60 years, died yesterday at his home near Irwin. His widow and four children survive.

Quintuplet Lambs Born to Ewe on Michigan Farm

WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

Deep-Rooted in the People's Needs

America confronts an uncertain future, wherein trials and emergencies undoubtedly abide. To steady ourselves we must have faith—faith in our own works, faith also in those with whom and for whom we labor.

The Illinois Central has that faith. It knows its own strength, experience and ability. It knows, too, that its roots as an institution are anchored deep in the needs of all the people. So rooted, it asks that we its friends may picture it to others:

Not as a vast aggregation of capital totaling 730 million dollars; but rather as the combined savings of men and women, some of whom may be living just across our street.

Not as the employer of 30,000 men and women, most of them far away; but rather as the livelihood of some people we know, who trade at our store and send their children to the same school we do.

Not as the payer of taxes totaling ten million dollars a year; but rather as a helper to carry the burden of governmental support to which we all contribute.

Not as the producer of eleven billion ton-miles of freight transportation annually; but rather as the carrier that takes our products to market and brings us fuel, clothing and food.

Not as the producer of 640 million miles of passenger transportation a year; but rather as the carrier that takes us and our neighbors where we want to go and brings us all safely home.

Not as anything mysterious at all; but rather as a local business, a good citizen and, above all, a good neighbor.

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 diamond	Pass	2 diamonds	Pass
3 spades	Double	4 spades [!]	Pass
6 diamonds	Pass	Pass	Pass

Had West not been so accommodating as to double the three spade bid, the chances are that North-South never could have reached a slam contract. Suppose West had held his peace over the three spades. North hardly could bid more than four diamonds, inasmuch as he would count his spade void as "duplication." And with a mere diamond preference from North, South probably would not have risked bidding a slam, inasmuch as there might easily be two spade losers.

The highly injudicious double by West gave North the opportunity to make a shrewd and sound bid and one that was easily interpretable. His apparent raise of spades hardly could be an actual one, since it would be absurd for a player to contract for four odd when he was given the chance to play at three, doubled. If North really had liked the spade bid, he would have redoubled. Hence his apparent raise could be construed only in one way, and that was as showing first round control of the suit. From South's point of view, it did not matter whether North had the blank ace or a void. In either case there would be a splendid chance to hold the spade losers to a maximum of one.

West made the best opening lead under the circumstances, namely, his singleton diamond. Dummy played low and East properly refused to part with his jack, since he might be able to use it to over-ruff dummy on a spade lead. Declarer won with the nine, and realizing that he would be unable to ruff out his entire spade suit, correctly decided to lead the queen and let it ride, unless West covered. West did cover and the trick was ruffed with dummy's diamond eight. Declarer returned to his own hand with a heart and led the spade jack thru West. This time, the latter elected to play low and declarer correctly threw off a club from dummy. The jack holding, declarer was home. He ruffed a low spade with the diamond ten, returned to his hand with a second heart, and ruffed another spade with the diamond king. Eventually, he had to concede one spade trick, but the contract was safe.

Gay, Dazzling Are Hats in Spring Show

BY REA SEEGER.

Eligible bachelors and susceptible males will have to seek underground shelters if they would keep their freedom this spring. For new spring skimmers, cartwheel and floral turbans are the most romantic and devastingly flattering headlines that ever tempted vacillating swain. Dache's superb fashion show illustrates just what is meant in the above warning.

There were hats made entirely of flowers, and no one but a Gallic genius knows how to combine flowers. There were snowy white hats of straw and dazzling white pique, one pique sensation had a lattice veil made of the pique. . . another had twin pearl hat pins and a fragile bit of white veiling.

* * *

There were sooty black hats with a rose tucked in the deftly folded wide front brim. There were hats of gay striped and plaid ribbon, a coal scuttle bonnet model of demure plaid silk with a gay green bow tied fetchingly at the left side of the brim; a hat made entirely of parma violets with a pink veil shining with sparkling pink jeweled sets. Another down swooping small hat had two candy pink satin ribbon streamers down the back and on the ribbon and on the veil were sizeable shining black patent leather hearts.

Breathtaking new straw hats were combined with a band of fur on the crown as in one extermely wide brimmed affair with light colored fur muff to match.

* * *

Another beige straw hat had appliqued leaves of leopard fur on the brim and there was a leopard muff bag to match. Hats and matching bags still make outstandingly smart duets with which to contrive a distinctive costume. See the wickedly shining black straw that glitters like anthracite and a huge matching bag or the snappy little twosomes made of dotted silk or the giddy numbers of stripes and plaids.

The most romantic hats were the lovely models with long shoulder scarves of floating chiffons, cerise with a flesh pink scarf, a caramel beige with a long angelic scarf shining with dozens of shimmering amber and gold sequins. This is the spring to go sentimental and fatally feminine under the loveliest of hats.

Universal Day—Not a day in which to try to fool any one or you may find yourself kicking the hat with the brick under it! Highly jittery and irritating to those not geared for it.

April—There will be an irritating air about this month in spite of the unusual developments that it might bring. The depressing feeling will lift as people catch the renewing spirit of spring and respond to the month's number which is one. The spirit of taking a fresh grip on the problem, getting a new slant, and taking steps forward will be felt on all sides. Child Often Is Frightened by a False Face

By GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS.
[Copyright: 1941: By News Syndicate Co. Inc.]

Most "false faces" are unnatural and grotesque. To us, or to an older boy or girl, the very unnaturalness and grotesqueness are funny. To a little child they often are terrifying.

I know a number of small children who couldn't be induced to go near a Santa Claus in a store, and others who would run fearfully from Halloween masks and fantastic costumes. And fear was not dispelled when the false face was taken off and they could see who was wearing it.

This is something that should be approached rather cautiously. If you see a tendency in your little child to be terrified by grotesque things, you'll just have to spare him such experiences. Up to a certain point you can explain and try to make a joke of it all, but never should it be forced. Often these children are troubled by certain illustrations in their books. Arthur Rackham's pictures and Raggedy Ann will trouble one child a great deal and not another. Different children respond differently to things of this nature but of one thing you may be sure, and that is that the very imaginative child who is frightened by grotesqueness will, in time, outgrow it.

Ruth Johnson Picks April 19 for Marriage

BY JUDITH CASS.

MISS RUTH JOHNSON will have only three attendants on April 19 when she is married to Gardiner B. Van Ness Jr., but the party will make up in pulchritude what it may lack in size. The bride and her three sisters are four of the prettiest girls imaginable. Miss Prudence will be the maid of honor and Miss Isabelle, a debutante of the season just past, and subdeb Caroline will be the bridesmaids. Miss Isabelle will be at home from the Ogontz school for the occasion; Caroline is a senior at Roycemore.

Radford Van Ness will be his brother's best man and ushering will be John J. Borland II., Chauncey K. Hutchins, Joseph G. Belden Jr., Alanson Donald, Homer H. Johnson Jr., John Bross of New York, formerly of Chicago, and Oakley Brooks of New York.

Mr. Van Ness and his bride-to-be have found a house in Lake Forest in which they will be at home after a wedding trip south. The wedding is to be solemnized at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon in Christ church, Winnetka, with a reception following at the Kenilworth home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Homer H. Johnson. The Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard will officiate.

Mrs. Ruth Taylor Pontius and H. J. Macfarland Wed.

Announcement is made of the marriage on Friday of Mrs. Ruth Taylor Pontius and Henry J. Macfarland, both of Winnetka. The wedding took place in Evanston, the Rev. Hugh Elmer Brown officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Macfarland have departed for a wedding trip to the west coast and upon their return will reside in Barrington.

Mr. Macfarland and Frances Ryan Macfarland were divorced around Christmas time in Pompano, Fla., where Mrs. Macfarland and the children, Mary and Margaret, have been living. Miss Mary Macfarland was on last year's list of debutantes, altho plans for her formal coming out in September were canceled when her mother departed for Florida.

The new Mrs. Macfarland and Dr. John R. Pontius were divorced in 1938. They had one adopted daughter. The former Mrs. Pontius was one of three heirs to the $15,000,000 estate of her grandaunt, Mrs. Ida Flagler, widow of Henry M. Flagler, oil millionaire.

Mrs. Badger to Give Tea for Mrs. Albert G. Simms.

Mrs. Winterbotham Badger has cards out for a tea for Mrs. Albert G. Simms next Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at home, 1301 Astor street. Mrs. Simms [Ruth Hanna McCormick] will be in Chicago on Tuesday and Wednesday on her way from the east to her ranch in New Mexico. Cecelia, Mrs. Badger's elder daughter, is a student at the Sandia school in Albuquerque, which was started by Mrs. Simms and continues to be one of her chief interests.

Mrs. Clyde M. Carr, Mrs. Charles H. Swift, and Mrs. Frederic W. Upham, honorary chairmen of the women's committee of the Chicago Symphony orchestra, are giving a tea for the new chairman, Mrs. Telfer MacArthur, on Monday, April 14, at the Casino. The party will be a welcome home to Mrs. MacArthur, for she and her husband depart tonight for a brief vacation in the south. They are going to Sea Island, Ga., and will return just before the tea.

Izler Solomon Gives 3 Works New to Chicago

BY EDWARD BARRY.

The Illinois Symphony orchestra is still adhering to its historic policy of bringing us novelties. Last night's Great Northern theater program contained no fewer than three works which had not previously been performed in Chicago.

There were a Dezso D'Antalffy transcription of the Bach-Vivaldi D Minor Concerto, the Gardner Read Fantasy for Viola and Orchestra, and Walter Piston's Concertino for Piano and Orchestra. The program's fourth item—Roussel's G Minor Symphony—was not strictly a novelty, for it had been played here before by the Illinois Symphony.

Izler Solomon conducted all of these except the Read Fantasy, which was directed by the composer. Isadore Zverow played the solo viola part in the Read, Joseph Bloch the piano part of the Piston.

Of the novelties, the most interesting by far was the Piston Concertino. It is a work as clean and hard as tempered steel. It has an unsentimental and businesslike efficiency about it, and an incisive way of making its points.

Mr. Bloch's performance was as straightforward and competent as the composer's writing. It was a masterly exposition of the work's rhythmic strength and of its stern contrasts of cold as against colder colors.

Mr. Read's Fantasy had this listener, at least, on the ropes. It offered nothing for the imagination or the ear to seize upon. Whatever importance of idea or logic of development it may possess is not apparent on first hearing.

The transcription of the Bach-Vivaldi concerto adds to the orchestral répertoire another of those lofty 18th century instrumental works which there are no longer any opportunities to hear in their original form. For this reason, as well as for the skill and restraint and dignified sonerity of the transcription, last night's première rated as a fairly important event.

Good Morning!

They do say that Mr. Rex Harrison is SO popular he hasn't had a vacation in years. Well, I agree that he has what it takes—skill, aplomb, personality, and good looks.

The title of this English made production refers to a lapse of memory.

A young man is mysteriously shot one evening as he strolls along a Paris street. . . . When he awakens in a nursing home he gives his name as Robert Stevens, son of Sir James Stevens. . . . So far so good. But—

Sir James is notified, comes to see Robert and doesn't believe a word of his story—as how should he? For Robert insists that he came to his sad predicament via an airplane crash and vows that, for 10 days he has had complete loss of memory.

"CRASH? Why, you were SHOT!" This from papa and police. "YES, maybe. BUT—10 days before I was shot I WAS in an airplane crash. What was I doing those 10 days to make anybody WANT to shoot me?" Silence. If Robert wants to live his own life and not TELL—there doesn't seem much to do about it.

It all just doesn't make sense.

The story swiftly resolves into a spy melodrama and you learn that there is—or was—a certain chauffeur who looks—or looked [?] JUST—LIKE Robert!

AS this chauffeur Robert meets romance and danger and is instrumental in rendering great service to his country.

Here's a good, fast, exciting, button button-er.

Neat twist at the end.

Miss Maxwell on Laughter.

Miss Elsa Maxwell, who was in town over the week-end lunching and dining with friends, visiting the Flower show and hearing Milstein, left for Ann Arbor last night to lecture at the University of Michigan on the Science of Laughter. Miss Maxwell gets pretty scientific about it, too, goes back to Aristophanes and The Frogs in particular, discusses Bergson [Le Rire], touches on the various aspects of laughter and its curative power. Then the audience will have a chance to laugh, for a short, Riding Into Society, Miss Maxwell recently made in Hollywood, will be shown. The president of the university had heard about the film, and asked if Miss Maxwell would bring it to Ann Arbor. The film, which she says is made from a true episode that happened when she was invited to visit at the home of a British M. F. H., was shown privately at a Chicago home Saturday evening, and guests are reported to have rolled on the floor with laughter, among them Milstein and Piatagorsky.

Urban Album.

Helen Hayes, in beige wool and a pompadour hat, in town for a broadcast. . . . A bootblack checking the box holding his polish, rags and brushes and going into Fantasia. . . . Nelson Eddy wearing goggles, unrecognized by the crowds eddying about the public library. . . . John Buckmaster, son of famed English beauty, and actress Gladys Cooper [Mrs. Philip Merivale] strolling up the avenue. . . . The girls selling flowers at the Flower show wearing little round baskets of flowers for hats. . . . The giant tub of rhododendrons in an avenue hat shop window. . . . Chinese girl with peach-blossom complexion wearing native costume at the Ruth Page-Bentley Stone ballet performance. . . . An East Indian, a turban swathed about his head, standing on a street corner watching the downtown traffic. Which brings to mind the gag on the Jack Benny program—the fellow who unwrapped a sheet from his head. He slept like top, he explained. . . . Woman at bookstore asking for "Delilah and the Slave Girl." . . . And another asking for the best seller, "Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey." All right, she meant Mr. and Mrs. Cugat.

Harmonica Player Larry Adler appears at the Roxy theater in New York this week where the Jimmy Roosevelt production, Pot o' Gold, is opening.

"Isn't it ironic," the theater manager told him, "that of all pictures you go in with one in which Jimmy Stewart plays a harmonica solo!"

"It is more ironic than you think," answered Adler. "The playing is actually done by my brother."

Convalescent Needs Daybed; Can You Help?

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

[Activities of the Sally Joy Brown department are sponsored by Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc.]

Can some reader supply a daybed or studio couch for Mrs. A.?

Her husband, 69 years old, has just been released from the hospital after a lengthy and serious illness.

This elderly couple can only afford one room. Mr. A. is confined to bed much of the time.

Another request for household furniture has come from the mother of five small children, the eldest of whom is 11 years old. Mrs. J. is on relief, but the agency is unable to provide anything but food and rent money. Because of the children, this mother has moved into unfurnished quarters which she has tried to equip, but because of her limited resources, she still needs a 9x12 rug, two dressers and a junior bed for one of the children.

SYNOPSIS.

Don Barron, American newspaperman, is sent to Germany to rescue Paul Darmal, financier and opponent of the Nazis. Dodging Nazi secret service men, he meets Twysden, local agent in charge of the rescue, and Darmal's step-daughter, Hertha, and his granddaughter, Sigi. Sigi takes them all to Darmal's new refuge, which turns out to be the lodge on the estate of Puttaemus, Nazi official. They escape to Denmark, are surprised to see a great influx of Nazis there and when they spot Schmarz, jackal and rival of Puttaemus, Don begins to suspicion that Sigi has betrayed them. He follows her and is led to a pier warehouse where he is set upon by Nazis and locked in prison. But Sigi smuggles him a note and tools for escape. He jumps from his prison window into water and finds Sigi waiting in a boat. Hertha, Twysden and Darmal have taken the train to Odense and Sigi and Don are to join them. Unable to hire a car, Sigi flirts with a German colonel who takes her and Don to Odense in his private car. Odense is a hubbub of spies, and suspicious persons are marked on their backs with chalk and picked up by the Nazis and thrown into concentration camps. When Don and Sigi join Darmal and party, Darmal wants to go back to Germany and try their escape thru some other country, but Don won't hear of this plan, tho Hertha is in favor of it.

INSTALMENT XXVI.

HERTHA'S SUSPICIONS.

"It's unmistakable that you and your grandfather get on perfectly together." Don smiled at Hertha as he spoke. "He's not so fond of Sigi."

"O, but he is at heart," she said quickly. "Only it's not so easy for the old to make allowances, just as it isn't easy for Sigi to keep out of entanglements."

"Entanglements?" his eyebrows went up.

"Perhaps I shouldn't have said that," she said. "And yet—at a time like this it may be important. Sigi's wildness can lead to real difficulties. She's quite reckless in the way she mixes with the most doubtful people."

"Men?"

"I'm afraid they're mostly men."

"What's her line—glamor parties, youth ganging, politics?"

"The last is the worst," she shuddered. "Such dreadful men. And dangerous. They get a hold over a girl and she's helpless."

She said it with such an accent of terror that he was sure she was thinking of Herr Oberst Puttaemus of the Gestapo.

"What are Sigi's politics?"

"They used to be liberal, like our own. I think she was actually in the German Freedom Movement at one time. But she's changed so, become secretive. And all the people she knows now are Nazis. She's probably only following the fashion that springs out of the enthusiasm for this war. So many girls are like that. But—but, as things are with us, they're not safe people to mix with."

Without actually saying anything, her anxiety carried an implication he could not miss. It told him that in spite of her loyalty she was finding it hard to stifle the suspicion that the constant betrayal of Paul Darmal's hiding place was not unconnected with Sigi's new political leanings.

"It may not be as bad as it looks," he said soothingly. "She may actually be suing her Nazi friends to help your grandfather."

"That's what I tell myself," she said with a pathetic eagerness that showed how little she was convinced. "And it actually makes me more frightened."

"Because she might bungle?"

"For her. If they find her out—they're terrible in their revenge. I can't get out of my mind what Knust said—how they mark any they have the least suspicions of and they disappear."

"That's not likely to happen," he smiled.

"If it did," she said tremulously, "it'd be awful. Sigi's a German citizen—they'd shoot her as a spy."

"But she'll be safe enough. She's with her colonel."

"But it's that that terrifies me most, Don. You heard the reputation Knust gave him. . . . Well, say some one denounced her to him, made him feel that she had been fooling him. He'd show her no mercy."

"My dear, don't let your imagination run away with you like that."

"I know—I know—but I've got such a dreadful foreboding tonight. Dreadful! It seems to be in my very bones—like a premonition. I seem to know that Sigi will be taken, tortured by those brutes—killed."

"My dear, that's sheer nerves."

"I know—but I can't throw it off. I'm terribly frightened, Don."

"But it's reasonless. Who could give her away? Who knows her here?"

"There's that man we saw at Hjammerborg—Otto something; he's here," she said in a choked voice.

"Otto Schmarz!" he cried. "How do you know?"

"I saw him in the street. I was out shopping, just before you came. I saw him in a car with a great brute of a man beside him."

Don Barron's mouth tightened. So Schmarz and his bodyguard had, as they thought, come on here from Klintdrup, possibly to make it his headquarters. If that was so there might be real danger for Sigi. Hertha put it into words.

"If a man like that was suspicious of Sigi's connection with grandfather's escape, he'd stop at nothing."

Don Barron agreed with her. And the swine might very well be. He might link Sigi with his own escape, too. If so, he had only to look in at "The Snow Maiden" to bring about disaster.

Don Barron stood up. "I'll just go along. I might be able to get a warning to Sigi."

Hertha sprang to her feet. She was aghast: "Don! I didn't mean anything like that—you can't!"

"Don't worry, dear," he said, "I, at least, will be perfectly all right."

"No, Don," she beseeched him. "It's bad enough to be thinking of Sigi—but you. I can't bear it."

It was hard to put her off gently, she had her arms about him, she clung so tightly.

"There'll be nothing to think about," he laughed at her. "I shall be perfectly safe. I'm an American citizen, with a perfectly valid passport, and a consul in every town. They just can't do a thing to me."

He had the door open, was on the step. Even then it was hard to get away. She moaned as she held and kissed him before letting him go.

The street was strangely desolate as he walked along it. It was dark. Altho the blackout regulations were not yet fully enforced, it was, more strikingly, empty. No other man seemed walking abroad. He wondered if there were some sort of curfew regulation. Not that he bothered. Sure in his American citizenship, and determined to warn Sigi, he was ready to outface Hitler himself.

At the corners of the streets steel helmets in pairs paced menacingly. At the major crossings there were machine guns, a sentry guarding each, the squad lounging in a nearby doorway. It was too dark to distinguish faces or emotions, but Don Barron felt that he was carefully and grimly scrutinized as he passed. His calling was his strength. It had carried him to, and thru, cities that had been more actively dangerous, so he was able to walk with that unconcern that intimidates underlings.

Towards the center of the town there were more pedestrians. At one point he bumped into a fellow in a dark patch so violently that the man clawed at him to save a fall. He was a sour creature and swore and hectored until Don snapped:

"Well, brother, it's your city, you ought to be able to avoid trouble better than a stranger."

At that and the lameness of Don Barron's Danish, the man rapped: "Who are you? What are you doing here?"

"Just an American citizen bumping into a bad temper," Don Barron said, and altho the man's arm came out to grab him, he stepped off quick-footed into the darkness.

Whether the chap was a Nazi, a Fifth Columnist, or a disgruntled Dane, Barron did not know. He thought it wiser not to stop around to inquire.

He couldn't locate "The Snow Maiden" when he got to the main streets, so marking two unofficial looking passers, he stopped them and inquired the way. They didn't listen. They had the jumps. One said sharply:

"Fool! Do you want us shot? Don't you know three is an illegal gathering?"

"Don't argue, come away," the other said fearfully. "There's a soldier looking at us."

Don Barron went on his way wondering just what kind of protection had been brought to Denmark.

Finally he got the direction from a single walker, but even this fellow was nervous, as tho fearful he were giving away some military secret, or was being trapped by some agent provocateur. When he recalled the cheerful, brotherly, kindly Denmark of old, Don Barron began to feel a little sick.

He found "The Snow Maiden" at last, one of those carefully unpretentious restaurants where even the menus are gilt edged. It had probably been "the place" in Odense to those who know good things. It wasn't now. Its series of charmingly gay rooms were brightly and bleakly blank.

Snowy battalions of tables were set out. Silver glittered, flowers glowed.

The Rt. Rev. Wallace E. Conkling, newly installed Episcopal bishop of Chicago, yesterday opened the noon day Lenten services sponsored each year by the Chicago Church federation and held at the Chicago temple, 33 North Clark street.

Bishop Conkling spoke of people who pass judgment on Christ, pointing specially to Herod and Pilate and the fact that no one escapes the necessity of judgment. By their answers they ultimately judge themselves.

"There are three types of judgment against Christ in our own day," said Bishop Conkling. "There are those who are viciously hostile; those who do not take Christ seriously, and those why try to stall. Our Lord is before us. Then cometh Jesus forth wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe and Pilate said 'Behold the man.' Today it is again for us to answer and up it depends our eternal salvation."

Jealous Wife Should Look to Own Laurels

BY DORIS BLAKE.

[Copyright: 1941: By News Syndicate Co. Inc.]

A wife, "Anonymous," gives a recital of her growing suspicions against her man, to whom she has been married 17 years. There obviously is little concrete evidence to support her suspicions. Her own brother, to whom she confided her doubts gave her a scolding and told her she had the best man in captivity. Brother warned her of what her jealousy may lead to.

But the foolish woman continues to nurse her resentment. She aims her suspicions at a married woman in her husband's employ who is remarkably good looking, the wife confides, for a woman of 40 and the mother of five children.

"Anonymous" minds it when her husband speaks a word in his employés favor. The woman's mate is an invalid. Her devotion to him is grand and her accomplishment in managing her home and the five youngsters earns everyone's admiration.

And there, we gather, is how the germ of jealousy became originally established. One never is jealous of an individual one does not feel may have superior gifts, talents, virtues. When some other woman shows us up as wanting in certain fields, then the green eyed monster begins ogling us with a vengeance.

Think that over, Anonymous Wife. Aren't you jealous of the other woman's capabilities, of the admiration she earns for the way her life is conducted? You mention nothing upon which to base a suspicion against your husband in connection with this woman. So, we'd advise you take your own brother's advice for what it's worth and, instead of worrying about your man, worry about what kind of wife and woman you are yourself.

Conrad Veidt and Valerie Hobson perform brilliantly in a spirited spy drama which is both timely and entertaining. Identities remain cleverly concealed until the last minutes of a picture which is contrived for suspense and skillfully shaded with comedy. The film is called "Blackout" which indicates only the time of the action, war scenes being totally absent. It's more fun if seen from the beginning at 2:22, 4:24, 6:26, 8:28 and 10:30

Drop cookies are easier to make and a greater convenience than any other kind, with the exception of the icebox varieties. And they don't take a cook's skill as much as cake or pie. Youngsters often have gleeful success with simple drop cookies and, thus encouraged, take to the culinary art at an early age.

Cookie jars are so colorful and appealing these days that sometimes they're bought for kitchen decoration even tho the household they make more cheerful isn't in the habit of munching cookies.

My own kitchen is gayer since "granny" came to live in it. Granny is a pottery cooky jar, in the shape of a fat elderly woman with a dustcap on her head and a shy, good-natured, chubby-cheeked smile on her face. Her arms are folded across a capacious bosom. Lift off her head and arms, and there is the cookie jar, the full skirted, aproned, hollow remainder of granny!

Into such a cookie jar, or a much plainer, utilitarian kind, might go drop cookies such as these:

Date-Sour Cream Cookies.

[About 3½ dozen.]
⅓ cup butter or other fat
1 cup sugar [white or brown]
2 eggs
½ teaspoon vanilla
2½ cups flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
¾ teaspoon soda
¼ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon nutmeg
½ cup sour cream
½ cup chopped nuts
½ cup chopped dates

Cream butter and sugar together well. Beat in eggs. Add vanilla. Sift flour with leavenings, salt and nutmeg. Add alternately with sour cream to creamed mixture and beat until well mixed. Add nuts and dates. Chill dough. Drop from a teaspoon onto a greased cookie sheet and bake at 400 degrees about 10 minutes.

Chocolate Black Walnut Drops.

[3½-4 dozen.]
2¼ cups sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon soda
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup butter or margarine
⅔ cup brown sugar, packed firmly
1 egg
2 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted
½ cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ cup black walnuts, chopped

Sift flour with baking powder, soda and salt. Cream fat with brown sugar, add egg, and beat well. Add chocolate. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk, mixing after each addition. Add vanilla and nuts. Drop from a teaspoon onto an ungreased baking sheet and bake at 350 degrees for 10-12 minutes. Frost lightly, while warm, with plain confectioners' sugar icing.

THRU THE LOOKING GLASS

Since not every one of us is blessed with a faultless color sense it's all to the good when experts assemble our makeup items. It saves us from our own mistakes in matching or harmonizing colors and cuts down on such casualties as the combination of orange cheek rouge with blue red lip rouge.

Colorists, working with the manufacturer of cosmetics, are taking this burden off our shoulders. And they're doing an excellent job. Witness, for example, the latest offering in the makeup ensemble, which gives you face powder, rouge, and lipstick, all deftly tucked in one face powder box, all perfectly harmonized, and so inexpensive it makes you wonder how they did it!

This one is a peach. The shade of the face powder, which you'll choose of course to match your own skin tone, is the shade to which the rouge and the lipstick are harmonized. It's a perfectly sound idea and it works.

The face powder itself is a wonderfully good one, in beautiful, wearable shades. It comes, in this ensemble version, in a box with an extra top. Set in this top, beneath the outer lid of the box, is a container of rouge in a shade that is bound to be right for you, since the powder shade is right for your skin tone. Set next the rouge is a little lipstick; this, too, is in a shade that's bound to do the right things for your coloring, since it is cleverly and correctly arrived at by working with the powder tint! The lipstick is a good one, too.

You'd experiment a long time before you arrived at a combination so perfect—and the experimenting would be costly. This eliminates the margin for error, does away with the nuisance of experimenting and saves you a good bit of money. What more could you ask.

Indispensable Tailored Frock

WOMAN'S AND MISS' DRESS.

A tailored dress such as this one will be indispensable during the long summer season and for a belated southern vacation right now. Make it of printed or plain cotton, linen, or one of the washable synthetics. It's a plain frock which will launder easily. If you'd rather have it as a spring model, use silk crêpe or sheer woolen.

Style No. 2870 is designed for sizes 14 and 16, and 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, and 48 inch bust measurements.

Address orders for Clotilde patterns to Chicago Tribune, P. O. Box 537, Grand Central annex, NEW YORK CITY, including 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred—wrap it carefully) for each pattern ordered. IMPORTANT! Be sure to state clearly the number of the pattern and the size desired and write your name and address plainly.

Looking at Hollywood

By John Chapman

Hollywood, Cal., March 31.—Metro has had writers working for a year on a new "Thin Man" picture—and they haven't got a plot yet! . . . A minority critic, reporting that he didn't care for the Capra picture, says, "Frank has been shooting does out of season." . . . Preston Foster, Eugene Pallette, and others at Gregory La Cava's party at Chasen's the other night were discussing the habit actors have of maneuvering to get their "good" sides toward the camera. Snorted La Cava: "The only side that photographs is the outside." . . . One of the most common studio tricks is foreshortening—creating an illusion of depth by using backdrops of less than normal size. Thus, a row of houses "across the street" from the scene of action will be painted on a two-thirds scale and, properly hung before the camera, will look perfectly real. The other day one of the studios carried this trick a step further. Needing some action in a foreshortened background, it employed midgets.

The Warners, biographers of Dr. Ehrlich, Reuter, Zola, and other solemn figures, now have a couple of subjects who are naturals—George M. Cohan and the late George Gershwin. Excellent is the choice—Cohan's own choice—of Jim Cagney to play George M. Jim, one-time chorus boy and a good hoofer, has the cockiness and the punch necessary and he sings all right. Production won't start until fall, for the reasons: the Cagneys will have their usual long holiday—this time with their newly adopted son—and Robert Buckner, who has been assigned to do the screenplay, is a slow and careful workman. A suggestion to Buckner: He should somehow work into his story the colorful character of Charles Washburn, Cohan's press agent.

Casting of the Gershwin rôle is not so simple and happy a job as the Cohan-Cagney affair. Who can look as jaunty and well tailored as George did when he conducted the orchestra for the first night of one of his shows on Broadway? John Garfield would give his right arm for the rôle, but the studio hasn't made up its mind yet.

* * *

Eugene Pallette told me the other night that he's going to quit after one or two more pictures—and if he means it, Hollywood will lose one of its best character comedians, one of its best story tellers, and its oldest active veteran. Gene has been in the movies since 1910. Alan Hale, who ranks next to him in length of service and number of pictures played, didn't get here until 1914. Pallette's current assignment is the rôle of a butler in Gregory La Cava's "Unfinished Business"—a character modeled after a wise-cracking, snifter-hooking manservant Greg had at his Malibu Beach home last summer. Gene isn't quitting the movies because he's tired of them or because he feels old. He's quitting because he wants to hunt and fish on his immense ranch—it's 12 miles long—in Oregon. He's a lusty 52, and has done everything in the show business from acrobatics and trick riding on up, and now he's going to stop work and play.

Three Children Tell Meaning of Democracy

Three school children—one a colored girl, one a boy of Italian descent, and another whose parents have been Americans since the revolutionary war — told what they thought democracy means yesterday in the Morrison hotel.

Seven hundred boys and girls from 125 Cook county rural school districts heard them during the 27th annual convention of Cook County Achievement clubs. Noble J. Puffer, Cook county superintendent of schools, presided. Members of the clubs pass their leisure time in sewing, cooking, and farm projects. Some go hunting before school hours. Most of them have farm chores to do along with their lessons.

"I think of democracy as I walk across the fields and thru the woods at dawn," reported Donald Hensley, 14 years old, of Catts Corner school, Chicago Heights, whose Achievement club activity is trapping. Donald's recent report boasts 40 muskrats, three mink, and one skunk.

In his talk he said, "I think of my people who trapped as I do, shouldered a gun as I do. My great-grandfather handed down a heritage to me. Now my father faces a decision. Is the world so complex that we cannot govern ourselves?" Donald asked.

* * *

The seventh grade girl, Haroldine Johnson, 11 years old, colored, of Coolidge school, Phoenix, Ill., said, "Democracy is the beginning of life for my people. A life that has truly just begun.

"My grandparents," she told her schoolmates, "were slaves on a great plantation. At the age of 10 my grandmother went to work in the bakery of the plantation. Her life was laid out for her.

"What if she had a good master?" Haroldine asked. "There were no Dr. Carvers, no Booker T. Washingtons, no Marion Andersons under that type of kindness. Only under freedom could they reach the stars."

* * *

Lawrence Petta, 12 years old, of Calumet school, Blue Island, spoke with emotion. He told of his father, who "came like the rest with a few belongings forlorn and alone in a ship destined for a new land. He came believing in the ideals of America."

Lawrence's father volunteered for army service in the world war. The boy told his schoolmates, "We must remember the important things about democracy. 'Today the people of my father's former country have had to accept the leadership of a man who promises them food and work in exchange for their right to dream, hope, and plan as free men."

The three children were selected to speak at the convention because of the difference in their backgrounds.

'The Eternal Gift' Given Premiere at Civic Opera House

The Civic Opera house was crowded last night for the première of "The Eternal Gift," first sound motion picture of a Catholic high mass. The production was prepared under the direction of Servite fathers in charge of the perpetual novena at Our Lady of Sorrows church, Jackson boulevard and Albany avenue.

The Rev. James R. Keane, O. S. M., of Portland, Ore., founder of the perpetual novena and until recently its national director, held the chief rôle as the celebrant of the mass. The second rôle, that of deacon of the mass, was the Rev. Hugh Calkins, O. S. M., successor of Father Keane as the novena director. Narrator for the spiritual drama was the Rev. Dr. Fulton J. Sheen of Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C.

Archbishop Samuel A. Stritch of the archdiocese of Chicago approved the production.

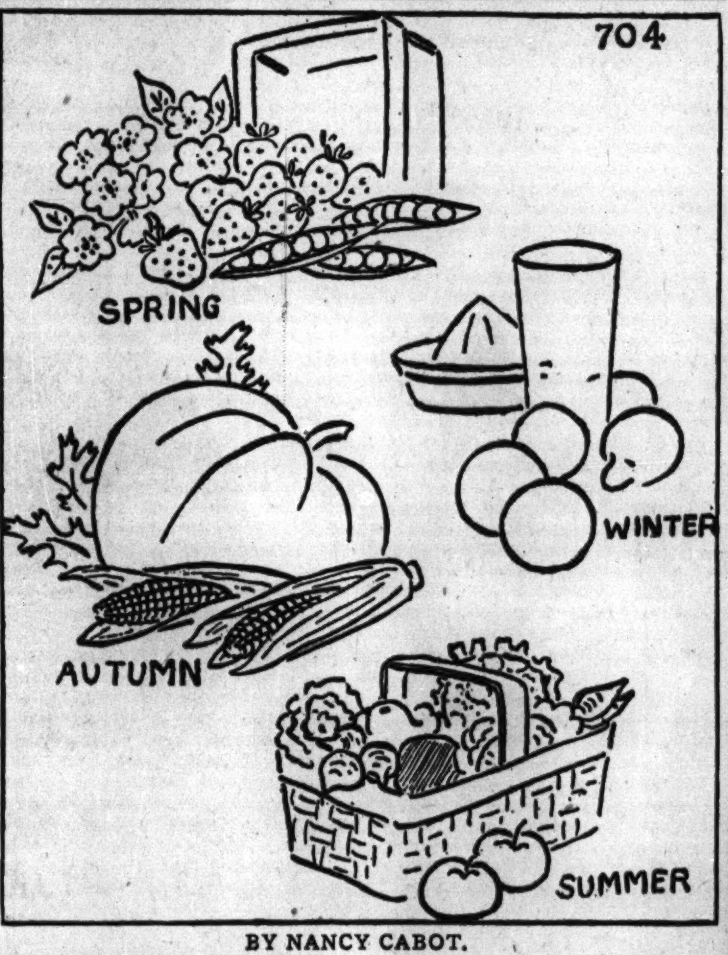
Pattern of "Four Seasons"



BY NANCY CABOT.

You may have the four seasons on display in your kitchen at one time, regardless of the weather. Fruits and vegetables, in their natural colors, are available for towels, curtains, pot holders or what-you-will. The motifs measure about 6x8 inches each, and there are four designs included in the transfer pattern. Detailed instructions and color suggestions accompany the design.

For the hot iron transfer pattern of the four seasons motifs, No. 704, send 10 cents in stamps or coin to the Needlework Bureau, Chicago Tribune, 220 5th avenue, New York City.

20,000 Students Get Aid from NYA in Schools of Illinois

Part-time employment after school hours is being provided by the National Youth administration to more than 20,000 needy students in 950 high schools and nearly 7,000 students in 80 colleges thruout the state.

According to a report issued yesterday by Mary Stuart Anderson, state NYA administrator, 7,650 Chicago high school students and 2,599 college students are included in the number aided. High school students receive a minimum of $3 or a maximum of $6 monthly. College students earn from $10 to $20 monthly, while graduate students receive from $10 to $30.

Despite their NYA work the scholastic average of students helped has been better than average, according to Miss Anderson.

Ruth Johnson Picks April 19 for Marriage

night to celebrate the birthday of Mrs. Douglas' mother, Mrs. William E. Clow, and of Mrs. Douglas' brother, Kent S. Clow, whose anniversary it will be. William E. Clow Jr.'s birthday falls on Saturday.

George T. Senseney, Hamilton Vose, John Root, Andrew Rebori, and Walter Frazier are to have the difficult task today of picking the winners in the finals of an amateur models contest at the Key club. During luncheon Mrs. Paul Poole, Mrs. Nathaniel Duval, Miss Virginia Ballard, Miss Byrd Littlefield, Miss Althea Cunningham, Miss Nadine Kinney, and Miss Patricia Floto will display new spring costumes as the board of judges eye them [the mannequins] critically to decide which is the most expert at showing off clothes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Franklin Church [Josephine Marks] are being congratulated on the birth of their second son last Wednesday at the St. Francis hospital. The baby will be going home to Northbrook this week to join his 5 year old brother, John Jr.

Mrs. Malcolm D. Vail and Daughter Home from Cruise.

Now that she and her mother, Mrs. Malcolm D. Vail, have returned home from a Caribbean cruise, Miss Katherine Vail will turn her attention to plans for her marriage to Raynor F. Sturgis Jr. The Vails arrived in Highland Park last week-end after a month's trip to Central America. The wedding will take place this spring or summer.

The Gardner Browns [Elizabeth Smith] have named their daughter, born last Friday, Emily Leslie after Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. Harold C. Smith, and her family. The baby, a granddaughter of the William B. Browns, and her mother are at St. Luke's.

On Friday at the same hospital Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kelley [Hortense Henry] became the parents of their first son. The baby, a grandson of the Huntington B. Henrys, has two sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis James Stirling [Beverly Paulman] are being congratulated on the birth of a son, James Paulman, on Sunday at the Evanston hospital. The baby has a sister, Gay, who is 4 years old.

The junior Richard Merrick Hustons [Grace Helen Wilday] have named their son, born March 22 at Grant hospital, Richard Loren after his father and great-grandfather.

The Heath Bowmans have gone to Mexico by motor to join Stirling Dickinson in San Miguel Allende in the house Mr. Dickinson and Mr. Bowman purchased four years ago and which Mr. Dickinson now uses as the studio for his Escuela de Bellas Artes.

Music Note

The Men's Glee club of Wooster college, Wooster, O., will present a concert of secular music in Drexel Park Presbyterian church, 64th street and Marshfield avenue, tonight at 8 o'clock. The director is William C. DeVeny.

HAMILTON APPOINTED ILLINOIS RACE STEWARD

DODGERS WIN, 6-5, AS A ROOKIE TAMES TIGERS

Chester, 19, Fans Greenberg, York.

Lakeland, Fla., March 31, [Special].—Young Chester Kehn, whose name didn't even appear on the score card, tamed Detroit's Tigers here today to give the Brooklyn Dodger second stringers a 6 to 5 triumph over the American league champions' first stringers.

The crowd of 630 thought Brooklyn was using its bat boy when the 19 year old Dodger farmhand ventured to the mound in the seventh inning.

The first batter to face him, big Hank Greeberg, struck out. Rudy York scowled as he strode up to the plate next, only to blanch at "strike three, you're out," less than a minute later. Kehn fanned Sullivan and Higgins in the next two innings, blanking the vaunted Bengals to the amazing end.

Win Series, 4 to 2.

As the last strike zoomed in Herman Franks' mitt the sub-Dodgers danced for joy. They had been hoping for this victory, as it gave them a 4 to 2 edge over the American league titlists in the series concluded today. In the clubhouse there was positive cockiness mingled with their ecstasy.

By strict ruling Kehn was not the winning pitcher. A minute before he shuffled to the hill Joe Gallagher's wind blown fly cleared the low left field fence, 350 feet away, for what proved to be the winning run. Thus Luke Hamlin was credited with the decision, tho the Tiger castoff yielded nine hits and all five runs in his six inning stay.

Hutchinson Is the Goat.

Gallagher, in the lineup only because the Tigers started lefty Hal Newhouser, added a single to his homer and scored three runs. Dixie Walker also bashed two of Brooklyn's seven hits and scored two runs.

Freddie Hutchinson was charged with the defeat, despite a great performance. Coming to the mound in the sixth he fanned Franks, Hamlin, and Hudson in order. The he led off the latter half with a double that sparked the tying run rally.

General Manager Jack Zeller of the Tigers has conferred the last two days with Manager Del Baker on the fate of eight pitchers, one catcher, three infielders, and three outfielders. The Tigers meet Louisville today in what may be some rookies' last chance to impress the bosses. Score:

Brooklyn [N.]....... 300 020 100—6 7 3
Detroit [A.]......... 000 113 000—5 12 1

Batteries—Hamlin, Kehn and Franks; Newhouser, Hutchinson, Smith and Tebbetts.

INDIANS, 5; GIANTS, 4.

Valdosta, Ga., March 31 (AP).—The Cleveland Indians pulled up even with the New York Giants in their eight-year spring rivalry today when they pounded Rookie Ace Adams in the late innings for a 5 to 4 victory over the Giants. Since they started traveling north together in 1934, each team has won 44 games.

Bump Hadley and Al Milnar waged an even mound duel for seven innings and left with the score 2 to 2. The Tribe went ahead in the eighth when singles by Gene Desautels and Murray Howell and a walk to Gilly Campbell filled the bases. Ken Keltner's fly scored Desautels and Howell came home when Adams cut off a throw to second on an attempted double steal and fumbled for an error. Oscar Grimes' double, with a sacrifice and a fly, got Cleveland's winning run in the ninth. The Giants' rally in that inning fell a run short. Score:

Cleveland [A.]........001 100 021—5 9 2
New York [N.].......000 000 202—4 6 2

Batteries—Milnar, Adkins and Hemsley; Hadley, Adams and O'Dea.

REDS' RALLY BEATS PHILS.

Miami, Beach, Fla., March 31 (AP).—Cincinnati pushed over two runs in the late innings today to break a tie and beat the Phillies, 6 to 4.

In the eighth inning Rookie Pitcher Dale Jones forced in a Cincinnati run by walking Jim Gleeson with the bases full. In the ninth the Reds

Bruins Seek to Prolong Hockey Series Tonight

TORONTO, Ont., March 31 (AP).—The Boston hockey Bruins pitched camp here today for the sixth game of the Stanley cup semi-finals against the Toronto Maple Leafs tomorrow night.

Down, two games to three, in the best-of-seven series, the Bruins were a grim lot as they went into session to map out battle plans.

The Leafs, who have beaten the Bruins three times in five play-off games, twice in the Boston Garden, where the Bruins were well nigh invincible during the regular season, have been installed 5-8 favorites to wind up the series with tomorrow night's game.

Bingo Kampman, Toronto's ace defense man, who has been out of action during the series with an injured ankle, tested it today but had to withdraw after a brief skating workout. Coach Happy Day reported the other first stringers in top shape.

New Illinois Boxing Officials Take Over

New Members of Fight Board Assume Duties

The first new Illinois boxing commission in eight years took office yesterday when Chairman Sheldon Clark, the only holdover member, inducted his associates, Commissioners Harry R. Scranton of Peoria, and Maj. Gen. Roy D. Keehn, and Secretary Jack Elder. Joe Triner and Barney Ross, retiring chairman and secretary, respectively, attended the ceremony.

After the oath was administered Chairman Clark praised Triner for his services as head of the board and promised him the commission would coöperate 100 per cent with the National Boxing association, of which Triner is president.

Supervises Contract Signing.

The commission's first official act was to supervise signing of new contracts by Billy Conn, heavyweight challenger, who meets Joe Louis in June, and Gunnar Barlund in Chicago Stadium Friday. Thru a mixup, Promoter Bill Rand had signed Conn for 15 rounds and Barlund for 10. After considerable wrangling by Johnny Ray, manager of Conn, and Paul Damski, representative of Barlund, a compromise was reached at 12 rounds.

Conn will get 35 per cent of the net gate receipts and Barlund, 15 per cent. The promoter also submitted contracts signed by principals in four supporting matches, one each at ten, eight, six, and four rounds. These contests and what the contestants will receive follow:

Altus Allen, $750, vs. Booker Beckwith, $300 [10], heavyweights.
Nick Castiglione, $500, vs. Tommy Spiegal, $400 [8], 140.
Settimo Terracina, $150, vs. Johnny Colan, $150 [6], 171.
Johnny Cregan, $75, vs. Mike Sopko, $60 [4], 146.

Conn, Barlund Work Out.

Immediately after the signing party at the commission, Conn and Barlund went to Trafton's gymnasium for workouts there, the former to continue drills by sparring several rounds against Henry Wacker, Eddie Camp, and Settimo Terracina, and Barlund to return to workouts after a 24 hour layoff by boxing with Mike Edwards and Allen.

The commissioners will decide Friday whether Bill Rand or Irving Schoenwald will be given the next date for a major show. Schoenwald is asking April 21 to conduct a card in the Coliseum and Rand is seeking April 16 on which to present a program in the Stadium. Rand has a match signed—Davey Day and Quentin [Babe] Breese—whereas Schoenwald still is negotiating for a contest. Schoenwald has agreed to relinquish his option if unable to obtain a suitable headliner by Friday.

Illini Defeat L. S. U., 7 to 2, in Season Opener

Baton Rouge, La., March 31 [Special].—The university of Illinois baseball team opened its spring training season today with a 7 to 2 victory over Louisiana State university. Capt. Alan Grant held L. S. U. without a hit or run for five innings. Sophomore Chuck Campbell of Armstrong finished on a yield of four hits.

Two football players, Lavere Astroth of Wood River, and Paul Milosevich of Ziegler drove in five of the Illinois runs. Astroth hit safely four times, including a triple. Milosevich had a double and a triple. L. S. U. previously had beaten Minnesota twice. Score:

Illinois ....200 030 200—7 11 3
L. S. U. ....000 001 001—2 4 2

Batteries—Grant, Campbell and Brewer; Broussard, Taylor and McDowell.

BULLDOG HARRIS WINS DECISION OVER BOLDEN

Ossie [Bulldog] Harris, aggressive, hard fighting middleweight from Pittsburgh, defeated Nate Bolden, 1937 Intercity Golden Gloves winner, in a 10 round bout in Marigold Gardens last night. It was Bolden's first defeat in seven contests.

Harris held an edge until the fifth, when he was outscored in close quarters. In the ninth and tenth, however, Harris beat Bolden at the same game. Referee Johnny Behr didn't have to go between the boxers at any time. Harris weighed 156¼ pounds, four and a quarter less than Bolden.

Frank McBride, south side 165 pound counter puncher, scored a hard earned victory over Bob Berry of Cleveland in an eight round semi-windup. Johnny Trotter, light heavyweight and Frank Jamison and George Feltes, middleweight, registered victories in matches of four rounds. Trotter beat Al Reiss of Detroit, Jamison conquered Jimmy Pierce of Milwaukee, and Feltes defeated Bob Berger of Chicago.

Paul Runyan Injured in Automobile Accident

Greenville, S. C., March 31 (AP).—Paul Runyan of White Plains, N. Y., two times former P. G. A. champion, was injured in an automobile accident near here today and his physician said tonight it was doubtful if he could play in the Masters Golf tournament starting in Augusta, Ga., Thursday. Runyan suffered a shoulder contusion.

Fight Decisions

LAST NIGHT'S RESULTS.

At Washington, D. C.—Louis [Kid] Cocoa beat Andre Jessurun [10]; Jabe Kenner knocked out Larry Bochard [2].

Dade, Brown Win Bouts in AAU Boxing

Boston, Mass., March 31 (AP).—Two of Chicago's Golden Glove champions, Harold Dade and George Horne, won their matches as a field of 146 boxers from 26 states began competition in the National AAU tournament tonight.

Dade easily disposed of Cassell Tate of Memphis and Horne, whose home is in Cleveland, outpointed Clark Miller of Denver. Dade and Horne are flyweights and welterweights, respectively.

Ray Brown Wins.

Ray Brown and Robert Satterfield, members of Chicago's Intercity Golden Gloves team, also advanced. Brown beat Charles Jackson of Kansas City in a bantamweight engagement and Satterfield scored a two round knockout over Nick Latsios of Washington, D. C., in the welterweight class.

Vance Basler of Iowa City, another Golden Gloves fighter, advanced at the expense of Roy Richardson of Albany in the middleweight division.

Allen Aubrey of Cleveland, Chicago's Golden Gloves heavyweight champion, beat Gene Robertson of Salt Lake City, and another Chicago Golden Glover, Al Jordan of Kansas City, a member of the intercity squad, beat Al Reed of New York.

1940 Runner-Up Advances.

None of the eight AAU champions of last year is defending his title. Tommy Moyer of Portland, Ore., who was a runner-up last season, scored a decision over Jerry Flemia of Cleveland.

Operating at the rate of a knockout per hour Charlie Riley, wiry 118 pound Negro from St. Louis, made an impressive bid for a title today as the tournament opened in the Boston Garden. Riley, edged out of the competition in that same class last year, gained the quarter-finals with a pair of knockouts.

His first victim was Alexander Fazzone of Schenectady, N. Y., who was belted out late in the second round. An hour later Riley again went into action and stopped Ascension Gonzales of Lincoln, Neb., in the first round by pummeling Gonzales' head with a left.

Riley appeared well on his way toward the 118 pound title, for his 1940 conqueror, Bat Cullison of Coffeyville, Kas., has outgrown the bantamweight class.

Due to the luck of the draw Eddie Dames, also of St. Louis, was forced to battle twice in less than two hours, but he weakened in his second start and was outpointed by Frank Gerrard, a 112 pounder from Toledo. Dames had launched his bid by outpointing Leroy Jackson of Cleveland in impressive style.

DYKES' WRATH, CUBS' BATS ARE POISED OVER SOX

Lackadaisical Players Will Encounter Both Today.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Pasadena, Cal., March 31.—The rains came back today and among those not disappointed by the mild deluge was the White Sox squad, here for training purposes but nevertheless willing to accept a 24 hour vacation before starting toward home two days hence on the Uncle Tom's cabin circuit. The rains not only let the fellows have some leisure but also relieved them of a bus ride to Ontario, Cal., for an exhibition with the Los Angeles club.

The pleasure over the pause in the work program even extended to Manager James Dykes who, altho very, very mad at some of his charges, isn't so mad that he couldn't appreciate that a bit of rest would do no harm. Besides that, the rainy interval gave the manager some extra time in which to consult himself about possible improvements in the club house speech he is going to deliver at Hollywood tomorrow just before the Sox resume contact with the Cubs. Dykes was still bragging today about how he is going to surprise the indolent members of his troupe, and the indolents, having learned by the grape vine that the boss was going to pop off, were wearing a worried look.

Wants More Hustling.

Prof. Dykes is peeved about various things. He knows there have been violations here and there of the midnight curfew law but he never regards such offenses as serious unless they become chronic. He'll detail these transgressions tomorrow, but only for the purpose of letting his athletes know that he hasn't been fooled. His real peeve is lack of interest and hustle. He was easy on the boys for quite a stretch because of the flu epidemic, but now intends to ask the ex-patients if they think they are going to spend the remainder of the year convalescing.

Dykes has two reasons for withholding his blast until tomorrow. The blast, he hopes, will be so terrific that his lads will be aroused into such fury that they'll cut loose and slap the daylights out of the Cubs and thus even up for a couple of recent beatings dealt out by the latter. The other reason is that he thought that by tomorrow he'd have all his men in the clubhouse audience, but he may be disappointed. John Rigney, the current flu victim, was still groggy today, so may miss the party and thus avoid possible embarrassment because the Rigney name may be mentioned.

Smith and Lee to Pitch.

Eddie Smith and Thornton Lee, the left handed pair, will do the pitching against the Cubs tomorrow, but just how they are going to feel after having their ears burned by the Dykes oratory can't even be guessed at. Both attained swell condition in the early days of training and then joined the flu contingent. They've had ample time—at least that is what Dykes thinks—to recover their skill, but they haven't shown anything on the mound. They'll hear all about this just before going to work tomorrow.

Altho Dario Lodigiani has been about the busiest of all the men in the Dykes command, his stay on third base will be terminated within a few days. Dykes wants to give Bob Kennedy another crack at the position and probably will open the season with the latter playing the far corner, but to remain there Kennedy will have to hit as well as field. In the event he falls down on either he will have to climb back on the bench.

A Wish.

I wish I might reserve a place
Upon a robin's wing,
To fly wherever he might go
And have my springtime fling.

At night to stay upon a bough
Beneath a leafy spread,
And nestle cosily within
His tree top feather bed.

To join his offering of song,
And be a part of dawn,
To wash in nature's reservoir
In dew from flowers drawn.

To soar all day thru dreamy clouds
In lovely skies of blue,
And then before the close of day
To fly back home to you!

BOARD SELECTS SUCCESSOR TO C. J. FITZGERALD

Begins Job April 26 at Sportsman's.

BY HOWARD BARRY.

William Hamilton, veteran turf official, yesterday was appointed steward representing the Illinois Racing commission at all Chicago area tracks. Hamilton, who is now at Keeneland, will take over his new duties with the opening of the Chicago season at Sportsman's Park on April 26. He will succeed Christopher J. FitzGerald, who had held the position since the establishment of the commission in 1934.

William Hamilton.

Hamilton, who acquired prominence as one of the most capable starters in the game, has been serving as a steward at a number of tracks in more recent years. He was in the steward's stand at Washington Park last year, but his new job as representative of the commission will carry an added responsibility.

Veteran Derby Starter.

Hamilton has been starter of the Kentucky Derby for many years. He began his career on the race track under A. B. Dade in 1914 at New Orleans. After Dade's death, he took over the starting duties at Jefferson Park in 1923. He was steward of the Arkansas Racing commission in 1939.

Horsemen are agreed that Hamilton is well suited for the duties of a racing commission steward. He has acquired a wide acquaintance on the turf. Moreover, he knows just what to expect out of riders and horses. In the starting of unwieldy fields before the days of the stall gates, he showed coolness and excellent judgment. The riders had confidence in him and knew that he would treat them fairly despite the fact that he was up to all of their tricks.

This familiarity with the jockeys and their capabilities is expected to stand Hamilton in good stead when he is called upon to pass judgment where disqualifications involving large sums of money in purses and betting pools are involved.

Job Pays $100 a Day.

Chicago race fans have become acquainted with Hamilton while he has been sending the fields away at Lincoln Fields and Hawthorne. Many followers of the sport have remarked that when their horse draws a good post position he'll actually break from that spot if Hamilton is in charge because Bill almost never sends a horse to the extreme outside for unruliness. He works with him until the horse gives up and goes into the gate.

It had been reported earlier in the week that Lincoln Plaut of the Daily Racing Form would be the commission steward. The place had been offered to him and he had intended to accept it, but after going to New York for a conference with his present employers he decided to retain his place as supervisor of all Racing Form trackmen thruout the country.

The job of steward representing the racing commission pays a salary of $100 per day. This sum is put up not by the state but by the track. The remuneration is set at that high figure to make it possible to secure the best men in the racing game for this highly responsible job which requires such special talents.

Princeton's Invitation Track Meet Called Off

Princeton, N. J., March 31 [Special].—The Princeton invitational track meet, 6 year old outdoor track event, will not be held this year, Dean Christian Gauss, chairman of the Princeton university council on athletics, announced today. Dean Gauss' statement gave no reason for discontinuing the meet, but said it was thought proper not to hold the meet at least for the duration of this critical period.

ILLINI DEFEATS NOT LIKELY TO WORRY TRUSTEES

Board Will Get Alumni Protest Today.

The lack of victories by University of Illinois football and track teams in recent years will be called to the attention of the university's board of trustees today in the form of a protest by alumni of the St. Louis area. But the trustees probably will be so busy discussing the university's budget that the demands for an explanation of athletic defeats probably won't get much consideration. This was the opinion expressed last night by James M. Cleary of Chicago, president of the board of trustees.

"I feel that the conduct of intercollegiate sports at the university is under capable administration by the board of athletic control. Four of its seven members are former Illinois football stars, and they are among the most rabid of fans. I am confident that the trustees will leave the matter in their hands," said Cleary in commenting upon the petition originating in St. Louis.

Asks Contracts Be Withheld.

Alumni of southwestern Illinois and Missouri circulated the petition several weeks ago and drafted a resolution demanding that 1941-'42 contracts of university coaches, in all sports, be withheld pending an investigation of the football and track situation.

Cleary said the resolution may not even come up for consideration at today's monthly meeting in the Blackstone hotel. He intimated that if any investigation is forthcoming it will be made by the athletic board.

Olander Is Chairman.

Milton Olander of Toledo, O., former assistant to Robert C. Zuppke, Illini football coach, is chairman of the athletic board. Wendell S. Wilson, the university's director of athletics, is an exofficio member. Two other former Illinois football players, Harry A. Hall of Waukegan and Zack Hickman of Chicago, also are members.

Copies of the St. Louis resolution have been in the hands of the trustees for nearly a month. Arthur Cutts Willard of Urbana, president of the university, has been furnished a copy. Other copies and records of the football and track teams were sent in pamphlet form to other alumni clubs thruout the nation, asking their support.

Detrimental to Morale.

"The record of the University of Illinois football teams during the last 12 years, and of the track teams," the resolution states, "is in our opinion far below the standard representative of American institutions the size and caliber of the university."

Deploring the condition as "detrimental to the morale of the student body and alumni," it asks the trustees to determine responsibility for this record with "a view toward making such corrections as are necessary to reëstablish athletic prestige." Then it asked that the coaches' contracts be held in abeyance pending such investigation.

The resolution is signed by Arthur C. Humphrey, class of 1923, president of the St. Louis Illini club, and by Francis W. Ittner, '26; Edgar G. Brands, '11; John Rabenau, '21; C. K. Rowland, '09; S. J. McGath, '05; Allan N. Zachar, '06; Oscar C. Detering, '15; Charles L. Waugh, '25; Charles H. Nichols, '21; J. F. Bredehoeft, '32; Marge W. Waugh, '23, and Cyrus Crane Willmore, '11, directors. Brands, secretary of the club, is editor of the Sporting News, baseball weekly.

NORTHWESTERN FENCERS RETURN WITH BIG TROPHY

The Northwestern fencing team, which won the national collegiate title Saturday night in Columbus, O., returned yesterday and presented the huge three foot high Yale cup, emblematic of its title, to the Wildcat athletic department for exhibition in the trophy room. Members of the championship team are:

FOILS—Capt. Edward McNamara, who won the foils title, and Erwin Wilson.
SABRE — Bill Hoffman, who finished fourth, and Donald Melby.
EPEE—Leonard Smith, who finished fourth, and Arthur Hutchinson.

Northwestern won the nationals with 28½ points, Illinois being second with 27, and Yale and Rutgers tied for third with 26.

FOUR WINDY CITY FIVES MEET IN LEAGUE PLAY-OFF

The Windy City Basketball league will open its second round playoffs tonight in St. Philip gym, Jackson boulevard and Kedzie avenue. The first place team in the American division will meet the second place team of the National division, and the National first place quintet will oppose the American second place team. The Palmer House team, first half playoffs winner, will meet the BBYO All-Stars in an exhibition game.

Tonight's winners will meet tomorrow night to determine the opponent for the Palmer House Panthers, first half winners, in the championship series opening Thursday night.

ENTRIES CLOSE TODAY FOR AAU HANDBALL MEET

Entries will close today for the 1941 National AAU handball meet which opens in the Lake Shore club Monday. Advance entries reported by Harry L. Ackerman, tourney chairman, indicate a field of 100 top-ranking U. S. players, with more than a score expected from the Chicago area.

Arthur M. Wehrmann, national AAU handball chairman, arrived from New York yesterday to preside at the tournament meeting today when finals plans will be made. First round matches are scheduled for Monday and the championship finals for April 12.

BOWIE OPENS 11 DAY MEET WITH 8 RACES TODAY

Air Brigade Is Favorite in Feature.

Baltimore, Md., March 31 (AP).—Bowie's 11 day spring race meeting opens tomorrow, signaling the return of racing to the east.

For the first time, Bowie will offer eight races a day, instead of seven, and Joseph A. Farrell, general manager, predicted that this, together with improved economic conditions, would boost the mutuel handle.

2,000 Horses on Hand.

The average daily handle at last year's spring meeting was $278,000. The association is hoping the average this meeting will reach $325,000.

With 2,000 horses on hand, there was a gratifying response to the call for entries for the opening card. Altogether, 112 horses were entered overnight for tomorrow's races. The forecast is for clear weather and a fast track.

The $1,200 Bel Air, a 5½ furlong allowance event for 3 year olds, is listed as tomorrow's feature. It drew nine entries.

Air Brigade Is Favorite.

Early favorite in the Bel Air was Air Brigade, a winner in Florida. Clarksville, Rough Man, Cape Cod, and Don Orlan appeared the best of the others entered.

The minimum purse at Bowie's meeting is $1,200. Four stakes will be offered, the first the $5,000 added Rowe memorial on Wednesday. A total of $119,200 in purses will be distributed during the meeting.

Alter Rule on Eligibility of College Boxers

State College, Pa., March 31 (AP).—College boxing officials announced liberalization of the collegiate sport's strict eligibility rules today to permit students to participate in army training camp bouts.

The change permits college students to "participate in boxing programs conducted under the auspices of the armed forces of the United States providing the participation takes place on military posts or ships and providing that all contestants are bonafide members of the armed forces."

The ruling was announced by the National Collegiate Boxing Rules committee, whose meeting followed the NCAA championship tournament here over the week-end.

Wisconsin Plans Banquet to Honor Victorious Five

Madison, Wis., March 31 [Special].—Plans were under way today for an all-university banquet in honor of the Wisconsin basketball team, which won the National collegiate championship in Kansas City Saturday night. The event, sponsored jointly by the alumni association and student organizations, will be held in the Memorial union a week from tomorrow night.

A crowd estimated at 12,000 was on hand to welcome the team and Coach Harold [Bud] Foster home early today. Sirens, factory whistles, and automobile horns were tied down when the train pulled in at 1:30 a. m. The celebration continued in the downtown and campus areas for several hours.

Classes were held as usual on the campus today after a "no school tomorrow" campaign bogged down.

Hostak Meets Brown in Seattle Fight Tonight

Seattle, Wash., March 31 (AP).—Al Hostak will make his first appearance in his home town since losting the NBA middleweight crown to Tony Zale here last summer when he clashes with Ben Brown in a 10 round fight tomorrow night. Brown, who has done most of his fighting in the middlewest and southeast, has split even in two fights with Ken Overlin, New York-California middleweight champion.

PIRATES, CUBS RAINED OUT OF SERIES FINAL

But Today Bruins May Be Able to Play Sox.

BY EDWARD BURNS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

San Bernardino, Cal., March 31.—March went out like a duck in Southern California and as a result the scheduled final of the spring series between the Cubs and the Pirates, which was to have been played here today, was called off.

Failure of the Pirates to play and win today gave the Cubs a clean sweep of the five games contested in the Cloudburst league this spring. The Cubs won, 9 to 2, 8 to 4, 10 to 5, 17 to 7, and 8 to 2.

Next Five Count.

The Cubs, tho gratified at the results in the first five 1941 meetings with the Pirates, will be much more pleased if they win the next five. The Pirates and the Cubs will play the first National league series of the season in Wrigley field, Chicago, April 15, 16 and 17, and will go to Pittsburgh for a pair of contests, April 24 and 25.

The Cubs are supposed to play two more games before departing California for drier areas—against the White Sox in Hollywood tomorrow and against the Sox in Los Angeles Wednesday. Thursday and Friday the Cubs will play the Athletics in Yuma and Tucson and that brings up something.

The Cubs lost their first four exhibition games, all to the Athletics. Since they parted company with Connie Mack's boys, they have won nine and lost only three. They have won three and lost two with the White Sox and split even in two games with Los Angeles. Then there were those five straight over the Pirates.

Maybe They Will Play.

The way it looks the two remaining games scheduled for California will be played. It's raining something terrific, but the weather man holds out hope that it will clear tomorrow. If it doesn't it will be disappointing to the Cubs, for they want to keep pouring it on the Sox while they are in a winning streak. Claude Passeau and Vern Olsen will pitch and Lou Novikoff will be back in left field if there is a game tomorrow.

The Cubs and Sox have 11 more games on their spring calendar and Manager Jim Wilson is eager to win at least 10 of these.

CARDS WIN IN 11TH.

Hollywood, Fla., March 31 (AP).—Old Gus Mancuso came thru with an 11th inning triple today then scored the winning run as the St. Louis Cardinals defeated their minor league cousins, the Columbus Red Birds, 8 to 7.

The other Cardinal star was Harry Walker, subbing for Terry Moore in center field, who took Bert Haas' line drive single on the dead run and whipped a perfect throw to Mancuso at the plate to retire Repass for the final out in the ninth inning. That run would have won the game as the teams were tied up, 7 to 7.

BROWNS TO BREAK CAMP.

San Antonio, Tex., March 31 (AP).—The St. Louis Browns held a long batting drill today preliminary to breaking camp tomorrow for a barnstorming trip homeward.

"Everybody of importance is in condition," said Manager Fred Haney, who hinted he might even order morning workouts on the way north.

WAGNER GOES FULL DISTANCE.

Palm Beach, Fla., March 31 (AP).—Charley Wagner became the first Red Sox pitcher to go the distance as Boston shut out the Rochester Internationals today, 2 to 0. Showing plenty of speed, Wagner gave up only three hits—two in the ninth inning.

Red Sox Third Baseman Jim Tabor, who recently was reprimanded by Manager Joe Cronin for breaking training rules, did not report at the park. Cronin said he wanted to talk to him before making any comment, but "for a spell" at least veteran Sammy Hale would be at third. Score:

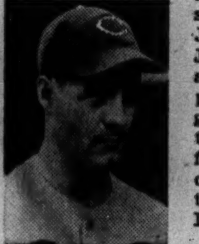
DYKES HAS IDEA JOHN HUMPHRIES WILL BE A HELP

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

San Diego, Cal., March 31.—One of the fellows on the 1941 White Sox assembly line supervised by James Dykes is John Humphries, a right handed pitcher who was greatly pleased to be relieved from service under the banner of the Cleveland Indians.



John Humphries.

Dykes obtained Humphries in exchange for Clint Brown, who wore out his welcome as a rescuer of faltering Sox pitchers. Humphries also wore himself ragged doing the same for Cleveland pitchers except that Brown actually did too much work for one man, hence tearing his arm apart. Humphries merely kept warming up day after day in the bull pen without getting more than an occasional summons. Humphries says he merely was neglected.

It Was a Studied Deal.

Earlier this spring Humphries told Dykes he was very happy to be with the ball club. Dykes' response was that he had been trying to get him for a couple of years. It's possible, of course, that Dykes formed an attachment for the boy because he saw him so often in a Cleveland uniform. Humphries didn't pitch much in those two years but Dykes saw enough of him in action to suspect he made a good deal. Dykes has picked up a few other pitchers in the same way, notably Thornton Lee from Cleveland, Bill Dietrich from Washington and Eddie Smith from the Athletics.

Just how the Indians got Humphries in the first place isn't a matter of record, but there is a suspicion of Shenanigans long before they purchased him from New Orleans for use in the 1938 race. He did fairly well that year, winning nine while losing eight, mainly as a finisher. He was a mere kid and his record should have indicated something to his superiors. But in the next two years he pitched only 62 innings. He started only once in that stretch and this was in 1940 when he drew a job against the Browns and lost, 3 to 1, even tho he yielded only three hits.

He Has Dykes' Confidence.

Humphries asked for another start and the reply from Manager Oscar Vitt was: "I have no confidence in you." From that little response you might gather that Vitt, after all, might have laid himself open to what the team rebels tried to do to him in June, but which didn't succeed until the season ended when he was dismissed. So far as is known Humphries had no part in the rebellion, but Dykes thinks the lad can pitch and that is all that is important now.

M'NEILL, RIGGS TO HEAD TENNIS CARD THURSDAY

Don McNeill, national singles champion, and Bobby Riggs, whom McNeill beat in five sets to win the national crown last season, will meet for the first time since their match at Forest Hills when they are paired in an exhibition in the University of Chicago fieldhouse Thursday night.

The McNeill-Riggs match will be the highlight of a program which also will present Chicago's outstanding tennis stars. Seymour Greenberg, Northwestern's Big Ten singles champion, meets Jimmy Evert, national indoor singles and doubles champion in the first match, starting at 8 o'clock. The windup will pair McNeill and Riggs against Evert and Robert Smidl, Chicago indoor doubles champions.

Burton Takes Second in Two Events of ABC

St. Paul, Minn., March 31 [Special].—Nelson Burton of St. Louis, who, with Virgil Gibbs of Kansas City won the American Bowling congress doubles in 1937, rolled into second place in the current ABC tourney doubles while paired with George Bobmeyer today. Burton and Bobmeyer marked up a 1,306 total, one pin less than the leaders, Ned Day and Elmer Koch of Milwaukee.

Burton ran into three No. 10 pin taps between strikes in the final game. In the 10th frame, Burton hit the 1-3 pocket squarely, but the No. 10 stayed up. A strike after the spare conversion still would have given the team a tie for the lead, but Burton again left the No. 10 on his final shot.

Takes Second in All-Events.

Nelson gave a brilliant exhibition of pocket shooting in scoring games of 246, 245, 200. Bobmeyer had 180, 212, 223.

Burton followed in the individual event with games of 255 and 259 and with the singles and all-events lead in sight drew three splits in the final game for 170. His 684 singles gave him 1,965 and second place in the all-events.

Erben Piles Up 1,961.

Johnny Erben, who scored 653 as the Vogels of Forest Park were taking the team lead with a 3,065 total last night, continued the pace today in scoring 661 in the doubles and 647 in the singles to take third place in the all-events with 1,961.

Cage Coaches Lose Fight on Backboards

Kansas City, Mo., March 31 (AP).—Basketball's rules committee today recommended that the fan-shaped backboards and the moulded ball be used universally with the view that they be made official in the near future.

The decision was reached after a 14 hour session, part of which time was spent listening to Val Lentz, coach at the United States Military academy, who appeared as spokesman for 200 college coaches. Last week the college coaches in New York urged standardization of playing equipment, but recommended that the laced ball and backboards of glass, 6 feet by 4 feet, be used.

H. V. Porter of Chicago, secretary of the rules committee, said that altho the 200 coaches urged adoption of the laced ball and the glass boards, a questionnaire brought out a different viewpoint.

Poll Belies Report.

He said 1,445 responses were received favoring the fan-shaped boards to 305 against. In schools using the new banks the voting was 819 to 196 in favor of the idea.

Harold G. Olsen, basketball coach at Ohio State and NCAA tournament chairman, announced the 1942 eastern regional would be played in New Orleans and the western playoff and national final again would be held in Kansas City.

In addition to their two recommendation, the rule makers revised other parts of the playing code. The three second rule was changed to apply only from the free throw line to the end line, cutting off the upper half of the circle nearest the center stripe.

Rowe Is Reëlected.

In the future, a player may be substituted after a field goal is scored without cost of a time out.

The rule makers did not act upon a recommendation to make all playing floors the same size. They did increase the light intensity from 10 foot candles at 4 feet above the floor to 12 and urged that where possible the intensity be increased to 18 or 20 foot candles.

The committee turned down the proposal that a player ejected from the game with four personal fouls be permitted to reënter if an overtime session was needed.

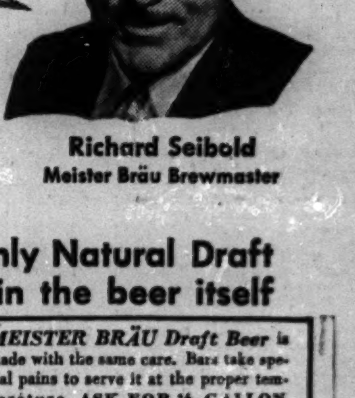
WE BREW BEER LIKE 50 YEARS AGO... USE THE SAME METHODS NOW AS THEN



Richard Seibold
Meister Bräu Brewmaster

We've never started to add Sugars or Syrups

This old picture shows how they served a bite to guests about the time we started making MEISTER BRÄU.

And we still bottle with only Natural Draft Beer Carbonation created in the beer itself

A lot of things have changed in the last 50 years, but we use the same brewing methods now as then. And here's why. We've experimented with a lot of short cuts—some we thought up ourselves and some have been offered to us. But I still defy anyone to beat the old way of brewing beer.

We make an all-grain brew—just as always. Won't add sugars or syrups, although we could as easily as anybody. We won't change the all-grain flavor that practically everybody votes best when they taste and compare.

We won't change our bottling methods. We want our beer to come out of the bottle with natural life and sparkle—like draft beer. So we bottle with only Natural Draft Beer Carbonation created in the beer itself.

Please taste and compare MEISTER BRÄU with any other brand regardless of price. Use the old-time test of brewing experts—the "50 Degrees" Test. That gives you the low-down because too much cold disguises true flavor. But at 50 degrees' temperature, the honest flavor—good or bad—comes out. You enjoy flavor to the full and can judge it like an expert.

So order some MEISTER BRÄU from your retailer and see why so many people demand its old-time taste. Phone your retailer now.

FOREIGN MARKET LOSS CURTAILS TRUCK INCOME

Diamond T 1940 Earnings Fall to 56c a Share.

The loss of foreign markets because of the war resulted in a decline in 1940 net income of the Diamond T Motor Car company, C. A. Tilt, president, reported yesterday.

Net income of this Chicago truck manufacturer totaled $239,087, equal to 56 cents a share, compared with $301,394, or 71 cents a share, in 1939.

Discussing the effect of the drastic reduction in export business, Tilt said that the company's shipments of trucks to foreign countries dropped to 700 in 1940 from 2,100 in 1939. In 1938 the company's export business amounted to 2,700 trucks.

Altho increased domestic business offset this loss of foreign trade, Tilt observed that the larger sales in this country entailed an increase in sales cost. To obtain larger domestic business, he said, the company found it necessary to enlarge its sales force, while the foreign business was carried out on a mail order basis.

25 Millions in Orders.

He also asserted that the 1940 report did not reflect the company's large government orders, inasmuch as only $1,500,000 of these orders were filled during the year. The company has a backlog of approximately $25,000,000 for various types of trucks for the army.

Tilt said that the company made shipments during 1940 to South America, South Africa, Australia, and China. Few shipments were made to continental Europe, aside from Portugal, he said.

R. G. A. Van der Woude, president of the Shell Union Oil corporation, told stockholders in his annual report that the company would expand its facilities for the production of aviation gasoline to keep in step with increasing demands.

The company's 1940 net income, largest since 1937, totaled $15,654,678, equal to $1.05 a share, compared with $11,805,713, or 76 cents a share, in 1939.

The Chicago Flexible Shaft company in the first 12 weeks of 1941 had estimated income of $391,223 before federal income and excess profits taxes, compared with $317,174 in the comparable period of 1940, H. C. Wright, president, announced.

Larger Sales Reported.

Sales totaled $2,071,993, against $1,672,668 in the 1940 period. The company manufactures electric food mixing machines, electric razors, and other products.

Because of amendments to the excess profits tax law, Wright reported that the company's provision for this tax in 1940 was reduced by about $140,000.

Net income of the Chicago Motor Coach company, subsidiary of the Omnibus corporation, totaled $782,527 in 1940, compared with $770,637 in 1939. Consolidated net income of the Omnibus corporation for the year was $1,346,218, equal to $1.36 a share, compared with $1,572,318, or $1.72 a share, in 1939.

People and Events

John S. Loomis, president of the Illinois company, and John W. Newey, vice president of Stern, Wampler & Co., both of Chicago, have been named governors of the Investment Bankers Association of America for three year terms. Their election as representatives of the association's central states group was automatic when no other nominations were made.

John S. Loomis (left), John W. Newey (center), and Thompson M. Wakely, whose names appeared in business news yesterday.

The newly elected officers, directors, and committee chairmen of the Bond Traders Club of Chicago will take office today. Officers are: Thompson M. Wakeley, president; James W. Steffes, vice president; Ira J. Sweeney, secretary, and Paul J. Skepnek Jr., treasurer.

Henry W. Phelps, pioneer in the can industry, has resigned as chairman of the American Can company. The office will be abolished but Phelps will continue in an advisory capacity.

Edward H Richards has been appointed assistant trafic manager of the Chicago & North Western railway. He will have headquarters in Chicago.

Col. Charles Burton Robbins, manager and general counsel of the American Life convention, announced that a gift of $1,000 had been made to the school of business of Indiana university for the establishment of a graduate assistantship for research work in investments during the academic year 1940-'41. The gift was made by the Life Officers Investment seminar.

CORN PRICES DIP ON REPORTS OF BIG U.S. SALES

Other Grains Mostly Lower for Day.

Reports that the Commodity Credit corporation had sold 500,000 to 1,000,000 bushels of cash corn and heavy sales of corn futures, presumably hedging the grain, turned markets downward yesterday. The CCC lowered its asking price for No. 2 yellow 1 cent to 4½ cents over May price.

At no time were corn prices as high as Saturday's finish. Closing trades on the Chicago Board of Trade were 1 to 1¼ cents lower.

All deliveries of wheat sold at new seasonal high prices early with the May future reaching 92⅝ cents. Cash grain interests sold heavily on the upturn, said to be hedging against purchases from farmers, and the close was ⅝ to ¾ cent lower. Oats finished ¼ to ½ cent lower, while rye showed independent strength and gained ¼ to ⅝ cent.

Soy beans, after opening about 1 cent higher at a new seasonal peak, broke around 3 cents from the top on profit taking and closed 1⅛ to 1½ cents lower.

25,000 DOUGLAS PLANE WORKERS GET PAY RAISES

Santa Monica, Cal., March 31 (AP).—Douglas Aircraft company said today blanket wage increases for its 25,000 employés ranging from 2½ to 5 cents an hour would become effective Thursday.

President Donald W. Douglas said the increases "were made possible by acceleration of production and should, in a measure, balance the increased cost of living resulting from 'boom' activities in this territory."

The minimum for unskilled beginners is lifted from 50 to 52½ cents an hour.

Pickle Raisers Get Boost.

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 31 (AP).—Frank P. Novak, business agent of AFL Canning and Pickle Workers' union, local 325, reported today the union and the H. J. Heinz company had signed a contract providing for a wage increase of 5 cents an hour for 1,800 employés.

WAR INSURANCE RATES CUT AFTER BRITISH VICTORY

New York, March 31 [Special].—As a result of the British naval victory in the Mediterranean, marine underwriters today announced reduction in war risk rates to and from the eastern end of the Mediterranean and the Red Sea.

On shipments to and from Greece, Syria, Palestine, and Turkish Mediterranean ports via the Cape of Good Hope and the Suez canal, the rates were reduced from 10 to 7½ per cent. On shipments to and from Alexandria, Egypt, the former rate of 7½ per cent was cut to 5 per cent. On shipments to Red Sea, Gulf of Suez, and Gulf of Aden ports, excluding French and Italian possessions, the rate was lowered from 7½ to 5 per cent.

ALLOT NEOPRENE TO CONSUMERS IN ARMS INDUSTRIES

Washington, D. C., March 31 (AP).—The priorities division of the Office of Production Management today issued a general preference order for April allocating nearly a million pounds of neoprene to about 250 companies and industrial users.

The April distribution of neoprene, a synethetic rubber, will go almost entirely into armament work.

Neoprene output was brought under mandatory control March 7, which gave all military orders a preference rating ahead of civilian orders. The action today fixes specifically the amount each user will get. British orders are to be accorded the same treatment as United States arms orders.

BRITISH CONTROL FORCES COTTON MARKET CLOSING

LIVERPOOL, England, March 31 (AP).—The Liverpool cotton exchange closed at noon today in a solemn ceremony to the strains of "God Save the King" sung by traders who crowded the floor.

The exchange was closed upon members' approval of a decision by directors based on a conclusion that government control of cotton made speculation in futures virtually impossible.

Today's final prices for all positions in the futures market were up 25 points, the maximum daily permissible limit, on trade calling and covering to settle contracts.

WALGREEN STOCK OFFERED AFTER EXCHANGE CLOSE

New York, March 31 [Special].—Secondary distributions over the counter and after the close of the Stock Exchange today included a block of 13,496 shares of Walgreen company common by Paul H. Davis & Co. and Hornblower & Weeks. The stock was priced at $20 with the dealers' discount specified as 60 cents a share.

Harriman Ripley & Co. offered 10,181 shares of General Refractories company stock at 22⅛, with a dealers' discount of 75 cents a share.

Order 3 More Ore Carriers for U. S. Steel Lake Fleet

The Pittsburgh Steamship company, subsidiary of the United States Steel corporation, yesterday awarded contracts for three new ore carriers which steamship authorities estimated would cost $2,000,000 apiece. Two will be built by the American Ship Building company at Lorain, O., and the third by the Great Lakes Engineering Works, River Rouge, Mich. The latter company recently received orders for two identical ships from the same operator. The boats will have a 640 foot over-all length, will carry 17,500 tons, and according to shipping men will be the largest ever constructed on the Great Lakes.

BARE NEW DEAL 'REFORMS' STILL IN STORE FOR U.S.

Committee Reports on 3 Year Inquiry.

BY JOHN FISHER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Senator Joseph C. O'Mahoney.

Washington, D. C., March 31.—America learned today of additional "reforms" which the New Deal has in mind as the Temporary National Economic [monopoly] committee, after probing business for three years, reported its long awaited recommendations for further government regulation.

The committee report was filed at noon in the senate by Senator Joseph C. O'Mahoney [D., Wyo.], chairman of the joint committee of legislative and executive department officials which conducted the investigation.

This report and the enormous amount of material collected by the inquisitive New Dealers connected with the committee will serve as a guide book for New Deal legislation of the future. O'Mahoney said he plans to introduce bills to carry out committee recommendations. Other New Dealers in congress are expected to follow suit.

Nation Pays $1,062,000.

It cost American taxpayers approximately $1,062,000 for this report on how to conduct themselves. More than 20,000 pages of testimony was taken from 552 leaders of American industry called before the committee. New Dealers inside and outside the government had their own field days as they appeared before the committee to voice pet theories for economic planning. Approximately 3,300 technical exhibits were filed.

The material collected fills 37 volumes devoted to testimony, and 44 special monographs analyzing the findings. Altho any intent of "witch-hunting" was denied vigorously, the committee report admits that "the collection of this information has proved a stimulus to government agencies entrusted with the enforcement of laws intended to prevent restraints of trade."

Recommendations Summarized.

Briefly and in general terms, the committee recommended vigorous enforcement and tightening of the antitrust laws, national standards for national corporations and trade associations, increased regulation over patents, moderate federal regulation of life insurance companies, rejecting the Securities and Exchange commission request for "allout" federal control, decentralization of industry, and encouragement of private investment and "free enterprise."

Undoubtedly the congressional members of the committee tempered their reform recommendations because of the rearmament program, but this displeased the extreme New Deal element associated with the committee, as represented by Leon Henderson and Isador Lubin. They filed a supplementary statement charging that the committee recommendations did not go far enough to meet the needs of the "economic world of tomorrow."

Other Committee Members.

Members of the committee besides O'Mahoney, Henderson, and Lubin, are: Representative Hatton W. Sumners [D., Tex.], vice chairman; Senator James M. Mead [D., N. Y.], Senator Wallace H. White Jr. [R., Me.], Representative Clyde Williams [D., Mo.], Representative B. Carroll Reece [R., Tenn.], Thurman W. Arnold, assistant attorney general; Hugh Cox, special assistant to the attorney general; Sumner T. Pike, member of the SEC; Garland S. Ferguson and Ewin L. Davis, members of the federal trade commission; A. Ford Hinrichs of the bureau of labor statistics; Joseph J. O'Connell Jr. and Charles L. Kades of the treasury department; Wayne C. Taylor, undersecretary of commerce, and M. Joseph Meehan of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce. Dr. Dewey Anderson, executive secretary of the committee, compiled most of the formal report.

Greater Power than Hitler.

The committee pounced upon the concentration of armament contracts in a few states as support of their contention of economic concentration in the United States.

Discussing the army and navy contracts cleared thru the Office for Emergency Management, the report declares:

"Not even Hitler commands industrial power and resources comparable to those directed by one central authority in the massive effort of America to protect the free peoples of the world against totalitarian aggression.

"In this organization and its work is to be found the epitome of the Court Denies Triple Damage Right to U. S.

Washington, D. C., March 31 [Special].—The Supreme court held today that the government cannot sue alleged price-fixing combinations for triple damages under the Sherman antitrust law, as private individuals or corporations can.

Because of the large armament purchasing program, special importance was attached to the 4 to 3 decision, which blocked a justice department suit to collect $1,053,474 from 17 tire manufacturers charged with conspiracy to fix "collusive prices" in 1936 and 1937.

Exempts Lessees of Mines.

The court ruled also today that lessees of coal mines operated by others under contract are exempt from the bituminous coal regulation act and that the government is not liable for damage to structures in navigable rivers when it raises the water level to improve navigation.

The triple damages case hinged upon the meaning of the word "person" in section 7 of the 50 year old act. This provides that "any person who shall be injured [by conspiracies in restraint of interstate commerce] may sue and shall recover three fold the damages by him sustained, and the costs of suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee."

Justice Owen J. Roberts, in the majority opinion, said that "the United states is a juristic person in the sense that it has capacity to sue upon contracts made with it or in vindication of its property rights" but that the Sherman act "created new rights available only to those on whom they are conferred by the act."

Has Injunctive Recourse.

He added that other sections of the law empowered the government to act against combinations in criminal and injunctive proceedings and that congress intended section 7 only for the use of the public. Justices Stanley F. Reed, Hugo L. Black, and William A. Douglas dissented from the majority opinion.

By a 4 to 4 vote the court held that a company which obtained coal from mines it leased, but which were operated by others under contract, was exempt from price fixing provisions of the bituminous coal act.

It affirmed the fourth federal circuit court in a ruling exempting the Seaboard Air Line Railway company from the price fixing provisions.

Power to Improve Rivers.

In another case the court laid down the principle that "the power of congress extends not only to keeping clear the channels of interstate navigation by the prohibition or removal of actual obstructions located by the riparian owner, or others, but comprehends as well the power to improve and enlarge their navigability."

The unanimous decision was delivered by Justice Roberts on litigation to determine whether the federal government must compensate the Milwaukee railroad and the Western Union Telegraph and Cable company for damages caused by the flooding of property in Wabasha and Winona counties, Minn., in improving the navigability of the upper Mississippi river.

The court decided that Mrs. Sara H. Schaffner, Chicago, must pay federal income taxes on $138,000 assigned to her children and a son-in-law from a trust fund established by her husband.

AIR LINE TO ADD 4 NEW EASTERN FLIGHTS TODAY

Four new American Airlines flights connecting Chicago with Battle Creek, Detroit, Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse, and New York will be placed in operation today, L. W. King, Chicago district sales manager for American Airlines here, announced yesterday.

Two new eastbound flights to Detroit, with one continuing from Detroit to New York, and four from eastern points will bring American Airlines' total eastern division flights to 33, the most frequent service to and from Chicago.

United Air Lines today will change its passenger pickup flights for North Shore residents from Curtiss-Reynolds airport to Sky Harbor airport near Deerfield, company officials announced yesterday.

Santa Fe Gains Thru Longer Freight Hauls

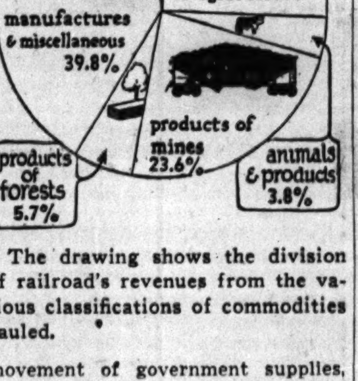
The Santa Fe railroad carried a little less freight in 1940 than in 1939, but revenues increased because of longer average hauls, E. J. Engel, president, reported to stockholders yesterday. The number of cars loaded was 1,306,067, compared with 1,333,753, but the average distance each ton of freight was hauled increased to 435.64 miles, from 376.77 in 1939.

Reflecting heavier loadings per car and the longer hauls, freight revenues rose to $136,534,624, from $127,530,775. Passenger revenue was $18,492,633, against $18,277,823 in 1939. The war's discouragement of travel abroad increased the road's tourist business, Engel said.

Predicts 1941 Increase.

"With the many preparedness activities thruout the country there probably will be some increase in passenger travel in 1941," he said.

Engel reported a "considerable" movement of government supplies, armament materials, troops and equipment over the Santa Fe lines. The road's 1941 maintenance work is being advanced so that it will be out of the way by the time arms plants get intto full production, he said.



The drawing shows the division of railroad's revenues from the various classifications of commodities hauled.

An illustrated booklet accompanying the annual report showed that of each dollar of revenue and other income received by the Santa Fe, 44.2 cents was paid out as wages and salaries. Materials and supplies took 10 cents; taxes, 9.8 cents; fuel, 6.9 cents; depreciation and retirements, 7.9 cents; rents, 1.3 cents; interest, 7.5 cents, and other operating expenses, 5.1 cents.

Investment Return 2.68%.

That left 7.3 cents, used to pay dividends and add to surplus. The road's 1940 return on investment in transportation property was 2.68 per cent.

The Santa Fe's tax bill last year was $17,159,640, an increase of $1,674,971 over the 1939 bill.

As previously reported, the Santa Fe's net income increased last year to $12,745,371, equal to $2.69 a common share, from $8,490,832, or 95 cents a share, in 1939.

The Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad, in its annual report signed by C. T. O'Neal, president, and Benjamin Wham, trustee, said a number of new industries located along its lines last year, giving the road additional traffic. As previously reported the company had a net loss of $1,436,401, compared with a loss of $1,514,571 for its predecessor company in 1939.

ITALY IS FINANCIALLY SOUND, BANK OFFICIAL CLAIMS; CREDITS DUCE

ROME, March 31 (AP).—Italy is financially sound, Dr. Vincenzo Azzolini, governor of the Bank of Italy, said in his annual report published today by the official news agency, Stefani.

Azzolini said that war found Italy economically and financially prepared "in all sectors for the most efficient use of its means." He attributed this to Premier Mussolini's policy of "disciplining" industrial consumption, militarizing auxiliary war industries, and banning construction of plants not needed in military operations.

Anticipating settlement of trade balances after the war, Azzolini said that gold would be used only between "compensation centers and no longer in individual countries." Compensation centers, he indicated, would be patterned after the mechanism which the axis has set in motion in Europe for multilateral trade clearing.

BANKS INCREASE BUSINESS LOANS THRU 26TH WEEK

Member banks of the federal reserve system had $6,000,000 more business loans outstanding Wednesday than a week earlier, the federal reserve board reported yesterday.

The gain, which raised the total of commercial, industrial, and agricultural loans to $5,420,000,000, was the 26th consecutive weekly increase reported. The total increase in the 26 weeks has been $785,000,000.

Following are the principal assets and liabilities of the member banks at the close of business Wednesday [last six ciphers omitted]:

Railroad Liens Rush Upward to 3 Year Tops

New York, March 31 (AP).—A rush of railroad bond buying sent large numbers of carrier liens higher by two and three points today and gave the market one of its busiest days of the year.

Transactions in all classifications totaled $15,524,100, face value, compared with $12,228,300 Friday. March turnover was $214,882,100 face value, against $123,647,000 in February and $135,239,000 in March 1940.

The Associated Press average of 20 rails, which established a 1941 high Saturday, moved .6 of a point higher at 65.6, a three year record.

Others Move Unevenly.

While the rails went ahead, the majority of other corporate issues were fairly quiet with fluctuations narrowly irregular.

United States government obligations closed in stock exchange sales unchanged to 17/32 point lower. In the over the counter market the long term treasuries ended 1/32 to 3/32 off, and the intermediates averaged about 1/32 lower. The new 2½s of '52-'54 showed strength, gaining 2/32 at 102 10/32. It was their first day of listing in the stock exchange.

Canadian Issues Higher.

Canadian, Australian and some Latin Americans made the best showings of the foreign government dollar loan list. Smaller gains were recorded for some issues of Belgium, Norway, and Germany.

The more active corporates gaining a point or more included Baltimore & Ohio convertible stamped bonds of '60 at 28⅞; International Telephone 5s at 47¼; Southern Pacific 4½s of '81 at 50⅜; Alleghany 5s of '49 at 83½; Texas corporation 3s of '65 at 103¾; International Hydro Electric 6s at 46½; Delaware & Hudson refunding 4s at 52½, and Colorado & Southern 4½s at 24¼.

INSULIN PRICE FIXING CHARGED TO 3 COMPANIES

Washington, D. C., March 31 (AP).—A federal grand jury indicted three drug manufacturing companies and seven of their officers today on a charge of violating the Sherman antitrust act in the sale of insulin.

The companies named are: Eli Lilly & Co., Indianapolis; Sharp & Dohme, Inc., Philadelphia, and E. R. Squibb & Sons, New York.

The indictment alleges that the defendants unlawfully combined to bring about arbitrary, uniform and noncompetitive prices for insulin and to prevent normal competition in the sale of the drug.

ARMS CONTRACT AWARDS NEAR 13 BILLION MARK

Largest Share Goes to New Jersey.

Washington, D. C., March 31 [Special].—Government contracts and expenditures from July 1, 1940, beginning of the arms speedup program, to March 15 totaled $12,811,317,709, the Office of Production Management reported today.

New Jersey's $1,370,941,064 of contracts were the largest for any state, with New York ranking second at $1,347,344,919 and North Dakota on the bottom of the list with only $694,708.

Asserted inequities in the geographical distribution of armament orders will be investigated at hearings beginning next Monday by a special committee headed by Senator Harry E. Truman [D., Mo.]. The senator said that Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson would be the first witness called.

83 Per Cent of Army Program.

Army orders accounted for $5,365,068,009 of the July 1 to March 15 total and represented 83.1 per cent of the army's authorized program of $7,098,000,000. Navy awards accounted for $6,489,838,926 of the total and represented 64.6 per cent of its $9,266,000,000 program approved by congress.

Naval construction contracts were the biggest single item, totaling $4,449,300,000, followed by aircraft awards, which totaled $2,312,100,000, of which the army took $2,096,700,000.

California was the third ranking state in awards, with orders of $1,291,160,061, followed by Pennsylvania, which had $1,019,260,431. Other state orders included: Connecticut, $540,632,185; Delaware, $26,244,540; Maryland, $325,477,982; Rhode Island, $48,244,301, and the District of Columbia, $21,038,820.

The breakdown did not reveal how much money actually has been expended on these contracts to date, nor how much of the equipment has been delivered.

Navy Awards Contracts.

The navy meanwhile announced awards of contracts for manufactured steel items totaling more than $10,000,000. The contracts included:

Alan Wood Steel company, Conshohocken, Pa., $1,230,760; Lukens Steel company, Coatesville, Pa., $3,099,200; Worth Steel company, Washington, D. C., $2,370,586; Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation, Washington, D. C., $1,620,647; Bethlehem Steel company, Bethlehem, Pa., $1,188,422, and Axelson Manufacturing company, Los Angeles, Cal., $1,168,082.

The war department announced award of contracts amounting to $6,831,196, the largest of which went to the Scovill Manufacturing company, Waterbury, Conn., for artillery material to cost $2,100,000.

Other contracts were:

International Harvester company, Chicago, trucks, $1,400,852; Studebaker corporation, South Bend, Ind., trucks, $1,373,171, and Fargo Motor corporation, Detroit, Mich., five-passenger sedans, $539,500.

Jumble Export Data to Puzzle Agents of Axis

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., March 31.—The destinations of war materials exported from this country for use of the British armed forces are to be veiled henceforth in military secrecy as a further aid to the axis' foes, it became known today with the issuance of a state department report on exports and export licenses for January and February.

For the first time all exports intended for the United Kingdom and outlying possessions were lumped together and designated merely as going to the British commonwealth of nations. The new procedure follows wide publicity given to reports that much of the American aircraft being sent abroad was going directly to Africa, where supposedly it was being used by the British expeditionary forces fighting the Italians.

"The change in the presentation of the statistics," the report stated, "is introduced in order to prevent the dissemination of military information of interest to national defense."

Mostly Planes and Engines.

The bulk of February shipments to the British was aircraft and aircraft engines, the report reveals. Total exports for the month were $31,415,400, boosting the total since Jan. 1 to $66,551,900.

In addition, in January and February, the British received licenses for future exports valued at $277,742,296. Of these, $122,998,868 were for aircraft; $65,308,479 for ammunition and projectiles, both filled and unfilled; $34,907,316 for aircraft engines, and $28,189,586 for other airplane parts.

The total licenses issued the British in February alone was $118,045,629 of which more than half—$63,719,139—was for ammunition.

Figures for the two months did not reflect any shipments to Great Britain or other axis foes resulting from the administration's dictator bill which was not signed by Mr. Roosevelt until March 11.

Other Nations Get More.

China, during February, received arms export licenses totaling $6,310,234. Licenses granted to the Netherlands East Indies covered $7,565,578 worth of war materials. China's total for the first two months of 1941 was raised to $6,563,509 and the total for the Netherlands East Indies to $10,114,890.

Actual exports to China for both months were $3,307,523 and to the East Indies $1,486,286.

Export licenses to Greece for the first two months of the year were $732,336, of which $209,835 were issued in February. Actual exports to that country in February totaled only $104,810. There were no arms exports to Greece in January.

RAIL HEAD, U. S. JUDGE ATTACK POLICIES OF ICC

Gorman Hits Ouster of Stockholders.

Judge John P. Barnes.

The Interstate Commerce commission was attacked from two quarters yesterday, by a railroad president and by a federal court. J. E. Gorman, president of the Rock Island railroad, accused the commission of following a policy that is dangerous to insolvent and solvent roads alike. Federal Judge John P. Barnes rebuked the commission for blocking the Chicago & North Western road's effort to appeal a reorganization plan which made no provision for participation by its old stockholders.

Gorman's statement likewise pertained to the commission's policy of eliminating present stockholders in the reorganizations of numerous rods on the ground that they had no remaining equity in the assets.

Cites I. C. C.'s Own Valuation.

The commission announced its Rock Island plan Oct. 31, 1940. The plan sets the maximum capitalization at $351,180,912, compared with the present $458,000,000. Gorman asserted that the actual investment in property as of Dec. 31, 1937, was more than $504,000,000, and that cost of reproduction new, less depreciation, plus the value of lands and rights, was $429,630,485 as of Dec. 31, 1935, as set by the commission's bureau of valuation.

"These facts are unchallenged," said Gorman, in a condensed income report of the Rock Island for 1940. "The commission apparently has adopted the policy of reducing capitalization arbitrarily to accord with its own estimates of what the future earning power of the carrier will be. In the case of the Rock Island, the commission estimated a normal year's earnings in the future at $11,000,000, in spite of the fact that for 10 years prior to the depression the average available for interest was $20,047,129.

"This is a disastrous policy for the roads undergoing reorganization, and involves a great danger to the securi-

PROVIDING INVESTMENT CAPITAL
To The East North Central States

FAVORED by a prehistoric ice-cap which scooped out their lakes, deposited their rich top-soil, and made available extensive mineral resources, the East North Central States have become the center of the nation's transportation system and one of its foremost industrial and agricultural regions.

Though widely traversed by early explorers, this section's major development covers little more than the past century. Its rapid growth in population and resources during the last fifty years has naturally called for large capital outlays—well beyond the accumulated reserves in so new an area.

How Many Dollars Do ONE MILLION WASTED STEPS* COST YOUR OFFICE?

*Unnecessary steps and motions in keeping office records cost you money. A recent study of one large office showed that more than one million steps a year were wasted in going from desks to files . . . the actual equivalent of walking from Chicago to Cleveland!

SAVE WASTED OFFICE MOTIONS BY PUTTING RECORDS "ON WHEELS" with the Cardineer ROTARY FILE

Portable! Available for either manual or electrical operation.

The new DIEBOLD Business Tool that Simplifies and Speeds Up Posting, Reference and Filing of Card Records

The Cardineer increases the output of your office force, yet is far less tiring to operate because it employs a wheel to center all work at desk-top height—the most efficient position in the office. Each Cardineer INSTANTLY brings from 1500 to 6000 records to the operator's finger-tips. No wasted motions. No lost time. No files to carry. No compressors to adjust. No drawers to open and close. Readily adaptable to your present and future records.

Ask us to demonstrate the Cardineer in your own office. See how it can increase the work-capacity of your staff, save time and space, cut costs. There is no obligation.

STOCK MARKET CREEPS UPWARD, BUT SALES DIP

Rails and Utilities Are Strongest Gainers.

New York, March 31 (AP).—The stock market was just about able to keep its balance today with the aid of utilities, rails, and scattered specialties. A few favorites showed gains of a point or so and minor fractional advances were in the majority at the close.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks finished with a net advance of .1 of a point at 41.5. Transfers of 435,610 shares compared with 442,610 in the preceding full session. Share volume during March totaled 10,111,344 shares, compared with 8,969,195 in February and 16,270,368 in March, 1940.

Strike Settlement Helpful.

Helpful to speculative sentiment, brokers said, was the easing of labor tension with the settlement of a number of strikes such as those of Bethlehem Steel and International Harvester. Business news was viewed as constructive.

Utilities, which have lately been around their lows of the year or longer, came back for minor advances on the Securities and Exchange commission ruling that the full priority provision of satisfying senior claimants in holding company reorganizations need not apply in voluntary integration moves. Weakness of common utility shares had been attributed to the belief some of these would be worthless in liquidations under the securities act.

Rails, especially some preferreds, again responded to the outlook for climbing earnings and traffic for many roads.

CHICAGO PRICES MIXED.

Stocks followed an irregular course on the Chicago exchange yesterday in light trading. Of the 83 active issues, 29 advanced, 25 declined, and 29 closed unchanged. Turnover totaled 16,000 shares. Merchants and Manufacturers A, the volume leader, closed at 4, up ¼.

In the trading from 2 to 3 o'clock, Commonwealth Edison gained ⅛ point from the New York close to 28½, and W. B. Jarvis lost ¼ point to 11¼. Other dually listed issues were unchanged.

Transfers on the exchange for March totaled 397,000 shares, compared with 437,000 in February and 557,000 in March, 1940. Volume for the first three months of this year amounted to 1,395,000 shares, against 1,674,000 shares in the same period of 1940.

COTTON

Profit taking and hedging sales gave American cotton futures markets an easy undertone in early trading yesterday, but active commission house and mill buying developed and prices rallied. Closing sales were .01 to .08 cent a pound lower.

Cash cotton closed .03 to .08 cent lower, with New York, 11.58 cents; New Orleans, 11.32 cents; Galveston, 10.98 cents, and Houston at 10.95 cents a pound. Futures prices follow:

HIDES AND SILK FUTURES SHOOT UP TO 1941 HIGHS

Trading Dwindles in Most Staple Markets.

Hides and silk reached new 1941 high prices and domestic sugar showed renewed strength yesterday, but other major commodities for future delivery tended toward easiness. A general lack of buying interest was apparent in most markets. Wool tops crept ahead and rubber, Santos coffee, and tin were lower.

Hides advanced 0.20 to 0.27 cent a pound, the June delivery reaching 14.16 cents before closing at 14.14 cents. The cash market was firm and unchanged at 13½ cents.

Silk Shoots Up 7½ Cents.

Silk, which has been supported during the last several weeks by trade fears of shipping difficulties, shot up 7½ cents a pound to $2.96 in the cash market and futures rose 3 to 4 cents. May futures hit a top $2.95 and ended at $2.92.

Domestic sugar gained 0.05 to 0.07 cent a pound as last week's liquidation subsided and new business developed in the cash raw market. The May position was 2.46 cents bid. Santos coffee dropped 0.06 to 0.19 cent to 9.16 cents a pound for May.

Rubber reversed its recent trend and declined 0.13 to 0.32 cent a pound to 22.52 cents for May futures, while the cash market lost 0.27 cent at 22.60 cents. Wool tops moved forward 0.1 to 0.2 cent to $1.25 7-10 a pound bid in May. The cash market was slightly lower.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK

Unsettled wholesale markets for fresh meat, increased receipts, and rumors of possible labor trouble broke markets for cattle and hogs yesterday. Most steers and yearlings were fully 25 cents under last week's close. Heifers sold weak to 25 cents lower.

Hogs dipped 10 to 20 cents, both the top and average prices showing 15 cents loss, at $8 and $7.55 a hundred pounds, respectively. Slaughter lambs sold off mostly 10 cents.

SURGICAL GOODS FIRM BUILDS 4TH PLANT ADDITION

Johnson & Johnson Spends $125,000 in Clearing.

BY AL CHASE.

Johnson & Johnson, manufacturer of surgical dressings, and holder of large contracts for various kinds of surgical goods for the war department, is building the fourth addition to its main plant in the Clearing Industrial district. A one story building, to contain 55,000 square feet, is being erected for the company by the Clearing Industrial district at a reported cost of $125,000. An addition of the same size and cost was erected a year ago.

H. P. Phelps, vice president of the industrial district, said the addition is being built partially to care for the heavy government orders placed with the company. The new unit will be in operation within 30 days, he said.

Gas Masks Manufactured.

The company recently began operations in two gas mask plants, each costing $150,000, built by the district and leased to Johnson & Johnson. Large orders for gas masks are being filled.

Last fall the Johnson Suture corporation, a subsidiary of Johnson & Johnson, built a one story plant, containing 32,000 square feet, at the southwest corner of Lavergne avenue and 67th street, at a reported cost of $200,000. The subsidiary makes materials used in sewing wounds together.

Title Transferred to Firm.

Title to the land under the new addition to the main plant was transferred to the company by the Clearing district trustees. The property is 70 by 317 feet and is on the south side of 65th street, 674 feet east of Lavergne avenue if extended. According to revenue stamps on the deed the company paid $20,500 for the site.

Johnson & Johnson has approximately 555,000 square feet of floor space for its midwest manufacturing, all in the Clearing Industrial district.

DAY by DAY on the FARM by GAIL COMPTON

A Ewe Is Lost.

March 31, 1941.

ONE of the purebred Southdown ewes, a mother of twins, had to be put out of the way the other day. She developed udder trouble that advanced, in spite of veterinary treatment, until she was unable to rise, and lay in her pen, her legs threshing stiffly in the straw, her eyes glazed with pain.

Her death was unusual in that ewes with twin lambs are not apt to develop a caked udder. Sometimes a ewe who has only one lamb will not be thoroly milked out by the lamb, and the surplus milk will cake in the udder, causing inflammation, and if not treated, infection.

Lambs Taken from Ewe.

When the trouble was first noticed the flockmaster immediately started treatment and summoned the veterinarian. The lambs were taken from the mother as there was danger the milk might poison the young ones, and they were fed with a bottle.

An attempt was made to milk the ewe out completely, but she was in too much pain, and the milk would not come freely. Hot compacts were applied and the feverish udder was rubbed with lard.

The treatment was of no avail, for the udder became more swollen and feverish until the ewe was suffering so much the veterinary recommended putting her away.

This type of udder trouble is called garget and may be brought on by bruises, colds, chills, lying on wet ground, and the inability of the lamb to take enough milk. Sometimes pus will form in the udder and then it must be opened and drained. The diseased part should be disinfected once a day with a 1 per cent carbolic acid solution or some other effective antiseptic wash. If the udder begins to mortify the discolored portion should be kept painted with iodine.

Some forms of garget are contagious, so the ewe was put in a pen by herself to avoid possible spread of the infection. The lamb, if allowed to continue sucking the ewe, should be prevented from touching the diseased part of the udder.

Other Troubles.

Another common trouble with nursing ewes is sore teats. The condition may arise from the lamb chewing and biting the teat, and if it does, the lamb's teeth should be filed. At other times pocklike sores appear on the teat and udder which can be cured with a wash made of one part dip solution to 25 parts of water.

A ewe may often fail to give milk thru an udder that looks sound. This is caused by a hard core that forms in it. Some authorities recommend the insertion of a small, hot rod to open the teat.

Bare New Deal "Reforms" Still to Come

problem this committee was directed to study. The large defense contracts awarded by the war and navy departments in the period from June 1, 1940, to March 1, 1941, amounted, in round figures, to 13 billion 343 million dollars. It is a sum which exceeds the total assessed valuation of all the real and personal property within the boundaries of 21 states. Its distribution among the states and industrial organizations of America reveals most dramatically the degree to which the concentration of economic power and wealth has proceeded in America.

Leon Henderson is displeased.

Forgotten States Listed.

"Three states—Idaho, Montana, and North Dakota—had not received a single defense contract by the end of February, 1941. Two states each had received only one-hundredth of 1 per cent in value of these contracts. Three each had received only two-hundredths of 1 per cent. Nine each had received less than seven-hundredths of 1 per cent. Twenty-five others, including the District of Columbia, had received less than 1 per cent each, and 32 states, including the district, had received in the aggregate only 12.69 per cent of the total."

The report showed that Illinois ranked 37th in the list of states with contracts of only $2,357,719,000.

"At the other end of the scale, four states—California, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and New York—had received 38.79 per cent. These four states, with two additional states, had received 52.69 per cent. In fact, 81.44 per cent of the total went to only 15 states.

Six Outfits Get Lion's Share.

"The geographical concentration, however, is the least significant aspect of the defense picture. An analysis of the contracts shows an even more amazing economic concentration, for approximately 45 per cent of all contracts were awarded to six closely interrelated corporate groups. Morever, according to the statement of Chester C. Davis, a member of the National Defense Advisory commission, to the Conference of Southern Governors in New Orleans on March 15, 1941, 62 companies or interrelated groups receipted 80 per cent of the total."

Altho deriding the growth of burocracy in the United States and admitting the presence of political agencies akin to those of the Nazis, communists and Fascists of Europe, the committee excuses these developments on the basis that they developed because of "economic centralism." The remedy lies in breaking down this economic concentration, according to the committee. But it proved contradictory in advocating more federal control while at the same time protesting against burocracy.

In discussing the development of an alleged aluminum monopoly and the need for increased supplies of the metal for armament needs, the report said:

"The increase is being obtained, not by the free private enterprise we all want to defend and perpetuate, but by government, that ogre before which business and free men tremble! The congress of the United States appropriates 32 million dollars out of an empty treasury to build a new TVA dam to produce electric power for the monopoly to expand its output.

"Another agency of the government advances 20 million dollars of nonexistent public money to loan to another large organization, which, thus backed by public credit, is willing to compete with the monopoly. But to make this competition effective, the new organization must also rely on public electric power, and so congress is called upon to appropriate additional funds to expand the Bonneville public power project so that competition between the organizations may be brought about to produce aluminum to save democracy and preserve to men their right to individual freedom.

Shows European Trend.

"Already in our own country, by our own legislation, there have been erected organizations which are the prototypes of those developed by the so-called alien philosophies of Europe, and if we wish to avoid the danger of Nazi, communist, or Fascist trends, we shall do well to identify the characteristics of those orders and see wherein they differ from democracy.

"The bituminous coal act, for example, has set up an order in that industry which is not without its resemblance to the Fascist order. The deposits of coal are privately owned by small groups who are by law released from the burdens of competition. . . . The Tennessee Valley authority is not without some aspects of socialism,"

The proposed Arkansas Valley authority is similar, the report added.

Failure to adopt a system of federal charters or licenses for corporations engaged in interstate and foreign commerce has produced centralism in business, labor, agriculture, and government, the report declared.

Demand "National Standards."

The majority recommendation was for legislation requiring "national standards for national corporations." Reece, Pike, and O'Connell took exception on the ground that it was not made clear whether mere statutory prohibitions or complete national charters are contemplated.

In recommending stricter enforcement of antitrust laws, the committee urged increased funds and man power for the justice department and the federal trade commission. It dealt extensively with patent control.

To offset foreign domination of vital patents, the committee would require all foreign applicants for patents to obtain specific permission from the government. The committee also urged legislation requiring future patents to be available to any one willing to pay a fair price for the privilege. Owners of any patent would also be required to grant only unrestricted licenses.

Other recommendations would include filing of records on patent disposal with the trade commission, establishment of a single court of patent appeals instead of the present 11, limiting the life of a patent to 20 years from filing of application, and forfeiture of patent for violations of law.

State Insurance Regulation.

In its insurance recommendations the committee dodged the drastic proposals for federal control made by Pike. It laid down 12 points of recommendations for improving state control and added that "without interjecting the federal government into the general field of insurance regulation, it is possible to utilize federal powers in a direction which will strengthen state regulation and make it more effective."

Accordingly it recommended: [1] A federal statute preventing life insurance companies from using mails, radio or other interstate means to sell insurance in a state where not lawfully admitted to do business; [2] the national bankruptcy act should be amended to permit liquidation or reorganization of life insurance companies before federal courts and appointment of a federal conservator where a company is adjudicated bankrupt; [3] federal standards should be set for officers and directors of companies doing interstate business; [4] a congressional committee or government agency should investigate all forms of fire, casualty, and marine insurance.

SEC Control Stymied.

Pike's recommendations would have given a federal agency, probably the SEC, control over insurance companies similar to that exercised over other corporations.

Additional recommendations made by the committee included the following:

Give the federal trade commission authority to forbid mergers of corporations above a certain size, possibly 5 million dollars in combined assets, unless deemed desirable.

Prohibition on the acquisition of stock in, or holding company control of, competing companies with exceptions for bona fide investments and control of true subsidiaries.

Require federal registration of trade associations and prohibit specific activities believed out of harmony with the antitrust laws.

Stimulate private investment in new businesses by reducing taxes on income from investments in new, independent businesses, and aiding underprivileged to increase purchasing power thru lower prices and increased standards of living.

Present Programs Approved.

Continue the food stamp plan, slum clearing, low cost housing, extension of hospital and medical facilities, and development of vocational and cultural programs.

Decentralize plants and industries with a view toward strategic location and maximum economic benefits.

Government purchasing should be centralized in one agency to greatest extent possible for more economy.

Allocation of funds by the President and congress should be made in such manner as to eliminate basic monopoly control.

Repeal the Miller-Tydings enabling act, which legalizes resale price fixing contracts in interstate commerce.

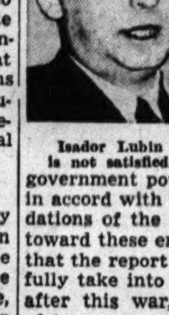
Remove interstate trade barriers.

Enactment by congress of legislation declaring basing-point price systems to be illegal. The spread of basing-point systems and variations, known technically as "zone pricing systems" and "freight equalization systems," has eliminated price competition, the committee reported.

Continued business and economic research by government agencies is recommended.

Henderson, who is price dictator for the Office of Production Management, and Lubin, commissioner of labor statistics, predicted greater depressions than the world has yet seen unless drastic action is taken.

"Like all our fellow committee members, we are opposed to totalitarianism—either in the form of 'big government' or 'big business'—and we would be reluctant to see a vast peacetime extension of government operations in industry," they said, in their supplementary report.



Isador Lubin is not satisfied.

"With them we deplore abuses of government power. We therefore are in accord with the specific recommendations of the committee which look toward these ends. We feel, however, that the report should go further and fully take into account the fact that, after this war, the economic world of tomorrow will be a very different kind of world than that which we have known in the past.

Urge "Broader" Program.

"The testimony presented to this committee on the economic events of the last decade has demonstrated clearly that private enterprise does not adjust itself quickly to violent economic dislocations; that in any major crisis of peacetime or of wartime, government leadership and government participation are required to help get the job done and to avoid great social and economic hardship. We do not believe that the program which this report presents would, in itself, have prevented the great depression of the thirties. Likewise, such a program will not be adequate to meet the problems of tomorrow."

OGDEN CORP. NET ASSET VALUE SET AT $6.48 A SHARE

New York, March 31 (AP).—The Ogden corporation, outgrowth of the reorganization of the Utilities Power and Light corporation, a large utility holding system, reported today indicated net asset value at the end of 1940 of $6.48 a share on the common stock.

The asset value, the annual report explained, was figured after deducting $211,949 for reorganization expenses.

Out of $2,444,267 requested as fees and expenses in the reorganization, the report noted, $354,550 had been paid by the end of last December.

Sohio Corp. Raises Price Paid for Illinois Crude Oil

CARBIDE AND CARBON.

I would like to know what plastic products are made by Union Carbide and Carbon. What are the major activities of the company? Kindly outline the financial position of the concern.—L. W.

Answer: Union Carbide and Carbon corporation manufactures a broad range of plastics, including products sold under the following trade names: Bakelite, Vinyon, Vinylite, Garbowax, and Halowax. The plastics are fabricated in various forms, such as powder, sheets, film, rods, tubes, adhesives, and fiber yarn.

Union Carbide has attained its position as a leading plastics manufacturer in the last few years. It acquired the Bakelite corporation in 1939 in a move to expand its production in this field.

The company's activities are divided into four related divisions: [1] calcium carbide, oxygen, acetylene, and other industrial gases; welding and cutting apparatus; [2] alloys and metals; [3] electrodes, carbons, and batteries, and [4] synthetic organic chemicals and plastics. The company's output is taken mostly by the steel, railroad and automotive industries.

Actual manufacturing operations are conducted by 27 principal subsidiaries of the company directed from the headquarters in New York City.

Consolidated earnings in recent years follow:

	Net income.	Earned per sh.	Div. per sh.
1936	$36,852,208	$4.14	$2.30
1937	42,782,128	4.81	3.20
1938	25,173,412	2.77	2.40
1939	35,847,400	3.86	1.90
1940	42,247,274	4.55	2.30

A dividend of 75 cents a capital share was paid January 2 and the same amount will be distributed today. The company has outstanding 9,277,788 shares of no par capital stock. Dividends have been paid consistently since the company was organized in 1917.

The company has funded debt of $29,100,000. Current assets at the end of 1940 amounted to $158,227,334, against current liabilities of $47,041,002.

CHAIN AND CABLE.

Does American Chain and Cable company have any property in England?—M. T.

Answer: The English subsidiaries of the company are British Wire Products, Ltd., and the Parsons Chain company, Ltd.

CANADIAN DOLLAR RISES ON REPORT OF AID TO PARITY

U. S. May Effect Exchange on Full Value Basis.

The Canadian dollar advanced in value in relation to American currency yesterday in the "free" exchange market in New York. It was quoted at 85.1875 cents, an increase of 5-16th of a cent over Saturday's quotation.

Strength in Canadian currency developed as dispatches from Ottawa reported a new exchange agreement might be worked out with the United States under which the two currencies would be exchanged at par.

Details of the rumored step were lacking but it was indicated that it would provide for a relaxation by Canada of some of the war time restrictions on trade with the United States.

No Comment In Washington.

Treasury officials in Washington had no comment to make on the report.

Dealings in Canadian currency in the exchange market have been light in recent weeks. Yesterday's advance was the largest recorded in some time. Earlier this year the discount on the currency in American funds amounted to as much as 17 7-16 cents. In the last month, however, the discount has varied between 14⅛ and 15⅝ cents.

The Canadian exchange control board maintains rigid control over the use of Canadian balances in this country. Under the restrictions American dollar balances may be used only for purposes approved by the board.

Would Boost Buying Power.

Should the Canadian dollar be restored to parity in terms of American currency the purchasing power of Canada's dollar balances in this country would be enhanced. The Canadian board at present buys American dollar balances of Canadian citizens at a premium of 10 per cent and sells at a premium of 11 per cent.

Foreign exchange dealers said they believed Canada might be able to restore its currency to parity without aid from the United States. It was considered more likely, however, that the American stabilization fund might coöperate in maintaining a fixed rate between the currencies.

BUTTER AND EGG FUTURES HIGHEST IN SEVERAL YEARS

Butter and egg futures raced ahead to new peaks on the Chicago Mercantile exchange yesterday. A buying rush prompted by advances in cash prices and the Federal Surplus Commodities corporation's second invitation for offers of cheese and evaporated milk spurred the market.

The November butter delivery soared 1.05 cent a pound to a five year top of 35.75 cents, and closed at 35.20 cents, ½ cent above Saturday's level. Cash prices advanced ¾ to 1 cent a pound to the highest levels since mid-December and to peak March quotations since 1937.

Small reserve supplies influenced egg futures and the day's highs were at three and four year tops. October refrigerators rose 0.70 cent a dozen to 24.70 cents and April storage packs 0.60 cent to 23.10 cents. At the close the forward delivery was up 0.20 cent and April 0.25 cent. The cash market advanced ¼ to ¾ cent, all varieties except one moving to 1941 highs.

Notice to the Holders of CHICAGO SOUTH SHORE AND SOUTH BEND RAILROAD

3 Per Cent Mortgage Bonds, Series B, Due January 1, 1963

Chicago South Shore and South Bend Railroad has deposited with the undersigned, as Trustee under Mortgage dated January 1, 1938, $62,913.80 representing the amount payable into the sinking fund on or before March 31, 1941, which money, together with a balance of $873.27, is now available in the sinking fund for the purchase of Chicago South Shore and South Bend Railroad 3 Per Cent Mortgage Bonds, Series B, issued under said Mortgage, at the lowest price at which they can be obtained, but not exceeding par and accrued interest.

Holders of said bonds may submit written proposals for the sale of the same to the sinking fund until three o'clock P. M. April 15, 1941. Proposals should be addressed to The First National Bank of Chicago, Trust Department, 33 South Clark Street, Chicago, Illinois. All proposals must specify the numbers of the bonds. All offers including more than one bond shall be subject to acceptance of a portion thereof unless otherwise expressed. The right is reserved to reject any and all proposals in whole or in part.

Do not send bonds with your proposals. Owners of bonds whose proposals are accepted will be notified after the close of offers and instructed to forward their bonds for payment.

RAIL HEAD, U. S. JUDGE ATTACK POLICIES OF ICC

J. E. Gorman Hits Ouster of Stockholders.

ties of now solvent roads. It certainly will impair railroad credit, for no prudent person will risk his funds in an enterprise where such treatment is possible."

Gorman reported that the Rock Island had available for fixed charges in 1940 $8,183,830, and said the trustees expect $11,250,000 to be available from 1941 operations.

"The properties are in excellent physical condition," Gorman said. "The earnings prospect is such as to intensify the injustice of the commission's action in eliminating the stockholders."

The report showed that the road had a net loss of $5,604,164 for last year, after interest requirements, compared with a net loss of $8,337,547 in 1939.

Judge Favors a Review.

Judge Barnes rebuked the commission in an opinion in which he denied the North Western's plea, as debtor, for $17,000 from its trustee with which to finance an appeal against the reorganization plan for the road. He said the commission's stand made it impossible for him to grant the plea for funds, altho he believed the appeal should be facilitated. He said he "would be glad" to have the Circuit Court of Appeals review his decision of Oct. 12, 1940, approving the North Western reorganization plan.

He criticized the commission for taking months to rule on a legal point in the appeal fight, and for failing to take action which would have permitted him to order the trustee to pay the cost of the appeal.

Judge Barnes denied two pleas made by the road. In one memorandum opinion he denied a petition asking him to instruct the trustee to pay $17,000 of costs which would be involved in the appeal. In another opinion he refused to order the commission to set a maximum on appeal costs. He said he lacked power to grant either plea.

Raps 5 Months' Delay.

The court, he said, could not grant the $17,000 unless the commission first cleared the way by setting a maximum on any such allowance. A petition asking the commission to fix a maximum had been filed Oct. 25, 1940, and denied by the commission March 11, 1941.

"The court regrets that it finds itself without power to make this allowance. Had the commission fixed a maximum [allowance], the court would have allowed the request. There is one matter that should not be lost sight of. The court made an order confirming the plan of reorganization on Oct. 12, 1940. It tooks five months, less one day, to find out that the court has no power to permit the debtor's trustee to finance an appeal."

EXCEPTIONAL OPPORTUNITY

I want to give every sales minded man in Evanston, Rogers Park, Waukegan, and surrounding territories the opportunity of seeing the wonderful electrical product that is financed in a manner that any one can afford to buy. Because of our new sales program, whereby our men receive their entire full commission on all sales, they are able to draw from $75 to $200 per week. We have changed the lives of hundreds of men and their families from poverty, worries, and despair to happiness, contentment, and independence. One hour of your time may mean the most profitable investment you have made in your lifetime. Several of our men have been promoted in the last few months to distributorships with remunerations of $10,000 a year and up.

Apply Tuesday morning, 11 a. m. sharp. No other time, at 500 N. DEARBORN. ROOM 528.

Immediate Opportunity
NEW AMAZING PRODUCT THAT ENJOYS THE SAME POSITION IN ITS FIELD TODAY AS THE ELECTRIC LIGHT DID TO THE KEROSENE LAMP YEARS AGO.

Under our unique merchandising plan men who qualify will be set up in business for themselves and assisted in getting started successfully.

Under the co-operation plan branch dealers get phenomenal results. Earnings as high as $20 daily.

Permanent; no investment necessary; no lean seasons. We can train any intelligent clear thinker to sell this electrical unit and assure him of at least $40 commission his first week.

If you are wide awake and want a business that pays big earnings, investigate this unusual opportunity.

Call before 1 p. m.—Mr. Owen—Rm. 618.

SALESMEN
Opening new offices.
